

TRIBUTE TO ABIGAIL M. POLUS

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 3, 1995

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this opportunity to recognize an exceptional young woman from my district who has recently accepted her appointment as a member of the class of 1999 at the U.S. Military Academy.

Abigail M. Polus will soon graduate Bowling Green High School after 4 years of outstanding academic achievements as well as extra-curricular involvement. While in high school Abigail has distinguished herself as a leader among her peers. She is an outstanding student and patriot.

Mr. Speaker, one of the most important responsibilities of Members of Congress is to identify outstanding young men and women and to nominate them for admission to the U.S. service academies. While at the academy, they will be the beneficiaries of one of the finest educations available, so that in the future, they might be entrusted with the very security of our Nation.

I am confident that Abigail Polus has both the ability and the desire to meet this challenge. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating her for her accomplishments to date and to wish her the best of luck as she begins her career in service to our country.

THE SPIRIT OF BLOOMFIELD

HON. WILLIAM J. COYNE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 3, 1995

Mr. COYNE. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to represent the Bloomfield neighborhood of Pittsburgh, PA, where the Bloomfield Citizens Council [BCC] will be celebrating the Spirit of Bloomfield on May 5, 1995. This Spirit of Bloomfield celebration will feature a recognition of outstanding local residents who have made major contributions to the quality of life in this community. These men and women exemplify the ideal neighborhood resident who is dedicated to strengthening the social fabric of his or her community. It is men and women like those being honored by the Bloomfield Citizens Council who have helped to make our country the great Nation it is today. It is fitting that the House should have this opportunity to reflect on the good works of these individuals.

Patty Ladasky is this year's recipient of the Mary Cercone Outstanding Citizen Award. Patricia Ann Ladasky is known as the infamous Patty from Bloomfield to the public officials, neighborhood community groups, and publications. She is a professional staff writer for the Spirit of Bloomfield Family Magazine. Patty's events calendar and special event feature stories are treasured sources of information for local residents. She has also given thousands of hours of dedication and volunteer work on behalf of the entire Bloomfield community. Patty is known for her willingness to be on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in previous years as vice president and board of directors member of the Bloomfield Citizens Council. She also helped to coordinate the BCC's response to neighborhood disaster like the toxic spill of April 1987 and the Taylor street fire, on January 17, 1993. Patty has also volunteered and held office with the Immaculate Conception School and is community liaison for WQED TV station for BCC. Patty has been married to Johnny Ladasky for 28 years and has a daughter, Wendy Anne, and a son, John.

Dr. Jack Hill has been selected for the 1995 Lifetime Achievement Award for his years of dedicated service to the advancement of clinical application of medicine in the fields of hematology, oncology, and internal medicine. In his 32 years at the Western Pennsylvania Hospital, he has touched the lives of Bloomfield residents with extraordinary sensitivity and concern for patients. He has been on staff of this hospital since 1963 where he has served as president of the medical staff, chief of the division of hematology and medical oncology, and chairman of the department of medicine. Dr. Hill is also a member of the clinical faculty of the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. He also appears twice a week on KDKA channel 2 noon news presenting "Ask the Doctor" reports. He has been honored repeatedly by the medical profession and on October 18, 1991, received the Governor's Special Recognition Award by the American College of Physicians for educating the Pittsburgh community about medical issues. Dr. Hill and his wife, Margaret (Peggy) McMurray, have been married for 36 years and have two sons, a daughter, and three granddaughters.

Sister Donna Smith is being honored with the Outstanding Youth Dedication Award for her commitment and innovative ability to stimulate intellectual curiosity in the students of Immaculate Conception. She is known for her dedication to the total child and her focus on helping children build character and develop personally. Sister Donna grew up on a farm in Butler and entered the sisters of the Holy Spirit in 1985 after having worked for many years as an engineering technician at American Glass Research. Sister Donna is currently working on her Masters Degree in Elementary Administration at Duquesne University where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education. Sister Donna was assigned to Immaculate Conception in Bloomfield as a teacher in January 1989 and made her first vows as a Sister of the Holy Spirit in August of 1989. Sister Donna will make her final vows in August 1995.

Joedda Sampson has been selected to receive the Bloomfield Historical Preservation Award for her visionary approach and use of the Henry B. Lynch Victoria Mansion on Winebiddle Street. Joedda Sampson purchased the property and realized her dream of developing "Victoria Hall: A Celebration Center" with strong support from the BCC and local residents. She is married to Ben Sampson and she has one daughter and eight step-children.

Herman Mitchell is being honored with the Dedicated Service Award for his years of service with the Pittsburgh City Police Department since 1958. Commander Mitchell retired last year after serving and protecting the people of Pittsburgh for 36 years. He held a number of key positions with the police department and was commander of the Community Oriented Police [C.O.P.] Division when he retired. He and his wife, Franzelle, have 8 children and 17 grandchildren.

Jerry McFadden is the recipient of this year's Neighborhood Loyalty Award. Sergeant McFadden retired from the Pittsburgh City Police Department on October 14, 1994, after 26 years of service. He won the praise of many Bloomfield residents during his service as head of the Crime Prevention Unit. His final year and half of police duty was a supervisor on the new C.O.P. program. He resides in Greenfield with his wife, Mary E., and are the parents of Jerry, Sean, and Heather.

Ken Slaughter is being honored with the Community Commitment Award for his service as a police officer in the Bloomfield community. Officer Slaughter currently serves as Crime Prevention Officer and also serves on the BCC Professional Advisory Board. Officer Slaughter grew up in the Hill District and is a graduate of Schenley High School.

Kurt Kondrich has been selected to receive the Extra Mile Award for his dedication to working closely with the BCC and the residents of Bloomfield as an officer with the Pittsburgh City Police Department. Officer Kondrich earned a B.A. Degree in Criminology from Indiana University and served as a police officer in Atlanta and with the Lee County, Florida Sheriff Department. He also serves on the Professional Advisory Board of the BCC. Officer Kondrich is the son of Ted and Marsha and was raised in Plum Boro.

Mr. Speaker, I want to also commend to the Members of the U.S. House of Representatives the men and women of Bloomfield who have been honored for their service to the defense of the United States of America. The following individuals have been given The Catholic War Veterans Patriotism Award: Regis Linn, Pete Fantone, Angelo Tabuso, Patricia Jean Donatelli Melfi, Norma Jean Donatelli Feigel, and Nina Rodgers. The following were selected to receive The Veterans of Foreign Wars Patriotism Award: Raymond (Ray) Fern, Bill Reynolds, Joe Wolff, Dorothy Pfenningworth, Mary Jane Kopicki, and Mary Ann (Sis) Stowitsky.

The people of Bloomfield and the city of Pittsburgh are rightfully proud of all of these men and women who have served their community and their Nation. I am pleased to have this opportunity to join in saluting these individuals who have done so much for their fellow citizens.

TRIBUTE TO EDWARD FELDMAN

HON. HOWARD L. BERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 3, 1995

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to pay tribute to Edward Feldman, who is completing a 2-year term as chair of the UCLA Governmental Relations Steering Committee. I had the pleasure of working with Ed on nursing home issues when I served in the California Legislature in the 1970's, and can attest to his zeal and dedication in fighting for those causes in which he believes.

A fellow UCLA alumnus, Ed has spent 21 of the past 27 years specializing in the investigation and prosecution of white collar crimes for the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office. His areas of responsibility included the major fraud
