

Amendments to CAPTA have been made to strengthen research efforts and to expand the clearinghouse's data collection function to include information on substantiated, unsubstantiated, and false reports of child abuse and neglect.

This legislation also seeks to encourage State and local innovation through demonstration grants in the areas of training and education, reporting and investigation of abuse and neglect, and encouraging parent mutual support and self-help programs.

The reauthorization of CAPTA also includes a prevention component that involves networks of local community-based organizations whose primary purpose is to assist families at risk of child abuse and neglect. Title II of this legislation consolidates several programs, the Temporary Child Care for Children with Disabilities and Crisis Nurseries Act and the Family Support Centers under the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Act, into the Community-Based Family Resource Grants program. The programs being consolidated provide a range of services to families, from respite care and support services to families with disabled children to assisting families in finding affordable housing. The grants are awarded to States that demonstrate a commitment to establishing a network of resources designed to assist families and prevent child abuse and neglect and to providing leadership in coordinating various programs and activities at the State and local levels.

The Child Abuse and Prevention Treatment Act Amendments of 1995 has been reauthorized at $100 million for fiscal year 1996 and such sums as necessary through fiscal year 2000.

The legislation also includes several minor technical amendments to the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act to reconcile differences between this and the Victims of Crime Act. In addition, Title IV and Title V reauthorize the Adoption Opportunities Act and the Abandoned Infants Assistance Act. Several technical changes have been made to the Adoption Opportunities Act to improve this program. Also, a provision has been included to require the Secretary of Health and Human Services to study and report on the efficacy of requiring States to contract with public, private nonprofit, and sectarian institutions for recruitment of prospective foster care and adoptive parents and for assistance with the placement of children with special needs. The Adoption Opportunities Act has been reauthorized at $20 million for fiscal year 1996 and such sums as may be necessary through fiscal year 2000. The Abandoned Infants Assistance Act has been reauthorized at $35 million for fiscal year 1996 and such sums as may be necessary through fiscal year 2000.

Finally, in conjunction with Senator HATCH, several programs under the Senate Committee on the Judiciary's jurisdiction that were included in Title

II of the House welfare reform proposal, have been reauthorized under Title VI of CAPTA. They are the Missing Children's Assistance Act and the Victims of Child Abuse Act of 1990. Both programs have been reauthorized through 1997.

I believe this legislation will make significant improvements to the reporting, prevention, and treatment of child abuse and neglect. I would like to thank Senator COATS for his strong commitment to children and his leadership on this very important issue. I hope that this legislation will receive bipartisan support from my colleagues in the Senate and that many of you will join with Senator COATS and me in ensuring its passage on the Senate floor.●

(1) On average, a child in the United States is exposed to 27 hours of television each week and some children are exposed to as much as 11 hours of television each day.

(2) The average American child watches 8,000 murders and 100,000 acts of other violence on television by the time the child completes elementary school.

(3) By the age of 18 years, the average American teenager has watched 200,000 acts of violence on television, including 40,000 murders.

(4) On several occasions since 1975, The Journal of the American Medical Association has alerted the medical community to the adverse effects of televised violence on child development, including an increase in the level of aggressive behavior and violent behavior among children who view it.

(5) The National Commission on Children recommended in 1991 that producers of television programs exercise greater restraint in the content of programming for children.

(6) A report of the Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation, dated May 1993, indicates that there is an irrefutable connection between the amount of violence depicted in the television programs watched by children and increased aggressive behavior among children.

(7) It is a compelling National interest that parents be empowered with the technology to block the viewing by their children of television programs whose content is overly violent or objectionable for other reasons.

(8) Technology currently exists to permit the manufacture of television receivers that are capable of permitting parents to block television programs having violent or otherwise objectionable content.

“(3) interLATA services that are incidental services in accordance with the provisions of subsection (e).

“(b) SPECIFIC INTERLATA INTERCONNECTION REQUIREMENTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A Bell operating company may provide interLATA services in accordance with this section only if that company has reached an interconnection agreement under section 251 and that agreement provides, at a minimum, for interconnection that meets the competitive checklist requirements of paragraph (2).

“(2) COMPETITIVE CHECKLIST.—Interconnection provided by a Bell operating company to other telecommunications carriers under section 251 shall include:

“(A) Nondiscriminatory access on an unbundled basis to the network functions and services of the Bell operating company's telecommunications network that is at least equal in type, quality, and price to the access the Bell operating company affords to itself or any other entity.

“(C) Nondiscriminatory access to the poles, ducts, conduits, and rights-of-way owned or controlled by the Bell operating company at just and reasonable rates where it has the legal authority to permit such access.

“(i) of services included in the definition of universal service to a telecommunications carrier who intends to resell that service to a category of customers different from the category of customers being offered that universal service by such carrier if the Commission or State orders a carrier to provide the same service to different categories of customers at different prices necessary to promote universal service; or

“(ii) finds that the requested authority will be carried out in accordance with the requirements of section 252; and “(iii) determines that the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity, in making its determination whether the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest convenience, and necessity, the Commission shall not consider the antitrust effects of such authorization in any market for which authorization is sought. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the authority of the Commission under any other section. If the Commission does not approve an application under this subparagraph it shall state the basis for its denial of the application.

(C) APPROVAL BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General may only approve the authorization requested in an application submitted under paragraph (1) if the Attorney General finds that the effect of such authorization will not substantially lessen competition, or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce in any section of the country. The Attorney General may approve all or part of the request. If the Attorney General does not approve an application under this subparagraph, the Attorney General shall state the basis for the denial of the application. These provisions shall become effective one day after date of enactment.

AMENDMENT No. 1300

On page 36, between lines 23 and 24, insert the following new subsection and renumber the remaining subsections accordingly:

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

(1) the existing system of universal service has evolved since 1930 through an ongoing dialogue between industry, various Federal-State Joint Boards, the Commission, and the courts;

(2) this system has been predicated on rates established by the Commission and the States that require implicit cost shifting by monopoly providers of telephone exchange service through both local rates and access charges to interexchange carriers;

(3) the advent of competition for the provision of telephone exchange service has led to industry requests that the existing system be modified to make support for universal service explicit and to require that all telecommunications carriers participate in the modified system on a competitively neutral basis; and

(4) modification of the existing system is necessary to promote competition in the provision of telecommunications services and to allow competition and new technologies to reduce the need for universal service support mechanisms.

