§ 145.3 17 CFR Ch. I (4–1–14 Edition)

(3) Guidance for obtaining various types and categories of public information from the Commission;
(b) Final opinions and orders of the Commission in the adjudication of cases, including concurring and dissenting opinions;
(c) Statements of policy and interpretations which have been adopted by the Commission and are not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER;
(d) Records released in response to FOIA requests that have been, or the Commission anticipates will be, the subject of additional FOIA requests;
(e) Administrative manuals and instructions that affect the public; and
(f) Indices providing identifying information to the public as to the materials made available pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section.

[62 FR 17069, Apr. 9, 1997]

§ 145.4 Public records available with identifying details deleted; non-public records available in abridged or summary form.
(a) To the extent required to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, the Commission may delete identifying details when it makes available “public records” as defined in § 145.0(c). In such instances, the Commission shall explain the justification for the deletion fully in writing.
(b) Certain “nonpublic records,” as defined in §145.0(d), may, as authorized by the Commission, be made available for public inspection and copying in an abridged or summary form, with identifying details deleted.

[51 FR 26869, July 28, 1986]

§ 145.5 Disclosure of nonpublic records.
The Commission may decline to publish or make available to the public any “nonpublic records,” as defined in §145.0(d), if those records fall within the descriptions in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section. The Commission shall publish or make available reasonably segregable portions of “nonpublic records” subject to a request under §145.7 if those portions do not fall within the descriptions in paragraphs (a) through (i) of this section.

Requests for confidential treatment of segregable public information will not be processed.
(a)(1) Specifically authorized under criteria established by an executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and (2) are in fact properly classified pursuant to such executive order;
(b) Related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of the Commission or any other agency of the Government of the United States, including operation rules, guidelines, and manuals of procedure for investigators, auditors, and other employees (other than those rules and practices which establish legal requirements to which members of the public are expected to conform);
(c) Specifically exempted from disclosure by statute, including:
(1) Data and information which would separately disclose the business transactions or market positions of any person and trade secrets or names of customers; and
(2) Any data or information concerning or obtained in connection with any pending investigation of any person;
(d) Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential, including, but not limited to:
(i) Reports of stocks of grain, such as Forms 38, 38C, 38M and 38T required to be filed pursuant to 17 CFR 1.44;
(ii) Statements of reporting traders on Form 40 required to be filed pursuant to 17 CFR 18.04;
(iii) Statements concerning special calls on positions required to be filed pursuant to 17 CFR part 21;
(iv) Statements concerning identification of special accounts on Form 102 required to be filed pursuant to 17 CFR 17.01;
(v) Reports required to be filed pursuant to parts 15 through 21 of this chapter;
(vi) Reports concerning option positions of large traders required to be filed pursuant to part 16 of this chapter;
(vii) Form 188; and
(viii) The following reports and statements that are also set forth in paragraph (h) of this section, except as
