

What they really want is an agreement first. Once we get it all worked out, they will have conferees. I think that is a little bit of a perversion of how the system usually has worked and how it should work.

What Senator KENNEDY is complaining about with regard to the distinguished majority leader is that the majority leader may have a little different view of some of the comments. So the inference is if Senator DOLE does not agree to what Senator KENNEDY wants, then it is hopeless. That is not the way it works. A lot of progress has been made. A lot of concessions have been made by the House to the Senate and some from the Senate to the House. The big objection is medical savings accounts. There are solutions there. There are compromises that are within reach.

It is a question of choice. Will our people, some day—some day—have a chance to decide if maybe they want to put their money in medical IRA's? Senator KENNEDY wants to block that. Even the President has indicated along the way over the last year that he would be willing to go with some form of agreement on medical savings accounts. Maybe not what they are talking about now, but on a pilot basis, some form. This is an idea we ought to try. I hope the conferees or the people who are talking about it, since they will not let us appoint conferees, are getting close to an agreement. I believe they are. It is encouraging. I look forward to our having a chance to take that up next week.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 12 noon on Monday June 10; further, that immediately following the prayer, the Journal of proceedings be deemed approved to date, no resolutions come over under the rule, the call of the calendar be dispensed with, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, and the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day.

I further ask that there then be a period for the transaction of morning business with Senators to speak for up to 5 minutes, with Senators to be recognized as follows: Senator HOLLINGS for up to 30 minutes, Senator DOMENICI to be in control of time from 1 o'clock to 3:30, Senator DASCHLE or his designee in control of time from 3:30 until 4:30, Senator COVERDELL or his designee in control of time from 4:30 to 5:30.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. For the information of all Senators, on Monday it is expected that during morning business the Senate will debate the budget resolution conference report. It is hoped that any Senator who desires to speak in regard to the budget conference report will do so during Monday's session of the Senate. This would enable the Senate to yield back some of the statutory time limitation on Tuesday and allow for a vote on the conference report during Tuesday's session of the Senate. This is a measured step in the right direction. I am glad that conference report has been agreed to and we can take it up early next week. Rollcall votes are possible during Monday's session of the Senate, and the Senate may be asked to turn to any legislative items that can be cleared.

I am sure in the opening session and opening script on Monday we will have additional information about the schedule during the day of Tuesday and Wednesday. I think we are pretty close to getting an understanding of what that might be. I know the majority leader will make that available to the Members early next week.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 1:57 p.m., adjourned until Monday, June 10, 1996, at 12 noon.