On page 38, beginning on line 15, strike all through page 43, line 2, and insert the following:

“SEC. 253. UNIVERSAL SERVICE.

“(a) UNIVERSAL SERVICE PRINCIPLES.—The Joint Board and the Commission shall base policies for the preservation and advancement of universal service on the following principles:

“(1) Quality services are to be provided at just, reasonable, and affordable rates.

“(2) Access to advanced telecommunications and information services should be provided in all regions of the Nation.

“(3) Consumers in rural and high cost areas should have access to telecommunications and information services, including interexchange services, that are reasonably comparable to those services provided in urban areas.

“(4) Consumers in rural and high cost areas should have access to telecommunications and information services at rates that are reasonably comparable to rates charged for similar services in urban areas.

“(5) Consumers in rural and high cost areas should have access to the benefits of advanced telecommunications and information services for health care, education, economic development, and other public purposes.

“(6) There should be a coordinated Federal-State universal service system to preserve and advance universal service using specific and predictable Federal and State mechanisms administered by an independent, non-governmental entity or entities.

“(7) Elementary and secondary schools and classrooms should have access to advanced telecommunications services.

“(b) DEFINITION.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Universal service is an evolving level of intrastate and interstate telecommunications services that the Commission, based on recommendations from the public, Congress, and the Federal-State Joint Board periodically convened under section 103 of the Telecommunications Act of 1995, and taking into account advances in telecommunications and information technologies and services, determines—

“(A) should be provided at just, reasonable, and affordable rates to all Americans, including those in rural and high cost areas and those with disabilities;

“(B) are essential in order for Americans to participate effectively in the economic, academic, medical, and democratic processes of the Nation; and

“(C) are, through the operation of market choices, subscribed to by a substantial majority of residential customers.

“(2) DIFFERENT DEFINITION FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES.—The Commission may establish a different definition of universal service for schools, libraries, and health care providers for the purposes of section 264.

“(c) ALL TELECOMMUNICATIONS CARRIERS MUST PARTICIPATE.—Every telecommunications carrier engaged in intrastate, interstate, or foreign communication shall participate, on an equitable and nondiscriminatory basis, in the specific and predictable mechanisms established by the Commission and the States to preserve and advance universal service. Such participation shall be in the manner determined by the Commission and the States to be reasonably necessary to preserve and advance universal service. Any other provider of telecommunications may be required to participate in the preservation and advancement of universal service, if the public interest so requires.

“(d) STATE AUTHORITY.—A State may adopt regulations to carry out its responsibilities under this section, or to provide for additional definitions, mechanisms, and standards to preserve and advance universal service within that State, to the extent that such regulations do not conflict with the Commission's rules to implement this section. A State may only enforce additional definitions or standards to the extent that it adopts additional specific and predictable mechanisms to support such definitions or standards.

“(e) ELIGIBILITY FOR UNIVERSAL SERVICE SUPPORT.—To the extent necessary to provide for specific and predictable mechanisms to achieve the purposes of this section, the Commission shall modify its existing rules for the preservation and advancement of universal service. Only essential telecommunications carriers designated under section 214(d) shall be eligible to receive support for the provision of universal service. Such support, if any, shall accurately reflect what is necessary to preserve and advance universal service in accordance with this section and the other requirements of this Act.

“(f) UNIVERSAL SERVICE SUPPORT.—The Commission and the States shall have as their goal the need to make any support for universal service explicit, and to target that support to those essential telecommunications carriers that serve areas for which such support is necessary. The specific and predictable mechanisms adopted by the Commission and the States shall ensure that essential telecommunications carriers are able to provide universal service at just, reasonable, and affordable rates. A carrier that receives universal service support shall use that support only for the provision, maintenance, and upgrading of facilities and services for which the support is intended.

“(g) INTEREXCHANGE SERVICE.—The rates charged by any provider of interexchange telecommunications service to customers in rural and high cost areas shall be no higher than those charged by such provider to its customers in urban areas.

“(h) SUBSIDY OF COMPETITIVE SERVICES PROHIBITED.—A telecommunications carrier may not use services that are not competitive to subsidize competitive services. The Commission, with respect to interstate services, and the States, with respect to intrastate services, shall establish any necessary cost allocation rules, accounting safeguards, and guidelines to ensure that services included in the definition of universal service bear no more than a reasonable share of the joint and common costs of facilities used to provide those services.

“(i) CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION REQUIRED.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission may not take action to require participation by telecommunications carriers or other providers of telecommunications under subsection (c), or to modify its rules to increase support for the preservation and advancement of universal service, until—

“(A) the Commission submits to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Commerce of the House of Representatives a report on the participation required, or the increase in support proposed, as appropriate; and “(B) a period of 120 days has elapsed since the date the report required under paragraph (1) was submitted.

“(2) NOT APPLICABLE TO REDUCTIONS.—This subsection shall not apply to any action taken to reduce costs to carriers or consumers.

“(j) EFFECT ON COMMISSION'S AUTHORITY.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to expand or limit the authority of the Commission to preserve and advance universal service under this Act. Further, nothing in this section shall be construed to require or prohibit the adoption of any specific type of mechanism for the preservation and advancement of universal service.

“(k) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This section takes effect on the date of enactment of the Telecommunications Act of 1995, except for subsections (c), (d), (e), (f), and (i) which take effect one year after the date of enactment of that Act.”

The language on page 43, beginning with “receive” on line 25, through “253.” on page 44, line 1, is deemed to read “receive universal service support under section 253.”

In section 264 of the Communications Act of 1994, as added by section 310 of the bill beginning on page 132, strike subsections (a) and (b) and insert the following:

“(a) IN GENERAL.—

“(1) HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS FOR RURAL AREAS.—A telecommunications carrier shall, upon receiving a bona fide request, provide telecommunications services which are necessary for the provision of health care services, including instruction relating to such services, at rates that are reasonably comparable to rates charged for similar services in urban areas to any public or non-profit health care provider that serves persons who reside in rural areas. A telecommunications carrier providing service pursuant to this paragraph shall be entitled to have an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the price for services provided to health care providers for rural areas and the price for similar services provided to other customers in comparable urban areas treated as a service obligation as a part of its obligation to participate in the mechanisms to preserve and advance universal service under section 253(c).

