The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

VIETNAM VETERANS OF AMERICA
1996 CONGRESSIONAL STAFFER OF
THE YEAR AWARD

● Mr. ROCKEFELLER. Mr. President, I note with great pride that one of my staff members has been honored with a very special award: Charlotte Moreland, who serves me on the minority staff of the Senate Committee on Veterans' Affairs, has been named 1996 Congressional Staffer of the Year by the Vietnam Veterans of America.

I can think of no one who has earned this award more than Charlotte. She has been a loyal member of my personal staff ever since I joined the Senate in 1984, and I have been most grateful for the many strengths she brought to that job. But Charlotte really found her forté when I became chairman of the Senate Committee on Veterans' Affairs in 1993, and she became my Special Projects Director on the committee. She has continued to work for me in my capacity now as the committee's ranking Democratic member.

Charlotte has helped countless veterans from West Virginia and all around the country obtain the services and benefits they are due from the Department of Veterans Affairs. Some of the work she has done is truly amazing; she has been able to get results where many others have failed, or failed to even try, lacking the drive and compassion that are Charlotte's trademark.

Charlotte was born and raised in West Virginia, and she has never lost the stubborn persistence, tenacity, and deep caring that are so characteristic of my home State. Charlotte is a vigorous—I might say, ferocious—advocate for the underdog, the vulnerable, those who would otherwise get lost in the system. She is not afraid to fight Government bureaucracy, redtape, and complacency, and she will follow through on a case until all avenues of help are exhausted.

Whether it involves quality or availability of medical care in a VA hospital, or timely and appropriate decisions on disability claims, veterans need a place to turn when they believe the system has failed them. Charlotte acts as my eyes and ears out in the community, listening to the concerns of individual veterans and reporting them back to me, so that I can address systemic problems through legislation and oversight. I count on her tremendously, and I truly would not be able to perform my job well on the committee if she were not performing hers.

Charlotte is a prime example of a very special class of employees—dedicated congressional staffers who labor, often anonymously, behind the scenes, making our Government work and providing services to our citizens. Too often they do not receive the recognition they so richly deserve. In saluting Charlotte, I salute also these other unsung heroes. As Members of Congress, we are often in the limelight. But our accomplishments would be far less without the dedicated staff that serve us, and we should never forget that.

Veterans—in West Virginia and throughout our country—are incredibly lucky to have Charlotte as their
