Environmental Protection Agency

the recipient must apply a usage rate. The recipient must submit documentation of the usage rate computation to EPA. The EPA-approved usage rate must be included in the Cooperative Agreement before the recipient incurs these equipment costs.

(b) Usage rate application. The recipient must record the use of the equipment by site, activity, and operable unit, as applicable, and must apply the usage rate to calculate equipment charges by site, activity, and operable unit, as applicable. For Core Program and pre-remedial activities, the recipient is not required to apply a usage rate.

§ 35.6325 Title and EPA interest in CERCLA-funded property.

- (a) EPA's interest in CERCLA-funded property. EPA has an interest (the percentage of EPA's participation in the total award) in both equipment and supplies purchased with CERCLA funds.
- (b) Title in CERCLA-funded property. Title in both equipment and supplies purchased with CERCLA funds vests in the recipient.
- (1) Right to transfer title. EPA retains the right to transfer title of all property purchased with CERCLA funds to the Federal Government or a third party within 120 calendar days after project completion or at the time of disposal.
- (2) Equipment used as all or part of the remedy. The following requirements apply to equipment used as all or part of the remedy:
- (i) Fixed in-place equipment. EPA no longer has an interest in fixed in-place equipment once the equipment is installed.
- (ii) Equipment that is an integral part of services to individuals. EPA no longer has an interest in equipment that is an integral part of services to individuals, such as pipes, lines, or pumps providing hookups for homeowners on an existing water distribution system, once EPA certifies that the remedy is operational and functional.

§ 35.6330 Title to federally owned property.

Title to all federally owned property vests in the Federal Government.

§ 35.6335 Property management standards.

The recipient must comply with the following property management standards for property purchased with CERCLA funds. The recipient may use its own property management system if it meets the following standards.

- (a) Control. The recipient must maintain:
- (1) Property records for CERCLA-funded property which include the contents specified in §35.6700(c);
- (2) A control system that ensures adequate safeguards for prevention of loss, damage, or theft of the property. The recipient must make provisions for the thorough investigation and documentation of any loss, damage, or theft;
- (3) Procedures to ensure maintenance of the property are in good condition and periodic calibration of the instruments used for precision measurements;
- (4) Sales procedures to ensure the highest possible return, if the recipient is authorized to sell the property;
- (5) Provisions for financial control and accounting in the financial management system of all equipment; and
- (6) Identification of all federally owned property.
- (b) Inventory and reporting for CERCLA-funded equipment—(1) Physical inventory. The recipient must conduct a physical inventory at least once every two years for all equipment except that which is part of the in-place remedy. The recipient must reconcile physical inventory results with the equipment records.
- (2) Inventory reports. The recipient must comply with requirements for inventory reports set forth in §35.6660.
- (c) Inventory and reporting for federally owned property—(1) Physical inventory. The recipient must conduct a physical inventory:
  - (i) Annually;
- (ii) When the property is no longer needed: and
- (iii) Within 90 days after the end of the project period.
- (2) Inventory reports. The recipient must comply with requirements for inventory reports in §35.6660.