“(2) EDUCATIONAL PROVIDERS AND LIBRARIES.—All telecommunications carriers serving a geographic area shall, upon a bona fide request, provide to elementary schools, secondary schools, and libraries universal services (as defined in section 253) that permit such schools and libraries to provide or receive telecommunications services for educational purposes at rates less than the amounts charged for similar services to other parties. The discount shall be an amount that the Commission and the States determine is appropriate and necessary to ensure affordable access to and use of such telecommunications by such entities. A telecommunications carrier providing service pursuant to this paragraph shall be entitled to have an amount equal to the amount of the discount treated as a service obligation as part of its obligation to participate in the mechanisms to preserve and advance universal service under section 253(c).

“(b) UNIVERSAL SERVICE MECHANISMS.—The Commission shall include consideration of the universal service provided to public institutional telecommunications users in any universal service mechanism it may establish under section 253.

“(b) The primary objective of United States national and international communications policy shall be to protect the public interest. The public interest shall include the following:

“(1) To ensure that every person has access to reasonably evolving telecommunications services at just, reasonable, and affordable rates taking into account advances in telecommunications and information technology.

“(2) To promote the development and widespread availability of new technologies and advanced telecommunications and information services to all persons regardless of location or disability.

“(3) To ensure that consumers have access to diverse sources of information.

“(4) To promote learning, education, and knowledge.

“(5) To ensure reasonably comparable services at reasonably comparable rates for consumers in urban and rural areas.

“(6) To allow each individual the opportunity to contribute to the free flow of ideas and information through telecommunications and information services.

“(7) To maximize the contribution of communications and information technologies and services to economic development and quality of life.

“(8) To protect each individual’s right to control the use of information concerning his or her use of telecommunications services.

“(9) To provide secure and reliable services for Federal, State, and local government emergency response.

“(10) To make available so far as possible, to all the people of the United States, regardless of race, color, national origin, income, residence in a rural or urban area, or disability, high capacity two-way communications networks capable of enabling users to originate and receive affordable and accessible high quality voice, data, graphics, video, and other types of telecommunications services.”

SEC. 103. UNIVERSAL SERVICE PROTECTION AND ADVANCEMENT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Title II (47 U.S.C. 201 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 201 the following new section:

“SEC. 201A. UNIVERSAL SERVICE PROTECTION AND ADVANCEMENT.

“(a) UNIVERSAL SERVICE PRINCIPLES.—The Joint Board and the Commission shall base policies for the preservation and advancement of universal service on the following principles:

“(1) Quality services are to be provided at just, reasonable, and affordable rates.

“(2) Access to advanced telecommunications and information services should be provided in all regions of the Nation.

“(3) Consumers in rural and high cost areas should have access to telecommunications and information services, including interexchange services, reasonably comparable to those services provided in urban areas.

“(4) Consumers in rural and high cost areas should have access to telecommunications and information services at rates that are reasonably comparable to rates charged for similar services in urban areas.

“(5) Citizens in rural and high cost areas should have access to the benefits of advanced telecommunications and information services for health care, education, economic development, and other public purposes.

“(6) There should be a coordinated Federal-State universal service system to preserve and advance universal service administered by an independent, non-governmental entity or person using specific and predictable Federal and State mechanisms.

“(7) Consumers should be permitted to exercise choice among telecommunications carriers offering universal service.

“(8) Consumers of universal service should have the right to control the use of information concerning their individual use of such service.

AMENDMENT NO. 1312

Beginning on line 1 of page 117, add the following new paragraphs:

“(c) DETERMINATION OF AVERAGE UNIVERSAL SERVICE RATE.—As part of the Federal-State Joint Board proceeding required under section 103(a)(1), the Commission and the Joint Board shall determine the average rate charged to consumers nationwide for the provision of those services included in the definition of universal service. The Commission and the Joint Board may periodically revise such determination as part of any Federal-State Joint Board proceeding periodically convened under section 103(a)(2).

“(d) SUPPORT PAYMENTS FOR COSTS ABOVE AVERAGE RATE.—If the Commission adopts rules for the distribution of interstate support payments to essential telecommunications carriers for the preservation and advancement of universal service under section 253 of the Communications Act of 1934, such rules shall provide that a carrier may only receive such interstate support payments to the extent that the reasonable cost to that carrier of providing the services included in the definition of universal service exceed the amount such carrier may recover from consumers at the average rate determined under subsection (c), or the rate such carrier is allowed to charge the consumer, if such rate is higher than the average rate, whichever results in the lower amount of support payments being made to the carrier.”

AMENDMENT NO. 1313

On page 116, between lines 2 and 3 insert the following:

(D) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Commission, for interstate services, and the States, for interstate services, from considering the profitability of telecommunications carriers when using alternative forms of regulation other than rate of return regulation (including price regulation and incentive regulation) to ensure that regulated rates are just and reasonable.

AMENDMENT NO. 1314

Strike Section 5 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

The Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Congress has not passed comprehensive changes to the Communications Act of 1934 since that Act was originally passed.

(2) Congress must pass comprehensive communications legislation to promote the development and growth of the national information superhighway.

(3) Changes in the telecommunications marketplace have made some of the provisions of the Communications Act of 1934 obsolete, unnecessary, or inimical to advances in communications technologies and services.

(4) Competition has emerged in many services that were previously thought to be natural monopolies, but the Communications Act of 1934 requires all carriers to be regulated as if they were monopolies.

(5) As communications markets change, government must ensure that the public interest, convenience, and necessity are preserved.

(6) The public interest requires that universal service is protected and advanced, that new telecommunications technologies are deployed rapidly and equitably, and that access by schools, hospitals, public broadcasters, libraries, and museums to advanced telecommunications services is assisted.

(7) Access to telecommunications services is fundamental to safety of life and participation in a democratic society.

(8) Telecommunications networks make substantial use of public rights of way in real property and in spectrum frequencies, and carriers that make use of such public rights of way have an obligation to provide preferential rates to entities that provide significant public benefits.

(9) Advanced telecommunications services can enhance the quality of life and promote economic development and international competitiveness.

(10) Telecommunications infrastructure development is particularly crucial to the continued economic development of rural areas that may lack an adequate industrial or service base for continued development.

