Conclusions: (1) All gold that Germany sold after a certain date, probably from early 1943 on, was looted gold, since her own reserves, including hidden reserves with which she started the war, were exhausted by that time; (2) out of $278,000,000-worth of gold that Switzerland purchased from Germany, the larger part was looted gold; in addition, Switzerland has taken $100,000,000 looted gold in deposit, which later on was re-exported to Spain and Portugal for German account; (3) among the gold that the Swiss sold during the war to Portugal, Spain, and Turkey, there could have been looted German gold; (4) the gold that Switzerland bought from Sweden during the war could theoretically be German looted gold; monetary experts all over the world (Switzerland has monetary experts at her disposal) knew, or ought to have known, roughly the figures and movements as contained in the above estimate—certainly they knew the gold holdings and gold reserves of the German Reichsbank. Switzerland therefore was lacking good faith. In addition, she was warned that all Germany's own pre-war gold stocks had been used up by mid-1943 at the latest and therefore all the gold then in the possession of Germany must be presumed to be looted gold.

Mr. D'AMATO. As one can see, the amount of gold, estimated by this report is said to be $398 million, $148 million more than the treaty amount. A possible reason for the difference can be laid upon the Swiss because they would not agree to give up more than $250 million.

I would like to know what happened to the other $148 million, or more, that apparently was kept by the Swiss. I am quite sure that the other nations of Europe who had their gold looted from them by the Nazis and sent to Switzerland, not to mention the individual citizens who had gold taken from them, would like to know where that gold is today. Only the Swiss know and they aren't talking.●

TRIBUTE TO BILL MARSTON ON HIS RETIREMENT AS PRINCIPAL OF GOFFSTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

● Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding individual as he nears the end of a 40-year career as an educator. Bill Marston retires this month from his position as principal of Goffstown High School in Goffstown, NH.

Mr. Marston's 15-year tenure as principal has been marked by his unflinching dedication to his students. His example of excellence and integrity, set for his students, his teachers, and his community, will endure long after his retirement. He will be remembered as a true educator in every sense of the word. An educator's job is about much more than passing along information or keeping order in the classroom. An educator provides his students with the tools they need to shape their future. Bill treated each student as an individual and was always willing to go the extra step to see a student succeed.

Educators like Bill are one of our Nation's greatest treasures. They shape the future of this Nation as they shape the mind and character of our young people. Education and educators like Bill Marston give us hope for tomorrow. The young people whose lives our Nation's educators touch each day will be the leaders of tomorrow. It is the educator who sparks interest in physics or makes civics come alive for the student. They equip the future scientists and inspire the future writers of this Nation. As a former teacher myself, I have seen the impact educators can have on the lives of students. Teachers are, in many ways, the keepers of our Nation's future, holding the promise of tomorrow in their hands.

By all accounts, Bill Marston has been an exemplary educator, both as teacher and as administrator. The job of an administrator is not always an easy one. By keeping the best interests of the students at heart, Bill set an example he can be proud of. Bill, however, was more than an administrator. He was a leader. He always acted with integrity and earned the respect of his community. The influence of his leadership will surely be felt long after his retirement.

I commend Bill Marston for his career of distinction in the field of education. New Hampshire is fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated educator shaping its future generation.●

CONGRATULATING THE CHICAGO BULLS ON WINNING THE 1996 NATIONAL BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION CHAMPIONSHIP

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of S. Res. 266, submitted earlier today by Senators MOSELEY-BRAUN and SIMON.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows: A resolution (S. Res. 266) to congratulate the Chicago Bulls on winning the 1996 National Basketball Association Championship and proving themselves to be one of the best teams in NBA history.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the immediate consideration of the resolution?

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Ms. MOSELEY-BRAUN. Mr. President, on behalf of my colleague, Senator SIMON, the city of Chicago, and the State of Illinois, I rise to offer a Senate resolution commemorating the Chicago Bulls for winning the 1995-1996 National Basketball Association Championship.

I say to my friend, Senator PATTY MURRAY, that her great State of Washington was well-represented in this championship series that ended last Sunday. We should all applaud the Seattle Supersonics for an excellent season in which they won 64 games. I am sure it will not be the last we will hear of them. I am just delighted that this happens to be the year of the Chicago Bulls.

The Bulls have put together a truly remarkable season. There should no longer be any doubt that this Bulls team is the best basketball team in the 49-year history of the NBA. Yes, the best ever. One need look no farther than the numbers. The Bulls finished the regular season with an unprecedented record of 72-10. They roared through the playoffs, losing only three games in four playoff rounds. Their final record is a truly unbelievable 87-13. There has never been a team that has so dominated professional basketball at both ends of the court like this year's Bulls.

Coach Phil Jackson once stated that, "Basketball is a sum of parts that sometimes are greater than the whole * * * we try to get the concept to the team that you are only as strong as your weakest link." Coach Jackson's philosophy of teamwork has resonated with the players on this team. From Michael Jordan down to the last player on the bench, each member know his role, accepted it, and worked for the good of the team. They worked hard in practice, meshed their various talents and selflessly played together for team, not individual, achievements.

As is the case with all great teams however, when the team is successful, individuals stand out as well. Michael Jordan, the greatest basketball player on this planet, was named the league's most valuable player for the regular season, for the playoffs, and for the all-star game, something that has never been done before. Dennis Rodman won the rebounding title. The sixth man of the year award went to Toni Kukoc. Coach Jackson was honored as Coach of the Year. And three members—Jordan, Rodman, and Scottie Pippen—were named to the All-Defensive Team.

Basketball teams around the country have hung banners in their arenas commemorating championship seasons. Undoubtedly, some of those team possessed more Hall of Famers or had more individual talent. But this year's Chicago Bulls team has amassed a record of success that ranks as the best of all-time. We are so proud that the city of Chicago is associated with the mark of excellence and perfection that this Bulls team has shown.
