

Mr. LEVIN. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 4384

(Purpose: To require that operational support airlift aircraft excess to the requirements of the Department of Defense be placed in an inactive status and stored at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base pending any study or analysis of the costs and benefits of operating or disposing of such aircraft)

Mr. LEVIN. I send an amendment to the desk in my own behalf and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Michigan [Mr. LEVIN] proposes an amendment numbered 4384.

The amendment is as follows:

At the end of subtitle F of title X add the following:

SEC. 1072. OPERATIONAL SUPPORT AIRLIFT AIRCRAFT.

(a) STATUS OF EXCESS AIRCRAFT.—Operational support airlift aircraft excess to the requirements of the Department of Defense shall be placed in an inactive status and stored at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Arizona, pending the completion of any study or analysis of the costs and benefits of disposing of or operating such aircraft that precedes a decision to dispose of or continue to operate such aircraft.

(b) OPERATIONAL SUPPORT AIRLIFT AIRCRAFT DEFINED.—In this section, the term "operational support airlift aircraft" has the meaning given such term in section 1086(f) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1996 (Public Law 104-106; 110 Stat. 458).

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, this amendment will require the Department of Defense to retire certain operational support airlift aircraft while it studies the ultimate disposition of that aircraft that is excess to the needs of the Department of Defense.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, the amendment has been cleared by this side.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, has the amendment been adopted?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. It has not.

Without objection, the amendment is agreed to.

The amendment (No. 4384) was agreed to.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. MCCAIN. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. LAUTENBERG. I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The legislative clerk continued with the call of the roll.

Mr. MCCAIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. MCCAIN. I ask unanimous consent that there now be a period for the transaction of routine morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

TRAGEDY IN SAUDI ARABIA

Mr. CAMPBELL. Madam President, as the bodies of the servicemembers killed in Tuesday's terrorist attack in Saudi Arabia arrive today at Dover Air Force Base, I join my colleagues in expressing my deepest condolences to those families who must now endure the pains of this senseless tragedy. Words cannot adequately express the sorrow our Nation feels for the loss of these soldiers who have made this ultimate sacrifice in service to our country. Fortunately, none of the nearly 40 service people from Colorado who were caught in this terrorist bombing were killed, although some sustained serious injuries.

It is my sincere hope that the cowardly extremists responsible for this horrendous act are soon caught and swiftly brought to justice. I trust my colleagues in this Chamber will work closely with the administration and the Saudi Government to ensure their apprehension. I am also hopeful that the necessary actions will be taken to prevent any future assaults on the service men and women who guard and protect the peace not only in this region but throughout the world.

MEMORIAL TO RANDY BELLINGHAM

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I want to talk today about a friend, Randy Bellingham, who lived life to the fullest—in his work, in his play, in his personal relationships. And because of the way he lived, the sense of loss for those who knew him, is that much greater.

He was a decorated combat veteran of Vietnam. He was an avid outdoorsman. He was a superb lawyer. He was a cancer survivor. And he was a dedicated father. But to simply look at these achievements and call Randy a great man would not be doing him justice.

Randy will best be remembered for what he gave to those around him. His honesty, strength, courage, and understanding are qualities that brightened the days and lives of those he worked with and loved. Though he was a busy man, he took the time to counsel those who suffered from cancer. Randy used his own experiences combatting the disease to help ease the pain of others. He changed the lives of everyone he knew. And now we are living monuments to his life. We will carry the memory of this great man with us in our hearts and in our minds always.

There is no remedy for the pain we feel when we lose a friend in the prime of his life. We search for meaning in such events, and pray that God has some higher purpose. I do not claim to know the answer to such questions. But I do know that Randy made the very most of every day of his life. And to me, that is the greatest achievement one can claim.

Sadly, Randy leaves behind a young family, his wife Mary Ann and his daughter Brynn. They should be very proud of the life Randy lived. He will be sorely missed. Thank you.

SENSELESS VIOLENCE IN SAUDI ARABIA

Mr. BAUCUS. Madam President, like so many Americans, I have watched with horror and anger the news accounts of the senseless act of violence in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia which has claimed the lives of 19 of our Nation's best and brightest young men and women and shattered the lives of so many others.

Across the Nation and in my own State of Montana we all feel the impact of this tragedy. Great Falls, MT, is the home of Malmstrom Air Force Base and the 341st Missile Wing. Twenty-three dedicated members of the 341st Missile Wing were deployed at King Abdul Aziz Air Force Base the night of the bombing and 5 soldiers were injured in the blast. Fortunately, we have now learned that their injuries are not serious.

I know all Montanans join me in offering our best wishes for a full recovery to Capt. Stephen Goff, Alc Daniel D. Hazell, AB Christopher T. Wagar, Alc Dennis A. Kuritz, and Alc Roger K. Kaalekahi IV. T.Sgt. James Rangitsch, originally of Billings, MT, was also injured in the blast and our best wishes go out to him and his family as well as his mother Dorothy Rangitsch, also of Billings.

We have all felt the pain of this horrible tragedy. The thoughts and prayers of all Montanans and all Americans are with the families of those who have lost their lives and those who are now burdened by injury. For those young men and women who have been taken from us too soon, we must resolve that these senseless acts of terror will not go unpunished and the perpetrators of the bombing in Dhahran will be brought to justice.