(11) Advancements in the Nation's telecommunications infrastructure will enhance the public welfare by helping to speed the delivery of new services, such as distance learning, remote medical sensing, and distribution of health information.

(12) Infrastructure advancement can be assisted by joint planning and infrastructure sharing by carriers and other providers of network facilities and services providing communications services.

(13) Increased competition in telecommunications services can, if subject to appropriate safeguards, encourage infrastructure development and have beneficial effects on the price, universal availability, variety, and quality of telecommunications services.

(14) The emergence of competition in telecommunications services has already contributed, and can be expected to continue contributing, to the modernization of the infrastructure.

(15) Competition in the long distance industry and the communications equipment market has brought about lower prices and higher quality services.

(16) Competition for local communications services has already begun to benefit the public; competitive access providers have deployed thousands of miles of optical fiber in their local networks; local exchange carriers have been prompted by competition to accelerate the installation of optical fiber in their own networks.

(17) Electric utilities, satellite carriers, and others are prepared to enter the local telephone market over the next few years.

(18) A diversity of telecommunications carriers enhances network reliability by providing redundant capacity, thereby lessening the impact of any network failure.

(19) Competition must proceed under rules that protect consumers and are fair to all telecommunications carriers.

(20) All telecommunications carriers, including competitors to the telephone companies, should contribute to universal service and should make their networks available for interconnection by others.

(21) Removal of all State and local barriers to entry into the telecommunications services market and provision of interconnection are warranted after mechanisms to protect universal service and rules are established to ensure that competition develops.

(22) Increasing the availability of interconnection and interoperability among the facilities of telecommunications carriers will help stimulate the development of fair competition among providers.

(23) The portability of telecommunications numbers will eliminate a significant advantage held by traditional telephone companies over competitors in the provision of telecommunications services.

(24) Unreasonable restrictions on resale and sharing of telecommunications networks retard the growth of competition and restrict the diversity of services available to the public.

(25) Additional regulatory measures are needed to allow consumers in rural markets and noncompetitive markets the opportunity to benefit from high-quality telecommunications capabilities.

(26) Regulatory flexibility for existing providers of telephone exchange service is necessary to allow them to respond to competition.

(27) The Federal Communications Commission (referred to elsewhere in this Act as the "Commission") and the States must have the flexibility to adjust their regulations of each provider of telecommunications services to serve the public interest.

(28) If the efforts of the private sector fail, the Commission should take steps to ensure network reliability and the development of network standards.

(29) Access to switched, digital telecommunications service for all segments of the population promotes the core First Amendment goal of diverse information sources by enabling individuals and organizations alike to publish and otherwise make information available in electronic form.

(30) The national welfare will be enhanced if community newspapers are provided ease of entry into the operation of information services disseminated through electronic means primarily to customers in the localities served by such newspapers at rates that are not higher, on a per-unit basis, than the rates charged for such services to any other electronic publisher.

(31) A clear national mandate is needed for full participation in access to telecommunications networks and services by individuals with disabilities.

(32) The obligations of telecommunications carriers include the duty to furnish telecommunications services which are designed to be fully accessible to individuals with disabilities in accordance with such standards as the Commission may prescribe.

(33) Permitting the Bell operating companies to enter the manufacturing market will stimulate greater research and development, create more jobs, and enhance our international competitiveness.

(34) The Bell operating companies should not be permitted to enter the market for other long distance services until they have eliminated the barriers to competition and interconnection.

(35) Safeguards are necessary to ensure that the Bell operating companies do not abuse their market power over local telephone service to discriminate against competitors in the markets for electronic publishing, alarm services, and other information services.

(36) Amending the legal barriers to the provision of video programming by telephone companies in their service areas will encourage telephone companies to upgrade their telecommunications facilities to enable them to deliver video programming, as long as telephone companies and cable companies are prohibited from buying or joint venturing with each other in their service areas (except for certain rural areas).

(37) As communications technologies and services proliferate, consumers must be given the right to control information concerning their use of those technologies and services.

(38) As competition in the media increases, the Commission should re-examine the need for national and local ownership limits on broadcast stations, consistent with the need to maintain diversity of information sources.

AMENDMENT NO. 1315

On page 82, beginning with "Sec. 255" on line 11, strike all that follows through line 2, page 99.

On page 82, after line 10, add the attached paragraphs, except on page 136, line 7, of attachment strike the word "there", and all that follows through line 13, and add "the effect of such authorization will not substantially lessen competition, or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce in any section of the country."

"SEC. 255. INTERLATA TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES.

"(a) AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any restriction or obligation imposed before the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994 pursuant to section II(D) of the Modification of Final Judgment, a Bell operating company may engage in the provision of interLATA telecommunications services subject to the requirements of this section and any regulations prescribed thereunder. No Bell operating company or affiliate of a Bell operating company shall engage in the provision of interLATA telecommunications services, except as authorized under this section.

"(b) CURRENTLY AUTHORIZED ACTIVITIES.—Subsection (a) shall not prohibit a Bell operating company from engaging, at any time after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, in any activity as authorized by an order entered by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia pursuant to the Modification of Final Judgment if such order was entered on or before such date of enactment.

"(c) PETITION FOR AUTHORITY FOR INTERLATA TELECOMMUNICATION SERVICES.—

"(1) APPLICATION—

"(A) IN REGION.—On or after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, a Bell operating company or affiliate may apply to the Attorney General and the Commission for authorization notwithstanding the Modification of Final Judgment to provide interLATA telecommunications service originating in any area where such Bell operating company is the dominant provider of wireline telephone exchange service. The application shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market for which authorization is sought.

"(B) OUT OF REGION.—On or after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, a Bell operating company or affiliate may apply to the Attorney General and the Commission for authorization, notwithstanding the Modification of Final Judgment, to provide interLATA telecommunications services not described in subparagraph (A). The application shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market for which authorization is sought.

"(2) DETERMINATION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL AND COMMISSION.—

"(A) DETERMINATION.—Not later than 180 days after receiving an application made under paragraph (1), the Attorney General and the Commission each shall issue a written determination, on the record after an opportunity for a hearing, with respect to the authorization for which a Bell operating company or affiliate has applied. In making such determinations, the Attorney General and the Commission shall review the whole record.

