Mr. DOMENICCI. I yield the floor.

I thank my friend for the time.

Mr. BRYAN. Mr. President, let me compliment my friend from New Mexico. I know he is sincere. He has been laboring in the vineyards for a good many years on this legislation. Let me say by way of rebuttal that, if this legislation was about how we could increase that 14 cents that the investors currently receive according to the information provided, I would like to work with him. In point of fact, the concern is that this legislation will, in many cases, reduce the recovery to zero and in no instance is there a provision in this bill that would enhance the recovery beyond the 14 cents even if recovery is possible.

Finally, let me say by way of winding it up, our friend, the distinguished chairman of the Select Committee on Aging, has certainly provided a number of insights in terms of who really gets hurt in this legislation. He points out cogently and definitively that the seniors in America are going to be among its principal victims.

Mr. President, I note that our time is up. If there is any remainder of time, I yield it.

Have the yeas and nays been asked for?

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. SANTORUM). They have not.

Mr. BRYAN. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

PARTIAL-BIRTH ABORTION BAN ACT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the pending business. The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (H.R. 1833) to amend Title 18 U.S. Code to ban partial-birth abortions.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that there be a period for morning business until 5:30.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mrs. BOXER. Reserving the right to object. I want to know what the intention is as far as going to the late-term abortion ban.

Mr. SMITH. The intention is to go to it at about 5:30.

Mrs. BOXER. How long does my colleague wish to continue the debate?

Mr. SMITH. I do not have any information on that at this time. I have no intention to delay the debate, I say to the Senator from California.

Mrs. BOXER. I know there are some people here who wish to speak, and they are here because it is their understanding that we were moving to it immediately. Is there any reason in delaying going to this bill?

Mr. SMITH. Only that Senator THOMAS asked me for time to give a tribute to Senator SIMPSON. That is the only reason.

Mrs. BOXER. Thank you. I do not object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator is recognized to speak as in morning business.

TRIBUTE TO ALAN SIMPSON

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I appreciate the opportunity to come to the floor to talk about a friend, to talk about a man whom I respect as a friend, whom I respect as a public servant, a man—to quote a phrase he uses—“who is a friend to his friends,” ALAN SIMPSON.

As you all know, AL SIMPSON indicated in Cody, WY, last Saturday that he would not seek another term in the U.S. Senate and would end his career at 18 years. ALAN SIMPSON is a special guy, a unique U.S. Senator. There are none other like him. He can be outspoken, very candid, very frank, and very kind.

This Cody boy is an outstanding Senator and my lifelong friend, a good and gracious man. I know that so many of you have known him well and also call him a friend. We are lucky in that way. Both he and Ann have given grace and style in their personal relationships as well as in their political life. All of us in Wyoming have been very proud of his representation in the Senate and his and Ann's representation as Wyomingites in the Nation's Capital.

I have had the privilege to serve as a part of a team with AL on the Wyoming delegation for 5 years, when I was in the House and he and Malcolm Wallop were here. This one very special year, ALAN SIMPSON and I have had the opportunity to serve together. There will be more accolades, tributes, and reactions, of course, to their decision. Many are surprised, certainly, and many are saddened by AL SIMPSON's decision not to run. I defend it because I know it was truly their decision and they are at peace with it and look forward to life beyond these Chambers, as we all know there is. I am sure that life will be centered in Cody, WY.

I know that AL could have done anything he chose to. People in Wyoming
