(2) The Borrower has been granted HUD approval under paragraph (a) of this section; and

(3) The Borrower is temporarily unable to achieve or maintain a level of occupancy sufficient to prevent financial default and foreclosure under the Section 202 loan documents. HUD approval under this paragraph will be of limited duration. HUD may impose terms and conditions to this approval that are consistent with program objectives and necessary to protect its interest in the Section 202 loan.

§ 891.725 PAC administration.

HUD is responsible for the administration of the PAC.

§ 891.730 Default by Borrower.

(a) PAC provisions. The PAC will provide:

(1) That if HUD determines that the Borrower is in default under the PAC, HUD will notify the Borrower of the actions required to be taken to cure the default and of the remedies to be applied by HUD, including an action for specific performance under the PAC, reduction or suspension of project assistance payment and recovery of overpayments, as appropriate; and

(2) That if the Borrower fails to cure the default, HUD has the right to terminate the PAC or to take other corrective action.

(b) Loan provisions. Additional provisions governing default under the Section 202 loan are included in the regulatory agreement and other loan documents.

§ 891.735 Notice upon PAC expiration.

The PAC will provide that the Borrower will, at least 90 days before the end of the PAC contract term, notify each family occupying an assisted unit (or residential space in a group home) of any increase in the amount the family will be required to pay as rent as a result of the expiration. The notice of expiration will contain such information and will be served in such manner as HUD may prescribe.

§ 891.740 Responsibilities of Borrower.

(a) Marketing. (1) The Borrower must commence and continue diligent marketing activities not later than 90 days before the anticipated date of availability for occupancy of the group home or the anticipated date of availability of the first unit in an independent living complex. Market activities shall include the provision of notices of the availability of housing under the program to operators of temporary housing for the homeless in the same housing market.

(2) Marketing must be done in accordance with the HUD-approved affirmative fair housing marketing plan and all fair housing and equal opportunity requirements. The purpose of the plan and requirements is to achieve a condition in which eligible families of similar income levels in the same housing market have a like range of housing choices available to them regardless of their race, color, creed, religion, sex, or national origin.

(3) At the time of PAC execution, the Borrower must submit to HUD a list of leased and unleased assisted units (or in the case of a group home, leased and unleased residential spaces) with a justification for the unleased units or residential spaces, in order to qualify for vacancy payments for the unleased units or residential spaces.

(b) Management and maintenance. The responsibilities of the Borrower with regard to management and maintenance are provided in §891.600(b).

(c) Contracting for services. The responsibilities of the Borrower with regard to contracting for services are provided in §891.600(c).

(d) Submission of financial and operating statements. The responsibilities of the Borrower with regard to the submission of financial and operating statements are provided in §891.600(d).

(e) Use of project funds. The responsibilities of the Borrower with regard to the use of project funds are provided in §891.600(e).

(f) Reports. The responsibilities of the Borrower with regard to reports are provided in §891.600(f).

§ 891.745 Replacement reserve.

The general requirements for the replacement reserve are provided in §891.605. For projects funded under §§891.655 through 891.790, the amount of the deposits for the initial year of operation shall be an amount equal to 0.6
