

Mr. HATCH. I know the distinguished leaders of both sides prefer to press onward, but I am not sure what their decision will be. I think we need to have this vote and go from there.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, we will also be offering the Glenn-Chafee substitute this afternoon.

Mr. JOHNSTON. That would be voted on Monday.

Mr. LEVIN. That will require some significant debate both Monday and perhaps today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the amendment.

The yeas and nays have been ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

POSITION ON VOTE

• Mr. BURNS. Mr. President, I was necessarily absent during the vote on the Hutchison modified amendment to S. 343 today. Had I been present, I would have voted for the amendment. The amendment, which stated that civil and criminal penalties shall not apply if the rule failed to give fair warning of required conduct, clarifies S. 343 and, I believe, is a valuable addition to the bill.

I would like to note that my vote would not have affected the outcome of the vote, which was adopted by the Senate, 80-0.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader is recognized.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, let me indicate there will be no more votes today. I understand that the major amendment on the other side, the so-called Glenn-Chafee, et al, amendment, will be laid down and that will be debated this afternoon, and then on Monday I understand the distinguished Democratic leader would like to change the time of the cloture vote from 5 to 6 p.m.

Mr. DASCHLE. If the leader will yield, that would accommodate a couple of our Members who will be back and ready to vote at 6 o'clock.

Mr. DOLE. I ask unanimous consent that the cloture vote on Monday occur at 6 p.m.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DASCHLE. If the leader will yield, does the leader contemplate votes prior to that?

Mr. DOLE. It is my hope—and we were discussing it earlier—there may be solid debate Monday on the major amendment. If that is the case, then there would not be any votes. If there should be a lull, then we would like to set the amendment aside and take up other amendments. So there could be rollcall votes. I think it is probably less than a 50-50 chance. I would not want anybody to leave here thinking there will not be any votes. There could be a vote. But I think that will be determined by debate on this major amendment, which I assume will probably be extended and continuous.

Mr. DASCHLE. If the leader will yield, that would be my understanding as well. I think there are a number of people who have expressed an interest in speaking on the substitute, but I would say, in fair warning to all of our colleagues, if there is a lull, we are prepared on this side to bring up another amendment, set the substitute aside and have a good debate on the amendment.

Mr. DOLE. I think another suggestion might be that if there were any votes—there probably would not be any more than one or two—they could immediately follow the cloture vote. So let us do it that way, so that we could say the first vote will occur at 6 p.m. and if any other votes are ordered during the afternoon, they will occur immediately following the vote on cloture. The vote on the substitute, I am not certain whether that will come on Monday evening or Tuesday. There is no indication of that yet.

Mr. DASCHLE. At this point, I am not sure we are prepared to come to any agreement on a time certain, but we will have a good debate on the substitute on Monday, and I assume sometime either Monday night or Tuesday we will be prepared for a vote on that, too.

Mr. DOLE. It is still our hope to complete action on this bill on Tuesday. I know there are some amendments on each side. I do not know how many, but I think maybe three or four on this side, maybe three, four, five on the other side.

So I advise Members that it will probably be late on Monday evening and early on Tuesday so that we can complete action on this bill, so we can move on to the next matter on the agenda, so that we can start our August recess sometime in August.

Mr. CRAIG addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Idaho is recognized.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to speak in morning business for no more than 2 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

REASSIGNMENT OF DEPUTY FBI DIRECTOR POTTS

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, about an hour ago, I had a phone conversation with the Director of the FBI, Louis Freeh. At that time, he told me that he permanently reassigned Larry Potts, his immediate assistant, Deputy Director, to a new assignment in the FBI pending an investigation that is now underway in the Justice Department as it relates to the performance of certain FBI personnel with the Ruby Ridge incident in Idaho.

For over 2 years, I have pursued open, factual airing of the events of that incident. At the time Mr. Freeh had recommended Potts for his appointment, I asked that be deferred and the man not be considered until such time as the cloud over the FBI was cleared up. It appears we now may be moving in the direction of full public disclosure of
