ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

BUDGET SCOREKEEPING REPORT

• Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I hereby submit to the Senate the budget scorekeeping report prepared by the Congressional Budget Office under section 308(b) and in aid of section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, as amended. This report meets the requirements for Senate scorekeeping of section 5 of Senate Concurrent Resolution 32, the first concurrent resolution on the budget for 1995.

This report shows the effects of congressional action on the budget through August 5, 1995. The estimates of budget authority, outlays, and revenues, which are consistent with the technical and economic assumptions of the concurrent resolution on the budget (H. Con. Res. 218), show that current level spending is below the budget authority and $20.9 billion in budget authority and $2.0 billion in outlays. Current level is $0.5 billion over the revenue floor in 1995 and below by $9.5 billion over the 5 years 1995-1999. The current estimate of the deficit for purposes of calculating the maximum deficit amount is $237.4 billion, $3.7 billion below the maximum deficit amount for 1995 of $241.0 billion.

Since my last report, dated July 24, 1995, the President signed the 1995 Rescissions and Emergency Supplementals for Disaster Assistance Act—Public Law 104-19. This legislation changed current level of budget authority and outlays; the change was reflected in my report dated July 24, 1995.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, August 7, 1995.

Hon. PETE DOMENICI,
Chairman, Committee on the Budget, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The attached report for fiscal year 1995 shows the effects of Congressional action on the 1995 budget and is current through August 5, 1995. The estimates of budget authority, outlays and revenues are consistent with the technical and economic assumptions of the 1995 Concurrent Resolution on the Budget (H. Con. Res. 218). This report is submitted under Section 308(b) and in aid of Section 311 of the Congressional Budget Act, as amended, and meets the requirements of Senate scorekeeping of Section 5 of S. Con. Res. 32, the 1986 First Concurrent Resolution on the Budget.

Since my last report, dated July 24, 1995, the President signed the 1995 Rescissions and Emergency Supplementals for Disaster Assistance Act (P.L. 104-19). This action did not change the current level of budget authority, outlays or revenues.

Sincerely,

JUNE E. O'NEILL,
Director.

REMARKS OF BISHOP WILLIAM SKYLSTAD ON THE FARM BILL

• Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I would like to submit for the RECORD the remarks of William Skylstad, the Roman Catholic bishop of Spokane, WA, on the subject of the 1995 farm bill. His remarks reflect the policies of the U.S. Catholic Conference, which represents the Nation's Roman Catholic bishops.

Bishop Skylstad's thoughtful remarks reflect the American bishops' desires to save the family farm, promote wise stewardship of the land, alleviate hunger here and abroad, and sustain rural economies—goal that I hope we all share. I urge each Senator to review carefully Bishop Skylstad's observations and recommendations.

The remarks follow:

TESTIMONY BY MOST REVEREND WILLIAM SKYLSTAD

I am William Skylstad, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Spokane, Washington. I serve a diocese which is mostly rural, and which has farms of all sizes and shapes. Formerly, I was Bishop of the Diocese of Yakima, Washington. The farming community there relied heavily on migrant labor for its fruit and vegetable harvests. The smaller cities in which I have served have experienced many of the same problems of hunger and poverty that many of our nation's large cities face. So I come today as a pastor with some knowledge of the rural and urban dimensions that this omnibus food and agriculture bill addresses.