"(B) APPROVAL.—

"(i) The Attorney General shall approve the authorization requested in any application submitted under paragraph (1) only to the extent that the Attorney General finds that there is no substantial possibility that such company or its affiliates could use monopoly power in a telephone exchange or exchange access service market to impede competition in the interLATA telecommunications services market such company or affiliate seeks to enter. The Attorney General shall deny the remainder of the requested authorization.

(ii) The Commission shall approve the requested authorization only to the extent that the Commission finds that the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity. The Commission shall deny the remainder of the requested authorization. For applications submitted under paragraph (1)(A), the Commission shall only find that the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity if the requirements of clause (iii) are satisfied, and shall take into account—

“(I) the extent to which granting the requested authorization would benefit consumers;

“(II) the likely effect that granting the requested authorization would have on the rates for, and availability of, telephone exchange, interchange, and other telecommunications services;

“(III) the availability of alternative providers of telephone exchange service throughout the geographic area in which the Bell operating company or its affiliate seeks to provide service;

“(IV) the extent to which there exist barriers to entering the telephone exchange services market, including the extent to which consumers have an opportunity to select their prescribed telephone exchange service providers by means of a balloting process; and

“(V) the potential for cross-subsidization or anticompetitive activity by the Bell operating company. For applications submitted under paragraph (1)(B), the Commission shall take into account subclauses (I), (II), and (V).

“(iii) The Commission shall approve a requested authorization for applications submitted under paragraph (1)(A) only if—

“(I) the Commission finds that, as prescribed by section 230(a), no State or local statute, regulations, or other State or local requirement in effect in the area in which the petitioning Bell operating company or affiliate seeks to originate interLATA telecommunications, prohibits or has the effect of prohibiting the ability of any entity to provide interstate or intrastate telecommunications services in the State and local area where the Bell operating company seeks to originate interLATA services;

“(II) either the Commission has adopted and made effective regulations to implement and enforce the requirements of section 201A, or 21 months after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, whichever is earlier; and

“(III) the Commission finds that the Bell operating company has fully implemented the requirements of subparagraphs (A) through (G) of section 230(c)(1), and finds that, at the time of consideration of its application, the Bell operating company is in full compliance with the Commission's regulations to implement and enforce the requirements of section 230(e) and (f), and any State regulations under 230(c)(2), where the Bell operating company seeks to originate interLATA services.

“(iv) Any Bell operating company granted authority under paragraph (1)(A) shall provide intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout the market coincident with its exercise of that authority. If the Commission finds that such a Bell operating company has provided interLATA service authorized under this clause before its implementation of intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout that market, or fails to maintain intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout that market, the Commission, except in cases of inadvertent interruptions or other events beyond the control of the Bell operating company, shall suspend the authority to provide interLATA service for that market until the Commission determines that intra LATA toll dialing parity is implemented or reinstated.

“(C) DESCRIPTION.—A determination that approves any part of a requested authorization shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity, and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market, to which approval applies.

“(3) PUBLICATION.—Not later than 10 days after issuing a determination under paragraph (2), the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission each shall publish in the Federal Register a brief description of the determination.

“(4) AUTHORIZATION GRANTED.—A requested authorization is granted only to the extent that—

“(A) both the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission approve the authorization under paragraph (2), unless either of their approvals is vacated, reversed, or remanded as a result of judicial review, or

“(B) as a result of such judicial review of either or both determinations, both the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission approve the requested authorization.

“(d) JUDICIAL REVIEW—

“(1) COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION.—Not later than 45 days after a determination by the Attorney General or the Federal Communications Commission is published under subsection (c)(3), the Bell operating company or affiliate that applied to the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission under subsection (c)(1), or any person who would be threatened with loss or damage as a result of the determination regarding such company's engaging in the activity described in such company's application, may commence an action in any United States Court of Appeals against the Attorney General or the Federal Communications Commission, as the case may be, for judicial review of the determination regarding the application.

“(2) JUDGMENT.—

“(A) The Court shall enter a judgment after reviewing the determination in accordance with section 706 of title 5 of the United States State Code.

“(B) A JUDGMENT—

“(i) affirming any part of the determination that approves granting all or part of the requested authorization, or

“(ii) reversing any part of the determination that denies all or part of the requested authorization, shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity, and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market, to which the affirmation of reversal applies.

“(e) ENFORCEMENT.—

“(1) PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.—Any person who is injured in its business or property by reason of a violation of this section—

“(A) may bring a civil action in any district court of the United States in the district in which the defendant resides or is found or has an agent, without respect to the amount in controversy, and

“(B) shall recover threefold the damages sustained, and the costs of suit (including a reasonable attorney's fee). The court may award under this section, pursuant to a motion by such person promptly made, simple interest on actual damages for the period beginning on the date of service of such person's pleading setting forth a claim under this title and ending on the date of judgment, or for any shorter period therein, if the court finds that the award of such interest for such period is just in the circumstances.

“(2) PRIVATE INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—Any person shall be entitled to sue for and have injunctive relief, in any court of the United States having jurisdiction over the parties, against threatened loss or damage by a violation of this section, when and under the same conditions and principles as injunctive relief is available under section 16 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 26). In any action under this subsection in which the plaintiff substantially prevails, the court shall award the cost of suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, to such plaintiff.

“(f) INTERLATA TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE SAFEGUARDS.—

“(1) SEPARATE SUBSIDIARY.—Other than interLATA services authorized by an order entered by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia pursuant to the Modification of Final Judgment before the date of the enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, a Bell operating company providing interLATA services authorized under subsection (c) shall provide such interLATA services in that market only through a subsidiary that is separate from any Bell operating company entity that provides regulated local telephone exchange service. The subsidiary required by this section need not be separate from affiliates required in sections 231, 233, and 613 of this Act or any other affiliate that does not provide regulated local telephone exchange service.

“(2) NONDISCRIMINATION SAFEGUARDS.—The Bell operating company shall—

“(A) fulfill any requests from an unaffiliated entity for exchange access service within a period no longer than that in which it provides such exchange access service to itself or to its affiliates;

“(B) fulfill any such requests with exchange access service of a quality that meets or exceeds the quality of exchange access services provided by the Bell operating company or its affiliates to itself or its affiliate;

“(4) TRIENNIAL AUDIT.—

“(A) GENERAL REQUIREMENT.—A Bell operating company that engages in interLATA services shall obtain and pay for an audit every 3 years conducted by an independent auditor selected by, and working at the direction of, the State commission of each State in which such Bell operating company provides local exchange service, to determine whether such Bell operating company has complied with this section and the regulations promulgated under this section, and particularly whether such Bell operating company has complied with the separate accounting requirements under subsection (c).

