§41.13

more than 45 business days over 3 consecutive calendar months pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall not be a narrow-based security index for the following 3 calendar months.

- (d) Definitions. For purposes of this section:
- (1) Market capitalization has the same meaning as in  $\S41.11(d)(6)$  of this chapter
- (2) Dollar value of trading volume of a security on a particular day is the value in U.S. dollars of all reported transactions in such security on that day. If the value of reported transactions used in calculating dollar value of trading volume is reported in a currency other than U.S. dollars, the total value of each day's transactions shall be converted into U.S. dollars on the basis of a spot rate of exchange for that day obtained from at least one independent entity that provides or disseminates foreign exchange quotations in the ordinary course of its business.
- (3) Lowest weighted 25% of an index has the same meaning as in §41.11(d)(5) of this chapter.
- (4) Preceding 6 full calendar months has the same meaning as in $41.11(d)(8) of this chapter.
- (5) Reported transaction has the same meaning as in $41.11(d)(10) of this chapter

§41.14 Transition period for indexes that cease being narrow-based security indexes.

(a) Forty-five day tolerance provision. An index that is a narrow-based security index that becomes a broadbased security index for no more than 45 business days over 3 consecutive calendar months shall be a narrow-based security index.

- (b) Transition period for indexes that cease being narrow-based security indexes for more than forty-five days. An index that is a narrow-based security index that becomes a broad-based security index for more than 45 business days over 3 consecutive calendar months shall continue to be a narrow-based security index for the following 3 calendar months.
- (c) Trading in months with open interest following transition period. After the transition period provided for in paragraph (b) of this section ends, a national securities exchange may continue to trade only in those months in the security futures product that had open interest on the date the transition period ended.
- (d) Definition of calendar month. Calendar month means, with respect to a particular day, the period of time beginning on a calendar date and ending during another month on a day prior to such date.

§41.15 Exclusion from definition of narrow-based security index for indexes composed of debt securities.

- (a) An index is not a narrow-based security index if:
- (1)(i) Each of the securities of an issuer included in the index is a security, as defined in section 2(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1933 and section 3 (a)(10) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the respective rules promulgated thereunder, that is a note, bond, debenture, or evidence of indebtedness;
- (ii) None of the securities of an issuer included in the index is an equity security, as defined in section 3(a)(11) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules promulgated thereunder;
- (iii) The index is comprised of more than nine securities that are issued by more than nine non-affiliated issuers;
- (iv) The securities of any issuer included in the index do not comprise more than 30 percent of the index's weighting:
- (v) The securities of any five non-affiliated issuers included in the index do not comprise more than 60 percent of the index's weighting;
