ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

TRIBUTE TO THE CITY OF MANCHESTER ON ITS 150TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to Manchester, NH, on its 150th anniversary. On June 8, the 100,000 residents of Manchester will hold a community wide picnic to celebrate this significant milestone.

Manchester's 150 year heritage encompasses periods of growth and change including native American occupation, colonial settlement, industrial growth, and 20th century diversification. For over 10,000 years various native American groups occupied what was then known as the Merrimack River Valley. The abundance of fish and game in this area helped support these people's livelihood. By 1725, most of the native Americans inhabiting the Merrimack Valley had fled northward to escape conflict and disease brought about by European settlers that had migrated into the area.

In the early 1700's, many European settlers began to move into the Manchester area. Scottish and Irish families with expertise in flax spinning and weaving were the first group to settle around what is now known as Londonderry in 1719. In 1722, John Goffe also established the town's first water-powered mill along Cohas Brook. In 1751, the town of Derryfield, now known as Manchester, was established.

In the 1790's a man by the name of Samuel Blodget envisioned an industrialized Derryfield which could boast open trade routes with Boston to the south and Concord to the north. Consequently, he proceeded to fund the development of a canal and lock system around the Amoskeag Falls. In 1810, 3 years after Blodget's death, the residents of Derryfield voted to change
