

SPECTER being different than the freedom of speech rights of a candidate. We have lived with Buckley versus Valeo for 20 years, and it is bad legal construction. There is nothing in the first amendment, there is nothing in the logic of the law which suggests the first amendment gives an individual the right to spend as much of his or her own money as he or she chooses.

It certainly is bad public policy to have certain people seek to buy an office, especially the Presidency of the United States.

So I urge my colleagues to join Senator HOLLINGS and myself. As we have talked in the quarters and in the cloakrooms and on the floor of the Senate in these past several days, I believe that there is a growing sentiment in the Congress to do something about Buckley versus Valeo, to see to it that we do not have high public office up for sale in this great country.
