URGING IMMEDIATE ACTION ON H.R. 483

(Mr. DINGELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute, and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, on this side we are ready to bring up debate and deal with H.R. 483. I would urge the majority to call it up at the earliest possible moment.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON S. 244,
PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT OF 1995

Mr. CLINGER. Mr. Speaker, I call up the conference report on the Senate bill, S. 244, to further the goals of the Paperwork Reduction Act to have Federal agencies become more responsible and publicly accountable for reducing the burden of Federal paperwork on the public, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. MCINNIS). Pursuant to the rule, the conference report is considered as read.

(For conference report and statement, see proceedings of the House of Monday, April 3, 1995, at page H4093.)

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER] will be recognized for 30 minutes, and the gentleman from Minnesota [Mr. PETERSON] will be recognized for 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER].

Mr. CLINGER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I am very pleased to bring to the floor today the conference agreement on the reauthorization of the Paperwork Reduction Act. It is the first reauthorization since the act expired in 1989.

The House version, I would remind my colleagues, of this bill was approved by an overwhelming vote, a unanimous vote, of 418 to nothing. The conference report very closely resembles the excellent provisions which were included in our original bill. There are several provisions which I would just like to discuss for the RECORD.

First, the conference bill reauthorizes the appropriation for the Office of Management and Budget's Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, so-called OIRA, for 6 years. OIRA is the key office responsible for implementing the provisions of the Contract With America's regulatory reduction goals which are moving through this Congress. OIRA had a permanent authorization which I had hoped the other body would accept. Six years, however, which is what is provided in the conference report, should provide OIRA with a significant authorization to implement the regulatory reforms called for by the Contract With America.

Second, the bill strengthens the requirements of existing law to ensure that agencies develop low-burden, better-quality collections of information that in particular reduce the compliance requirements and paperwork costs for small businesses. This is clearly a very meritorious objective, to take away some of this overwhelming burden that we have imposed on small businesses over the years in the form of regulatory requirements.

Third, it overturns the 1990 Supreme Court case of Dole versus the United Steel Workers of America, which thereby restores the full coverage of the Paperwork Reduction Act over third-party disclosure requirements, which was originally included in this act.

Fourth, Mr. Speaker, and most importantly, the conference bill protects the public by providing citizens with a complete legal defense if agencies refuse to participate in a clearance process involving public notice and comment, public protection, and OIRA review. This provision is based on the very excellent amendment which was offered on the House floor by our colleague, the gentleman from Idaho, Mr. MIKE CRAPO.

Finally, Mr. Speaker, the legislation mandates a paperwork reduction goal of 10 percent for the next 2 years, as proposed in the committee amendment offered by our colleague, the gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. JON FOX.

The remainder of the bill was discussed at length during consideration of the House-passed bill on February 22. As I say, those were the only changes that were implemented in this conference report, so I would encourage all Members to support this conference report.

Let me conclude my remarks by expressing my appreciation to those who
