ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON AGING

• Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I come to the floor today to recognize the efforts of the many individuals who are participating in the fourth White House Conference on Aging. In particular, I would like to give special recognition to the delegates from my State of Minnesota.

Over the last 2 years, I have had the opportunity to work with and listen to many of Minnesota's senior citizens about issues of great concern to them such as ensuring the solvency of the Social Security and Medicare trust funds, expanding the highly successful Medicare Select health care program to all senior citizens and repealing the Clinton administration's seniors-only tax.

In addition, many seniors have expressed the frustration with the seniors' earnings limit which unfairly penalizes senior citizens by reducing their Social Security benefits if they continue working beyond retirement age and earn over $11,160.

Last year, as a member of the 103d Congress, I nominated John Pribyl as the delegate from Minnesota's Sixth Congressional District. John has spent over 20 years helping to develop service opportunities for senior citizens.

As director of the Lutheran Social Service of Minnesota's Senior Companion Program and Foster Grandparent Program, John Pribyl has worked tirelessly to promote seniors as a valuable resource with talent and experiences to share with others.

I also nominated Joanne Demko of Minneapolis, who has worked in aging services for 15 years. She currently serves as director of the Volunteers of America Anoka/Hennepin Senior Dining and Home Delivered Meals Programs. In addition to these duties, Demko is an active member of the Minnesota Gerontological Society, Minnesota Minority Elders Coalition, and previously served as president of the Minnesota Nutrition Directors Association.

Mr. President, these two individuals have devoted a significant portion of their lives improving the opportunities for Minnesota senior citizens. Joanne Demko and John Pribyl stand out as leaders in their communities who have the vision, the compassion, and the determination to protect the great state of Minnesota. Mr. President, it is a distinct honor for me to have such qualified champions of seniors' issues advocating the needs of older Americans.

Mr. President, I ask that there be printed in the RECORD a complete list of Minnesota's delegates to the White House Conference on Aging and again, congratulate these individuals for their commitment to these important issues.

TRIBUTE TO DR. BRUCE FLINT,
VICE CHANCELLOR EMERITUS,
LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY
AGRICULTURAL CENTER

Mr. JOHNSTON. Mr. President, on Wednesday, May 31, 1995, Dr. Bruce Flint, the vice chancellor emeritus and retired director of the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service, will be honored by his peers and colleagues at LSU and throughout the State of Louisiana.

After achieving a degree in agricultural economics from LSU, Dr. Flint, who grew up on a farm in northeastern Louisiana, served 4 years in the U.S. Army before accepting his first extension position—as an assistant county agent in Union Parish—in 1956. Through the years, he served as an associate county agent, district program specialist, associate specialist for training and staff development, extension education specialist, division leader and State agent for personnel and programs. Along the way, he also obtained his masters degree in extension education from LSU and his doctoral degree in cooperative extension administration from the University of Wisconsin.

In 1980, Dr. Flint was named assistant director of the extension service with responsibilities for personnel, business, and fiscal affairs of the organization, and in 1984, he was promoted to associate director. In mid-1988, he assumed leadership for the agricultural center's administrative services as its director, and in mid-1989, he was appointed as vice chancellor for administration and director of administrative services. Finally, in 1993, Dr. Flint returned to extension as vice chancellor and director of the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service—the position he held until his retirement on April 30, 1995. On April 21, 1995, the LSU Board of Supervisors named him Vice Chancellor Emeritus Bruce Flint in recognition of his remarkable career with the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service and the LSU Agricultural Center.

That recognition capped a 39-year career during which Dr. Flint received a variety of honors, served on countless boards and committees, and was a member of several honor societies. Among those, he was a member of Epsilon Sigma Phi, Gamma Sigma Delta, the Adult Education Association, the Commission of Professors of Adult Education, and the American Legion.

He also served as chairman of the LSU Continuing Education Council, the Midsouth Region Extension Workers Committee on Program Development and Management Information

Services and a Louisiana Board of Regents task force studying statewide programs in agricultural research and public service—extension—as well as academic programs in agriculture, human ecology, forestry, wildlife, and fisheries.

Mr. President, it is easy to ascertain that Bruce Flint not only possesses a remarkable mind and intellect, but has accomplished an unparalleled career. My hope is that others in Louisiana, and throughout America will model themselves after Dr. Flint's approach and commitment to both work and involvement within the community. Dr. Bruce Flint is a true asset to higher education, conservation programs, his family, and the community. He will be missed by his colleagues and peers and by all of Louisiana.
