

1332.201

48 CFR Ch. 13 (10–1–14 Edition)

Subpart 1332.2—Commercial Item
Purchase Financing

Subpart 1332.7—Contract Funding

1332.201 Statutory authority.

1332.702 Policy.

Payment for commercial items may be made under such terms and conditions as the designee authorized in CAM 1301.70 determines are appropriate or customary in the commercial marketplace and are in the best interest of the United States.

Contracting officers shall obtain assurances of available funds only from properly authorized designated certifying officers in accordance with Part 4, Section 1110 of the Treasury Financial Manual.

1332.202 General.

1332.702–70 Forms.

1332.202–1 Policy.

The designee authorized to approve unusual contract financing is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

Contracting officers must obtain an electronic or hardcopy procurement request form on which the availability of adequate funds have been certified by a designated certifying officer. This form must have the name of the certifying official and the certified available funds, as well as the technical and other specifications of the request, administrative approvals, clearances, and information for processing payment.

Subpart 1332.4—Advance Payments for Non-Commercial Items

Subpart 1332.8—Assignment of Claims

1332.402 General.

(a) Advanced payment may be authorized for contracts, other than those at FAR 32.403(a) and (b), only if other types of financing are not reasonably available to the contractor in adequate amounts.

1332.802 Conditions.

The designee authorized to receive the written notice of assignment is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

(b) The designee authorized to determine when advance payment is in the public interest or facilitates national defense is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

Subpart 1332.9—Prompt Payment

1332.404 Exclusions.

Advance payments may be authorized for items listed in FAR 32.404(a).

1332.903 Responsibilities.

The designee authorized to establish Prompt Payment policies and procedures is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

1332.407 Interest.

The designee authorized to approve advance payment without interest is as set forth in CAM 1301.70.

1332.906 Making payments.

The designee authorized to allow invoice payments earlier than 7 days prior to the due date as specified in the contract is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

Subpart 1332.5—Progress Payments Based on Costs

Subpart 1332.11—Electronic Funds Transfer

1332.501 General.

1332.1108 Payment by Governmentwide commercial purchase card.

1332.501–2 Unusual progress payments.

The designee authorized to approve a contractor's request for unusual progress payments is set forth in CAM 1301.70.

Use of the Governmentwide commercial purchase card is subject to the requirements of the FAR, other internal Departmental policies, as well as operating unit policies and procedures related to the purchase card. All purchases made with the purchase card must comply with all procedures and