“(g) ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY TO PROVIDE INTERLATA SERVICES RELATING TO COMMERCIAL MOBILE RADIO SERVICES.—Notwithstanding any restriction or obligation imposed pursuant to the Modification of Final Judgment before the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, the Commission shall prescribe uniform equal access and long distance presubscription requirements for providers of all cellular and two-way wireless services.

“(h) Exceptions for Incidental Services.—

“(1) Subsection (a) shall not prohibit a Bell operating company at any time after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994 from providing interLATA telecommunications services incidental to the purpose of—

“(A)(i) providing audio programming, video programming, or other programming services to subscribers of such company,

“(ii) providing the capability for interaction by such subscribers to select or respond to such audio programming, video programming, or other programming services, to order, or control transmission of the programming, polling or balloting, and ordering other goods or services, or

“(D) providing a service that permits a customer that is located in one LATA to retrieve stored information from, or file information for storage in, information storage facilities of such company that are located in another LATA area, so long as the customer acts affirmatively to initiate the storage or retrieval of information, except that—

“(i) such service shall not cover any service that establishes a direct connection between end users or any real-time voice and data transmission,

"section 332" and inserting in lieu thereof "sections 229, 230, 234, 235, 237, and 332".

On page 82, beginning with "Sec. 255 on line 11, strike all that follows through line 2, page 99.

On page 82, after line 10, add the attached paragraphs:

"SEC. 255. INTERLATA TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES.

"(a) AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any restriction or obligation imposed before the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994 pursuant to section II(D) of the Modification of Final Judgment, a Bell operating company may engage in the provision of interLATA telecommunications services subject to the requirements of this section and any regulations prescribed thereunder. No Bell operating company or affiliate of a Bell operating company shall engage in the provision of interLATA telecommunications services, except as authorized under this section.

"(b) CURRENTLY AUTHORIZED ACTIVITIES.—Subsection (a) shall not prohibit a Bell operating company from engaging, at any time after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, in any activity as authorized by an order entered by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia pursuant to the Modification of Final Judgment if such order was entered on or before such date of enactment.

"(1) APPLICATION—

"(A) IN REGION.—On or after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, a Bell operating company or affiliate may apply to the Attorney General and the Commission for authorization notwithstanding the Modification of Final Judgment to provide interLATA telecommunications service originating in any area where such Bell operating company is the dominant provider of wireline telephone exchange service. The application shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market for which authorization is sought.

"(B) OUT OF REGION.—On or after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, a Bell operating company or affiliate may apply to the Attorney General and the Commission for authorization, notwithstanding the Modification of Final Judgment, to provide interLATA telecommunications services not described in subparagraph (A). The application shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market for which authorization is sought.

"(2) DETERMINATION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL AND COMMISSION.—

"(A) DETERMINATION.—Not later than 180 days after receiving an application made under paragraph (1), the Attorney General and the Commission each shall issue a written determination, on the record after an opportunity for a hearing, with respect to the authorization for which a Bell operating company or affiliate has applied. In making such determinations, the Attorney General and the Commission shall review the whole record.

"(B) APPROVAL.—

"(i) The Attorney General shall approve the authorization requested in any application submitted under paragraph (1) only to the extent that the Attorney General finds that there is no substantial possibility that such company or its affiliates could use monopoly power in a telephone exchange or exchange access service market to impede competition in the interLATA telecommunications services market such company or affiliate seeks to enter. The Attorney General shall deny the remainder of the requested authorization.

"(ii) The Commission shall approve the requested authorization only to the extent that the Commission finds that the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity. The Commission shall deny the remainder of the requested authorization. For applications submitted under paragraph (1)(A), the Commission shall only find that the requested authorization is consistent with the public interest, convenience, and necessity if the requirements of clause (iii) are satisfied, and shall take into account—

"(I) the extent to which granting the requested authorization would benefit consumers;

"(II) the likely effect that granting the requested authorization would have on the rates for, and availability of, telephone exchange, interexchange, and other telecommunications services;

"(III) the availability of alternative providers of telephone exchange service throughout the geographic area in which the Bell operating company or its affiliate seeks to provide service;

"(IV) the extent to which there exist barriers to entering the telephone exchange services market, including the extent to which consumers have an opportunity to select their presubscribed telephone exchange service providers by means of a balloting process; and

"(V) the potential for cross-subsidization or anticompetitive activity by the Bell operating company.

For applications submitted under paragraph (1)(B), the Commission shall take into account subclauses (I), (II), and (V).

"(iii) The Commission shall approve a requested authorization for applications submitted under paragraph (1)(A) only if—

"(I) the Commission finds that, as prescribed by section 230(a), no State or local statute, regulations, or other State or local requirement in effect in the area in which the petitioning Bell operating company or affiliate seeks to originate interLATA telecommunications, prohibits or has the effect of prohibiting the ability of any entity to provide interstate or intrastate telecommunications services in the State and local area where the Bell operating company seeks to originate interLATA services;

"(II) either the Commission has adopted and made effective regulations to implement and enforce the requirements of section 201A, or 21 months after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, whichever is earlier; and

"(III) the Commission finds that the Bell operating company has fully implemented the requirements of subparagraphs (A) through (G) of section 230(c)(1), and finds that, at the time of consideration of its application, the Bell operating company is in full compliance with the Commission's regulations to implement and enforce the requirements of section 230 (e) and (f), and any State regulations under 230(c)(2), where the Bell operating company seeks to originate interLATA services.

"(iv) Any Bell operating company granted authority under paragraph (1)(A) shall provide intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout that market coincident with its exercise of that authority. If the Commission finds that such a Bell operating company has provided interLATA service authorized under this clause before its implementation of intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout that market, or fails to maintain intraLATA toll dialing parity throughout that market, the Commission, except in cases of inadvertent interruptions or other events beyond the control of the Bell operating company, shall suspend the authority to provide interLATA service for that market until the Commission determines that intraLATA toll dialing parity is implemented or reinstated.

