

and the government of the United States should immediately encourage the United Nations to establish an ad hoc committee for the purpose of studying membership for Taiwan in that organization and its related agencies.

"Section 2. The principal Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the United States Senate Majority Leader."

POM-253. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Nevada; to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

"JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 30

"Whereas, The residents of the State of Nevada have enjoyed a sister-state relationship with the residents of the Republic of China on Taiwan for the past 10 years; and

"Whereas, the commercial interaction with the Republic of China on Taiwan has grown substantially in recent years to the benefit of the State of Nevada; and

"Whereas, the Republic of China on Taiwan has successfully established a democratic, multiparty political system; and

"Whereas, working in a cooperative atmosphere with the United States, the role of the Republic of China on Taiwan in international developmental programs and humanitarian relief operations has expanded significantly during the past decade; and

"Whereas, seven Central American countries have proposed to the Secretary General of the United Nations that a supplementary item be included in the provisional agenda of the 48th General Assembly session to consider the exceptional situation of the Republic of China on Taiwan in the international community, based on the principle of universality, and in accordance with the established pattern of parallel representation by divided countries in the United Nations: Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That our ongoing commercial relationship with the people of the Republic of China on Taiwan be recognized as serving our mutual interest in an equitable and reciprocal manner; and be it further

"Resolved, That the contributions of the Republic of China on Taiwan in light of her democratic government and humanitarian service abroad, be accorded appropriate recognition by the residents of the State of Nevada; and be it further

"Resolved, That the Congress of the United States is hereby urged to give due consideration to the readiness of the people of the Republic of China on Taiwan for its further contributions to broaden participation in the international community, including the United Nations and such forums as multilateral trade associations and humanitarian relief organizations; and be it further

"Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States as presiding officer of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, each member of the Nevada Congressional Delegation and to Director General Jyh-yuan Lo of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Office in San Francisco; and be it further

"Resolved, That this resolution becomes effective upon passage and approval."

POM-254. A joint resolution adopted by the Legislature of the State of Nevada; to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

"JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 38

"Whereas, a parent who disagrees with a court's decision relating to the custody of his child may choose to leave the United States with that child; and

"Whereas, international cases of parental abduction of children have increased dramatically; and

"Whereas, since 1977, the Office of Children's Issues of the United States Department of State has been notified in the cases of approximately 7,000 American children who were abducted from the United States or prevented from returning to the United States by one of their parents; and

"Whereas, the Office of Children's Issues has more than 1,200 unresolved cases of international abduction of children on file; and

"Whereas, the United States Department of State is not authorized to intervene in the private legal matters of parents or to enforce an agreement relating to the custody of a child who is living with a parent outside the United States: Now, therefore, be it

"Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That the Nevada Legislature hereby urges Congress to enact legislation which would require that any application for a passport for a child under the age of 16 years must be signed by: '1. Both parents, if the parents and the child live together; 2. The parent or parents who has been awarded custody of the child; or 3. The surviving parent, if a parent is deceased; and be it further

"Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the Assembly prepare and transmit a copy of this resolution to the Vice President of the United States as presiding officer of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and each member of the Nevada Congressional Delegation; and be it further
