§ 145.3 [Reserved]

§ 145.4 Public records available with identifying details deleted; nonpublic records available in abridged or summary form.

(a) To the extent required to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, the Commission may delete identifying details when it makes available “public records” as defined in §145.0(c). In such instances, the Commission shall explain the justification for the deletion fully in writing.
(b) Certain “nonpublic records,” as defined in §145.0(d), may, as authorized by the Commission, be made available for public inspection and copying in an abridged or summary form, with identifying details deleted.
[51 FR 26869, July 28, 1986]

§ 145.5 Disclosure of nonpublic records.

The Commission may decline to publish or make available to the public any “nonpublic records,” as defined in §145.0(d), if those records fall within the descriptions in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section. The Commission shall publish or make available reasonably segregable portions of “nonpublic records” subject to a request under §145.7 if those portions do not fall within the descriptions in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section. Requests for confidential treatment of segregable public information will not be processed.
(a)(1) Specifically authorized under criteria established by an executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and (2) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such executive order;
(b) Related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the Commission or any other agency of the Government of the United States, including operation rules, guidelines, and manuals of procedure for investigators, auditors, and other employees (other than those rules and practices which
