§ 7.3001

§ 7.3001 Sharing space and employees.

- (a) Sharing space. A national bank may
- (1) Lease excess space on bank premises to one or more other businesses (including other banks and financial institutions):
- (2) Share space jointly held with one or more other businesses; or
- (3) Offer its services in space owned or leased to other businesses.
- (b) Sharing employees. When sharing space with other businesses as described in paragraph (a) of this section, a national bank may provide, under one or more written agreements among the bank, the other businesses, and their employees, that:
- (1) A bank employee may act as agent for the other business; or
- (2) An employee of the other business may act as agent for the bank.
- (c) Supervisory conditions. When a national bank engages in arrangements of the types listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the bank shall ensure that:
- (1) The other business is conspicuously, accurately, and separately identified:
- (2) Shared employees clearly and fully disclose the nature of their agency relationship to customers of the bank and of the other businesses so that customers will know the identity of the bank or business that is providing the product or service;
- (3) The arrangement does not constitute a joint venture or partnership with the other business under applicable state law;
- (4) All aspects of the relationship between the bank and the other business are conducted at arm's length, unless a special arrangement is warranted because the other business is a subsidiary of the bank;
- (5) Security issues arising from the activities of the other business on the premises are addressed;
- (6) The activities of the other business do not adversely affect the safety and soundness of the bank;
- (7) The shared employees or the entity for which they perform services are duly licensed or meet qualification requirements of applicable statutes and regulations pertaining to agents or employees of such other business; and

- (8) The assets and records of the parties are segregated.
- (d) Other legal requirements. When entering into arrangements, of the types described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, and in conducting operations pursuant to those arrangements the bank must ensure that each arrangement complies with 12 U.S.C. 29 and 36 and with any other applicable laws and regulations. If the arrangement involves an affiliate or a shareholder, director, officer or employee of the bank:
- (1) The bank must ensure compliance with all applicable statutory and regulatory provisions governing bank transactions with these persons or entities:
- (2) The parties must comply with all applicable fiduciary duties; and
- (3) The parties, if they are in competition with each other, must consider limitations, if any, imposed by applicable antitrust laws.

§7.4000 Visitorial powers.

- (a) General rule. (1) Under 12 U.S.C. 484, only the OCC or an authorized representative of the OCC may exercise visitorial powers with respect to national banks. State officials may not exercise visitorial powers with respect to national banks, such as conducting examinations, inspecting or requiring the production of books or records of national banks, or prosecuting enforcement actions, except in limited circumstances authorized by federal law. However, production of a bank's records (other than non-public OCC information under 12 CFR part 4, subpart C) may be required under normal judicial procedures.
- (2) For purposes of this section, visitorial powers include:
- (i) Examination of a bank:
- (ii) Inspection of a bank's books and records:
- (iii) Regulation and supervision of activities authorized or permitted pursuant to federal banking law; and
- (iv) Enforcing compliance with any applicable Federal or state laws concerning those activities, including through investigations that seek to ascertain compliance through production
