

§ 154.220

(2) If the health insurance issuer is also required to submit a rate filing to a State in connection with the rate increase under State law, CMS will accept a copy of the filing provided that the filing includes all of the information described in paragraph (g)(1) of this section.

(h) If the level of detail provided by the issuer for the information under paragraph (g) of this section does not provide sufficient basis for CMS to determine whether the rate increase is an unreasonable rate increase, CMS will request the additional information necessary to make its determination. The health insurance issuer must provide the requested information to CMS within 10 business days following its receipt of the request.

(i) Posting of the disclosure on the CMS Web site: (1) CMS promptly will make available to the public on its Web site the information contained in Parts I and II of each Preliminary Justification.

(2) CMS will make available to the public on its Web site the information contained in Part III of each Preliminary Justification that is not a trade secret or confidential commercial or financial information as defined in CMS's Freedom of Information Act regulations, 45 CFR 5.65.

(3) CMS will include a disclaimer on its Web site with the information made available to the public that explains the purpose and role of the Preliminary Justification.

(j) CMS will include information on its Web site concerning how the public can submit comments on the proposed rate increases that CMS reviews.

§ 154.220 Timing of providing the Preliminary Justification.

A health insurance issuer must submit a Preliminary Justification for all rate increases subject to review that are filed in a State on or after September 1, 2011, or effective on or after September 1, 2011 in a State that does not require the rate increase subject to review to be filed, as follows:

(a) If a State requires that a proposed rate increase be filed with the State prior to the implementation of the rate, the health insurance issuer must submit to CMS and the applicable

State the Preliminary Justification on the date on which the health insurance issuer submits the proposed rate increase to the State.

(b) For all other States, the health insurance issuer must submit to CMS and the State the Preliminary Justification prior to the implementation of the rate increase.

§ 154.225 Determination by CMS or a State of an unreasonable rate increase.

(a) When CMS receives a Preliminary Justification for a rate increase subject to review and CMS reviews the rate increase under § 154.210(a), CMS will make a timely determination whether the rate increase is an unreasonable rate increase.

(1) CMS will post on its Web site its final determination and a brief explanation of its analysis, consistent with the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary under § 154.210(b)(2), within five business days following its final determination.

(2) If CMS determines that the rate increase is an unreasonable rate increase, CMS will also provide its final determination and brief explanation to the health insurance issuer within five business days following its final determination.

(b) If a State conducts a review under § 154.210(b), CMS will adopt the State's determination of whether a rate increase is unreasonable and post on the CMS Web site the State's final determination described in § 154.210(b)(2).

(c) If a State determines that the rate increase is an unreasonable rate increase and the health insurance issuer is legally permitted to implement the unreasonable rate increase under applicable State law, CMS will provide the State's final determination and brief explanation to the health insurance issuer within five business days following CMS's receipt thereof.

§ 154.230 Submission and posting of Final Justifications for unreasonable rate increases.

(a) If a health insurance issuer receives from CMS a final determination by CMS or a State that a rate increase is an unreasonable rate increase, and the health insurance issuer declines to
