PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 104th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 141

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1995

No. 163

Senate

(Legislative day of Wednesday, October 18, 1995)

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m., on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, ultimate judge of us all, free us from the pejorative judgments that put others down when they do not agree with us. We develop a litmus test to judge others. Sometimes, when they don't measure up, we question their value and make condemnatory judgments of them. Most serious of all, we think our categorization justifies our lack of prayer for them. Often we self-righteously neglect in our prayers the very people who most need Your blessing.

Give us Samuel's heart to say, "Far be it from me that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you."—1 Samuel 12:23. Remind us that You alone have power to change the minds and hearts of people if we will be faithful to pray for them. Make us intercessors for all those You have placed on our hearts—even those we previously have condemned with our judgments. We accept Your authority: "Judgement is mine, says the Lord." I pray this in the name of Jesus, who with Moses and the prophets, taught us to do to others what we would wish them to do to us. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able Senator from Virginia is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, speaking on behalf of the majority leader, I wish to inform the Senate that morning business on this day shall continue until the hour of 10:30 a.m. with Senators FORD, WARNER, BAUCUS, and KERREY to be recognized for time allocation within that period.

At 10:30 it will be the intention of the majority leader to proceed to the consideration of Calendar No. 207, S. 1322, regarding the relocation of the United States Embassy in Israel.

The majority leader wishes to advise all Senators that rollcall votes, therefore, are possible.

Further, the majority leader desires to bring up the State Department reorganization, if the managers' amendment can be worked out, or, in the alternative, the Labor-HHS appropriations bill, again if an agreement can be reached.

Mr. President, I seek recognition as one with allocation of morning business time.

MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. CAMPBELL). Under the previous order, there will now be a period for the transaction of morning business not to extend beyond the hour of 10:30 a.m. with Senators permitted to speak therein. Under the previous order, the Senator from Virginia [Mr. WARNER] is recognized to speak for up to 10 minutes in morning business.

Mr. WARNER. Thank you, Mr. President.

THE SENATE AND THE WORLD WIDE WEB

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I am privileged to be joined this morning by my distinguished colleague and friend, Senator FORD. Senator FORD and I have the joint responsibility for the Rules Committee, and we come to the floor today to announce the Senate presence on the World Wide Web.

As of this morning, nearly 6 million Americans will have access to educational information about the U.S. Senate by way of Internet. We envision the Senate Home Page as a tool that can be used by educators all across our Nation in helping with their teachings of the constitutional and historical role of this institution, and its place in American Government and its underlying responsibilities within our society.

The U.S. Senate World Wide Web Server provides information from and about the Members of the Senate, the Senate committees, and Senate leadership. This evolving service also provides general background information about U.S. Senate legislative procedures, the Senate facilities in this Capitol Building, and the history of this institution. It also includes a visual tour of the Capitol for those of our constituents who may be unable to visit in person, and particularly for those who can visit it. It includes many suggestions on how to plan their visits to the U.S. Capitol Building.

The Capitol Building also has, as we all know, a permanent art collection of great renown and of great historical significance. That too is treated in this Internet.

I want to thank Senator STEVENS and my colleague, Senator FORD, and other members of the Rules Committee who began this effort early this year. We have a very valued staff, and this effort has been led by John McConnell and Paul Steele, and most recently by the acting staff director, Grayson Winterling.

Special thanks to additional staff persons with technical ability in the Sergeant at Arms, Tom Meenan, Chris Lee, Charlie Kirsch, Alex Hobson, Jenny Yu, Roger Myers, Jim Judy, and Sara Oursler along with Cherie Allen of the Secretary of the Senate's office, for developing this technical achievement.

Additional thanks to many of those Senators and their high-technology