"(C) DESCRIPTION.—A determination that approves any part of a requested authorization shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity, and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market, to which approval applies.

"(3) PUBLICATION.—Not later than 10 days after issuing a determination under paragraph (2), the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission each shall publish in the Federal Register a brief description of the determination.

"(4) AUTHORIZATION GRANTED.—A requested authorization is granted only to the extent that—

"(A) both the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission approve the authorization under paragraph (2), unless either of their approvals is vacated, reversed, or remanded as a result of judicial review, or

"(B) as a result of such judicial review of either or both determinations, both the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission approved the requested authorization.

"(d) JUDICIAL REVIEW—

"(1) COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION.—Not later than 45 days after a determination by the Attorney General or the Federal Communications Commission is published under subsection (c)(3), the Bell operating company or affiliate that applied to the Attorney General and the Federal Communications Commission under subsection (c)(1), or any person who would be threatened with loss or damage as a result of the determination regarding such company's engaging in the activity described in such company's application, may commence an action in any United States Court of Appeals against the Attorney General or the Federal Communications Commission, as the case may be, for judicial review of the determination regarding the application.

"(2) JUDGMENT.—

"(A) The Court shall enter a judgment after reviewing the determination in accordance with section 706 of title 5 of the United States Code.

"(B) A JUDGMENT.—

"(i) affirming any part of the determination that approves granting all or part of the requested authorization, or

"(ii) reversing any part of the determination that denies all or part of the requested authorization, shall describe with particularity the nature and scope of the activity, and of each product market or service market, and each geographic market, to which the affirmance or reversal applies.

"(e) ENFORCEMENT.—

"(1) PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.—Any person who is injured in its business or property by reason of a violation of this section—

"(A) may bring a civil action in any district court of the United States in the district in which the defendant resides or is found or has an agent, without respect to the amount in controversy, and

"(B) shall recover threefold the damages sustained, and the costs of suit (including a reasonable attorney's fee). The court may award under this action, pursuant to a motion by such person promptly made, simple interest on actual damages for the period beginning on the date of service of such person's pleading setting forth a claim under this title and ending on the date of judgment, or for any shorter period therein, if the court finds that the award of such interest for such period is just in the circumstances.

“(2) PRIVATE INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—Any person shall be entitled to sue for and have injunctive relief, in any court of the United States having jurisdiction over the parties, against threatened loss or damage by a violation of this section, when and under the same conditions and principles as injunctive relief is available under section 16 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 26). “(g) ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY TO PROVIDE INTERLATA SERVICES RELATING TO COMMERCIAL MOBILE RADIO SERVICES.—Notwithstanding any restriction or obligation imposed pursuant to the Modification of Final Judgment before the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994, the Commission shall prescribe uniform equal access and long distance presubscription requirements for providers of all cellular and two-way wireless services.

“(h) EXCEPTIONS FOR INCIDENTAL SERVICES.—

“(1) Subsection (a) shall not prohibit a Bell operating company at any time after the date of enactment of the Communications Act of 1994 from providing interLATA telecommunications services incidental to the purpose of—

“(A)(i) providing audio programming, video programming, or other programming services to subscribers of such company,

“(ii) providing the capability for interaction by such subscribers to select or respond to such audio programming, video programming, or other programming services, to order, or control transmission of the programming, polling or balloting, and ordering other goods or services, or

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Reforms required by the Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Act of 1992 have improved the reputation of the pay-per-call industry and resulted in regulations that have reduced the incidence of misleading practices that are harmful to the public interest.

(2) Among the successful reforms is a restriction on charges being assessed for calls to 800 telephone numbers or other telephone numbers advertised or widely understood to be toll free.

(3) Nevertheless, certain interstate pay-per-call businesses are taking advantage of an exception in the restriction on charging for information conveyed during a call to a “toll-free” number to continue to engage in misleading practices. These practices are not in compliance with the intent of Congress in passing the Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Act.

(4) It is necessary for Congress to clarify that its intent is that charges for information provided during a call to an 800 number or other number widely advertised and understood to be toll free shall not be assessed to the calling party unless the calling party agrees to be billed according to the terms of a written subscription agreement or by other appropriate means.

(b) PREVENTION OF UNFAIR BILLING PRACTICES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 228(c) (47 U.S.C. 228(c)) is amended—

(A) by striking out subparagraph (C) of paragraph (7) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(C) the calling party being charged for information conveyed during the call unless—

“(i) the calling party has a written agreement (including an agreement transmitted through electronic medium) that meets the requirements of paragraph (8); or

“(ii) the calling party is charged for the information in accordance with paragraph (9); or”;

(B) by adding at the end the following new paragraphs:

“(8) SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENTS FOR BILLING FOR INFORMATION PROVIDED VIA TOLL-FREE CALLS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of paragraph (7)(C), a written subscription does not meet the requirements of this paragraph unless the agreement specifies the material terms and conditions under which the information is offered and includes—

“(i) the rate at which charges are assessed for the information;

“(ii) the information provider’s name;

“(iii) the information provider’s business address;

“(iv) the information provider’s regular business telephone number;

“(v) the information provider’s agreement to notify the subscriber of all future changes in the rates charged for the information; and

“(vi) the subscriber’s choice of payment method, which may be by direct remit, debit, prepaid account, phone bill or credit or calling card.

(B) BILLING ARRANGEMENTS.—If a subscriber elects, pursuant to subparagraph (A)(vi), to pay by means of a phone bill—

“(i) the agreement shall clearly explain that charges for the service will appear on the subscriber’s phone bill;

“(ii) the phone bill shall include, in prominent type, the following disclaimer:

‘Common carriers may not disconnect local or long distance telephone service for failure to pay disputed charges for information services.”; and “(iii) the phone bill shall clearly list the 800 number dialed.

“(C) USE OF PINS TO PREVENT UNAUTHORIZED USE.—A written agreement does not meet the requirements of this paragraph unless it requires the subscriber to use a personal identification number to obtain access to the information provided, and includes instructions on its use.

