EXECUTIVE SESSION

EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, on the Executive Calendar, I ask unanimous consent the Senate immediately proceed to executive session to consider the following nominations on today's Executive Calendar en bloc: Calendar Nos. 633, 634, 635, and 636.

I further ask unanimous consent that the nominations be confirmed en bloc; the motion to reconsider be laid upon table en bloc; and that any statements relating to the nominations appear at the appropriate place in the RECORD, and that the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action, and that the Senate then return to legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The nominations considered and confirmed en bloc are as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Raymond W. Kelly, of New York, to be Under Secretary of the Treasury for Enforcement.

U.S. INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Marcia E. Miller, of Indiana, to be a Member of the U.S. International Trade Commission for the term expiring December 16, 2003.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

John W. Hechinger, Sr., of the District of Columbia, to be a Member of the National Security Education Board for a term of four years.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Vicky A. Bailey, of Indiana, to be a Member of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission for the term expiring June 30, 2001.

NOMINATION OF RAYMOND W. KELLY TO BE UNDER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY FOR ENFORCEMENT

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, Raymond W. Kelly may be the most superbly qualified nominee ever nominated to head the enforcement operations of the Treasury Department. From 1992 to 1994, he served as Commissioner of the New York City Police Department, which with 38,000 officers is the world's largest police force.

Over the course of his 32-year career with the NYPD, he served in every rank in 25 different commands. In 1993, he was widely praised for his work in investigating the bombing of the World Trade Center in lower Manhattan.

At a recent event in New York, no less a skeptic than Dan Rather called Ray "the best New York City Police Commissioner since Teddy Roosevelt."

After leaving the NYPD, Commissioner Kelly served the United States as Director of the International Police Monitors of the Multinational Force in Haiti. He was charged with the difficult and delicate task of putting a stop to human rights abuses by the Haitian police. Upon leaving Haiti in 1995, Mr. Kelly was awarded a commendation by President Clinton for exceptionally meritorious service in Haiti. He was also awarded the Commander's Medal for Public Service by Gen. John Shalikashvili, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Earlier in life, Mr. Kelly served in the U.S. Marine Corps, including combat in Vietnam. He retired with the rank of colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve.

He is also an attorney with law degrees from St. John's University and New York University. He earned his undergraduate degree from Manhattan College and his master of public administration degree from the Kennedy School at Harvard.

I know Raymond Kelly as a very smart and very tough law enforcement officer. The Senate has acted wisely to confirm him. To Ray, to his wife Veronica, and to their sons James and Gregory, great good wishes and congratulations.

NOMINATION OF MARCIA E. MILLER TO BE COMMISSIONER, INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, I rise in strong support of the nomination of Marcia E. Miller to become Commissioner of the International Trade Commission, a position for which she is manifestly well-qualified. I do so, Mr. President, without reservation, but with some regret: Ms. Miller has been an invaluable asset to the Finance Committee for nearly a decade.

Ms. Miller started with the committee in January 1987. I take some credit for her long tenure: one of my first accomplishments when I became chairman of the Finance Committee in 1993 was persuading Ms. Miller to serve as our Chief Trade Counselor.

And why? There was simply no better candidate. Ms. Miller has had a hand in drafting all of the major trade bills of the past decade, beginning with the comprehensive Omnibus Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988.

As Chief Trade Counselor, Marcia guided the Finance Committee expertly over difficult terrain: our sometimes contentious consideration of the North American Free-Trade Agreement implementing legislation, and our lengthy deliberations over the complex bill implementing the Uruguay round agreements and establishing the World Trade Organization.

Over the past decade, she has grappled with the major trade issues before the Senate—issues such as trade with China, textile and apparel trade, and disputes with Japan. Significantly, I must add to this list the range of the trade laws administered by the International Trade Commission, which she will soon join—the antidumping and countervailing duty laws, safeguards actions against imports, as well as actions under section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 protecting against imports of products that infringe intellectual property rights.

Unquestionably, Ms. Miller will bring to the International Trade Commission great expertise in the trade laws. And more. She will bring as well a powerful command of details, and unique skill in forging consensus among persons with widely divergent views. The International Trade Commission will now be the beneficiary of these skills, just as the Finance Committee was for so many years.

Ms. Miller will be an important asset to the Commission. She will bring to the job sound judgment and clear-headed analysis, and she will, I am certain, ensure that the Commission functions as the Congress intended—as an independent fact-finding and adjudicative body free from political pressures.

Mr. President, I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting Ms. Miller's nomination, in thanking her for her years of service to the committee and the Senate and in congratulating her and her family in this richly deserved honor.

LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume legislative session.

CHANGE OF CONVENING TIME

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the previous consent agreement be modified so that the Senate will now reconvene at 8:15 tomorrow morning, and that the time allocated to Senator DEWINE be vitiated.
