PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We are thankful, gracious God, for people who work for justice and who long for the truth, and who receive happiness and satisfaction from helping others in their need. In spite of the trials of the day, in spite of the expectations and mistakes, we know that we achieve our true humanity when we strive to be what You would have us be and rise to the responsibilities we have been given. And may Your peace that passes all human understanding be with us now and evermore. Amen.