“(D) EXCEPTIONS.—Notwithstanding paragraph (7)(C), a written agreement that meets the requirements of this paragraph is not required—

“(i) for calls utilizing telecommunications devices for the deaf;

“(ii) for services provided pursuant to a tariff that has been approved or permitted to take effect by the Commission or a State commission; or “(iii) for any purchase of goods or of services that are not information services.

“(E) TERMINATION OF SERVICE.—On receipt by a common carrier of a complaint by any person that an information provider is in violation of the provisions of this section, a carrier shall—

“(i) promptly investigate the complaint; and

“(ii) if the carrier reasonably determines that the complaint is valid, it may terminate the provision of service to an information provider unless the provider supplies evidence of a written agreement that meets the requirements of this section.

“(F) TREATMENT OF REMEDIES.—The remedies provided in this paragraph are in addition to any other remedies that are available under title V of this Act.

“(9) CHARGES IN ABSENCE OF AGREEMENT.—A calling party is charged for a call in accordance with this paragraph if the provider of the information conveyed during the call—

“(A) clearly states to the calling party the total cost per minute of the information provided during the call and for any other information or service provided by the provider to which the calling party requests connection during the call; and

“(B) receives from the calling party—

“(i) an agreement to accept the charges for any information or services provided by the provider during the call; and

“(ii) a credit, calling, or charge card number or verification of a prepaid account to which such charges are to be billed.

“(10) DEFINITION.—As used in paragraphs (8) and (9), the term ‘calling card’ means an identifying number or code unique to the individual, that is issued to the individual by a common carrier and enables the individual to be charged by means of a phone bill for charges incurred independent of where the call originates.”

(2) REGULATIONS.—The Federal Communications Commission shall revise its regulations to comply with the amendment made by paragraph (1) not later than 180 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(3) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by paragraph (1) shall take effect on the date of the enactment of this Act.

(C) CLARIFICATION OF “PAY-PER-CALL SERVICES” UNDER TELEPHONE DISCLOSURE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION ACT.—Section 204(1) of the Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Act (15 U.S.C. 5714(1)) is amended to read as follows:

“(1) The term ‘pay-per-call services’ has the meaning provided in section 228(j)(1) of the Communications Act of 1934, except that the Commission by rule may, notwithstanding subparagraphs (B) and (C) of such section, extend such definition to other similar services providing audio information or audio entertainment if the Commission determines that such services are susceptible to the unfair and deceptive practices that are prohibited by the rules prescribed pursuant to section 201(a).”.

“(2) Nothing in the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or any actions taken thereunder, shall prevent a State Commission from exercising its jurisdiction to the extent otherwise authorized under applicable law with respect to the recovery of a public utility in its retail rates of costs incurred by such public utility pursuant to a transaction authorized by the Securities and Exchange Commission under section 13(b) between an associate company and such public utility, including costs allocated to such public utility in accordance with paragraph (d).

SIMON (AND OTHERS)
AMENDMENT NO. 1349

Mr. SIMON (for himself, Mr. DOLE, and Mr. PRESSLER) proposed an amendment to the bill S. 652, supra, as follows:

At the appropriate place add the following:

SEC. : FINDINGS.

The Senate finds that—

Violence is a pervasive and persistent feature of the entertainment industry. According to the Carnegie Council on Adolescent Development, by the age of 18, children will have been exposed to nearly 18,000 televised murders and 800 suicides.

Violence on television is likely to have a serious and harmful effect on the emotional development of young children. The American Psychological Association has reported that children who watch "a large number of aggressive programs tend to hold attitudes and values that favor the use of aggression to solve conflicts." The National Institute of Mental Health has stated similarly that "violence on television does lead to aggressive behavior by children and teenagers."

The Senate recognizes that television violence is not the sole cause of violence in society.

There is a broad recognition in the U.S. Congress that the television industry has an obligation to police the content of its own broadcasts to children. That understanding was reflected in the Television Violence Act of 1990, which was specifically designed to permit industry participants to work together to create a self-monitoring system.

After years of denying that television violence has any detrimental effect, the entertainment industry has begun to address the problem of television violence. In the Spring of 1994, for example, the network and cable industries announced the appointment of an independent monitoring group to assess the amount of violence on television. These reports are due out in the Fall of 1995 and Winter of 1996, respectively.

The Senate recognizes that self-regulation by the private sector is generally preferable to direct regulation by the federal government.

SEC. : SENSE OF THE SENATE—

It is the Sense of the Senate that the entertainment industry should do everything possible to limit the amount of violent and aggressive entertainment programming, particularly during the hours when children are most likely to be watching.

On page 2, strike out line 3 and all that follows through page 2, line 19, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

(b) RATES OF SMALL CABLE COMPANIES.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or the amendments made by this Act, the regulations prescribed under section 623(c) of the Communications Act of 1934 shall not apply to the rates charged by small cable companies for the cable programming services provided by such companies.

BREAUX AMENDMENTS NOS. 1359–1361

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. BREAUX submitted three amendments intended to be proposed by him to an amendment to the bill, S. 652, supra; as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1359

At the appropriate place add the following: “Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act.

“(ii) Except for single-LATA States, a State may not require a Bell operating company to implement toll dialing parity in an intra-LATA area before a Bell operating company has been granted authority under this subsection to provide inter-LATA services in that area or before three years after the date of enactment of the Telecommunications Act, whichever is earlier. Nothing in this clause precludes a State from issuing an order requiring toll dialing parity in an intra-LATA area prior to either such date so long as such order does not take effect until after the earlier of either such dates.”

AMENDMENT NO. 1360

In the amendment, strike all after the first word and insert the following:

“Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act.

“(ii) Except for single-LATA States, a State may not require a Bell operating company to implement toll dialing parity in an intra-LATA area before a Bell operating company has been granted authority under this subsection to provide inter-LATA services in that area or before three years after the date of enactment of the Telecommunications Act, whichever is earlier. Nothing in this clause precludes a State from issuing an order requiring toll dialing parity in an intra-LATA area prior to either such date so long as such order does not take effect until after the earlier of either such dates.”

AMENDMENT NO. 1361

In lieu of the matter proposed to be inserted, insert the following:

“(ii) Except for single-LATA States, a State may not require a Bell operating company to implement toll dialing parity in an intra-LATA area before a Bell operating company has been granted authority under this subsection to provide inter-LATA services in that area or before three years after the date of enactment of the Telecommunications Act, whichever is earlier.
