§ 146.160

State in the market (or markets) are discontinued and not renewed.

- (e) Prohibition on market reentry. An issuer who elects to discontinue offering all health insurance coverage in a market (or markets) in a State as described in paragraph (d) of this section may not issue coverage in the market (or markets) and State involved during the 5-year period beginning on the date of discontinuation of the last coverage not renewed.
- (f) Exception for uniform modification of coverage. Only at the time of coverage renewal may issuers modify the health insurance coverage for a product offered to a group health plan in the—
  - (1) Large group market; and
- (2) Small group market if, for coverage available in this market (other than only through one or more bona fide associations), the modification is consistent with State law and is effective uniformly among group health plans with that product.
- (g) Application to coverage offered only through associations. In the case of health insurance coverage that is made available by a health insurance issuer in the small or large group market to employers only through one or more associations, the reference to "plan sponsor" is deemed, with respect to coverage provided to an employer member of the association, to include a reference to such employer.

§146.160 Disclosure of information.

- (a) General rule. In connection with the offering of any health insurance coverage to a small employer, a health insurance issuer is required to—
- (1) Make a reasonable disclosure to the employer, as part of its solicitation and sales materials, of the availability of information described in paragraph (b) of this section; and
- (2) Upon request of the employer, provide that information to the employer.
- (b) Information described. Subject to paragraph (d) of this section, information that must be provided under paragraph (a)(2) of this section is information concerning the following:

- (1) Provisions of coverage relating to the following:
- (i) The issuer's right to change premium rates and the factors that may affect changes in premium rates.
  - (ii) Renewability of coverage.
- (iii) Any preexisting condition exclusion, including use of the alternative method of counting creditable coverage.
- (iv) Any affiliation periods applied by  ${\it HMOs}$ .
- (v) The geographic areas served by  ${\rm HMOs.}$
- (2) The benefits and premiums available under all health insurance coverage for which the employer is qualified, under applicable State law. See §146.150(b) through (f) for allowable limitations on product availability.
- (c) Form of information. The information must be described in language that is understandable by the average small employer, with a level of detail that is sufficient to reasonably inform small employers of their rights and obligations under the health insurance coverage. This requirement is satisfied if the issuer provides each of the following with respect to each product offered:
- (1) An outline of coverage. For purposes of this section, outline of coverage means a description of benefits in summary form.
- (2) The rate or rating schedule that applies to the product (with and without the preexisting condition exclusion or affiliation period).
- (3) The minimum employer contribution and group participation rules that apply to any particular type of coverage.
- (4) In the case of a network plan, a map or listing of counties served.
- (5) Any other information required by the State.
- (d) Exception. An issuer is not required to disclose any information that is proprietary and trade secret information under applicable law.
