

teach government and coach the Western High School baseball team to victory in two State championships. While he was teaching, Rey worked on a local Nevada campaign with Monroe Sweetland, an executive with the National Education Association [NEA]. Mr. Sweetland recognized talent when he saw it, and lured Rey away from the Clark County School District to work for the NEA in Washington, DC, and across the Nation. After 13 years with the NEA, Rey directed his innumerable talents to my government career.

For more than 30 years, Rey has been a key player in the public arena, both in Nevada and across the Nation. He is an invaluable asset to all of the organizations and campaigns to which he has lent his energy and skill. He has a quick mind and a political acumen which he uses to great effect for the causes he believes in. He has been recognized for his efforts by groups across the Nation, including twice being named Outstanding Hispanic of the Year—in 1990 by the Latin Chamber of Commerce, and in 1988 by the New Mexico Club in Las Vegas. In 1980, the National Education Association recognized Rey as one of its outstanding political and legislative consultants. He has also been honored as an outstanding teacher in Clark County and an outstanding baseball coach in Nevada. The Community Hero award is just the most recent in his distinguished list of accolades.

The goal of the National Conference of Christians and Jews is to end bias, bigotry, and racism. Through advocacy and education, the National Conference seeks to promote understanding in all races and religions. For someone who has done so much toward these worthy goals, and who has served his community so well, Rey is truly deserving of the title "Community Hero."

It is my pleasure to speak today in tribute to my friend Reynaldo Martinez, and congratulate him on being selected for this honor.●
