Commission approval of self-regulatory guidelines, industry groups or other persons must file a request for such approval. A request shall be accompanied by the following:

- (i) A copy of the full text of the guidelines for which approval is sought and any accompanying commentary;
- (ii) A comparison of each provision of §§312.3 through 312.8 with the corresponding provisions of the guidelines; and
 - (iii) A statement explaining:
- (A) How the guidelines, including the applicable assessment mechanism, meet the requirements of this part; and
- (B) How the assessment mechanism and compliance incentives required under paragraphs (b)(2) and (3) of this section provide effective enforcement of the requirements of this part.
- (2) The Commission shall act upon a request under this section within 180 days of the filing of such request and shall set forth its conclusions in writing.
- (3) Industry groups or other persons whose guidelines have been approved by the Commission must submit proposed changes in those guidelines for review and approval by the Commission in the manner required for initial approval of guidelines under paragraph (c)(1). The statement required under paragraph (c)(1)(iii) must describe how the proposed changes affect existing provisions of the guidelines.
- (d) Records. Industry groups or other persons who seek safe harbor treatment by compliance with guidelines that have been approved under this part shall maintain for a period not less than three years and upon request make available to the Commission for inspection and copying:
- (1) Consumer complaints alleging violations of the guidelines by subject operators;
- (2) Records of disciplinary actions taken against subject operators; and
- (3) Results of the independent assessments of subject operators' compliance required under paragraph (b)(2) of this section
- (e) Revocation of approval. The Commission reserves the right to revoke any approval granted under this section if at any time it determines that the approved self-regulatory guidelines and their implementation do not, in fact, meet the requirements of this part.

§312.11 Rulemaking review.

No later than April 21, 2005, the Commission shall initiate a rulemaking review proceeding to evaluate the implementation of this part, including the effect of the implementation of this part on practices relating to the collection and disclosure of information relating to children, children's ability to obtain access to information of their choice online, and on the availability of websites directed to children; and report to Congress on the results of this review.

§312.12 Severability.

The provisions of this part are separate and severable from one another. If any provision is stayed or determined to be invalid, it is the Commission's intention that the remaining provisions shall continue in effect.
