

they established the Chester and Davida Herwitz Charitable Trust to support contemporary Indian art. In addition, Chester has served on the board of several charitable and social-service organizations in Massachusetts.

I am particularly proud that a great nation like India will recognize Chester's work. I trust that Chester will continue to enrich the cultures of both India and the United States. ●

AM 1450 WMIQ

● Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor AM 1450, Iron Mountain and Kingsford, Michigan's Information Station. On January 25, 1996, the station will celebrate 50 years of continuous broadcasting and community service.

On April 4, 1946, the first organizational meeting of the Iron Mountain Kingsford Broadcasting Co. was held to license a new radio station for the area. William and Frank Russell, along with the Delta Broadcasting Co. and the Lake Superior Broadcasting Co., were the driving force behind this organizing group. The new radio station was to be a news station operated by the Iron Mountain News, the area's daily newspaper.

Construction on the broadcast facility began on November 14, 1946 and on November 21, the new station was officially named WMIQ, with William Goodrich serving as its first general manager. On Saturday, January 25, 1947, WMIQ began broadcasting at 8:00 a.m. Governors Sigler of Michigan and Goodland of Wisconsin both wired the station to offer words of congratulation.

During the past 50 years, programming has included national and local news coverage, the "Scandinavian Cheer Hour" broadcast from the Bethel Mission Covenant Church in Swedish, live musical performances, the WMIQ Playhouse and Sunday morning services from First Lutheran Church. WMIQ also has a long history of national and local sports coverage.

WMIQ ownership changed hands in 1968 when Jim Klungness and Charles Henry purchased the radio station. WMIQ currently has sister stations WIMK-FM in Iron Mountain and WUPK-FM in Marquette. WMIQ has been very active in the community over the years by supporting the Carling House for domestic violence victims, the Can-A-Thon food drive, the March of Dimes and Easter Seals.

WMIQ has been an integral part of the Iron Mountain and Kingsford communities for the past fifty years. Its great work keeping the public apprised of current events has earned WMIQ the title of Michigan's "Information Station." I know my Senate colleagues join me in congratulating WMIQ for a half century of service to its broadcasting audience. ●

HONORING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-OSHKOSH

● Mr. KOHL. Mr. President, I rise today to pay tribute to the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh. UW-Oshkosh is celebrating its service to the State of Wisconsin as an institute of higher learning for 125 consecutive years and will be concluding its celebration with a large community event on February 8, 1997.

The University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh has a rich tradition of serving the families of our State through dedication and devotion to the principles of higher education. UW-Oshkosh was founded in 1871 with an entering class of 43 students. During that time the university was mainly a teacher-training institution, producing thousands of teachers who contributed immensely to Wisconsin's leadership in education.

Today, as part of the distinguished University of Wisconsin System, UW-Oshkosh enrolls more than 10,000 students on its campus in Fox River, WI. The university's four colleges and graduate school offer a range of programs in education and human services, letters and science, business administration, and nursing. With a tradition of strong programs in the arts and sciences and in professional career fields, the university has created an environment that promotes excellence and values diversity. In the past several years faculty and students have created a blueprint for the university's future, including a vision statement and 11 goals. Mr. President, the blueprint has been working because for the third consecutive year UW-Oshkosh ranks in the first tier of Midwestern colleges and universities by U.S. News and World Report.

I hope that all of you will join me in congratulating the faculty, students, employees, and graduates of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh for all of their accomplishments during their 125 years of existence, and I know you will join me in wishing them well during the next 125 years. ●

CALIFORNIA ASSEMBLY SPEAKER CRUZ BUSTAMANTE

● Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to pay tribute to Cruz Bustamante, the newly elected speaker of the California Assembly.

Speaker Bustamante is a native Californian, born in Dinuba and raised in the great Central Valley, where he still lives and represents the 31st District. He graduated from Tranquility High School and attended Fresno City College and California State University at Fresno. He has had a career marked by community service, having worked in various employment and training programs.

He understands his community well, having served on numerous boards and commissions including the Fresno

United Way Allocation Committee, Burroughs Elementary School Site Committee, City of Fresno Citizens Advisory Committee and the Roosevelt Plan Implementation Committee.

In addition to his extensive experience in state and local government and organizations, he also has a firm understanding of the workings of Congress and the Federal Government. Early in his career, he served as a summer intern in former Congressman B. F. Sisk's office. He later worked as district representative for former Congressman Richard Lehman.

Cruz Bustamante is California's first Assembly Speaker of Latino heritage. He is a modern day pioneer. California is home to millions of Latinos and others of various ethnic backgrounds. Mr. Bustamante's speakership heralds new horizons for every Californian concerned with the future of our ever changing State.

So today, I ask my colleagues in the United States Senate to join me and Speaker Bustamante's wife Arcelia, their daughters and grandchildren, his colleagues, constituents and numerous other supporters in wishing him every success as he meets this challenge.

Cruz Bustamante has been described by Republicans and Democrats alike as an intelligent and able leader. He has said that his tenure as Speaker will focus on the needs of the people of California. I look forward to working with him on behalf of all Californians, and I look forward to a continuing story of success for California's new Assembly Speaker, Cruz Bustamante. ●
