

some way to modify or change that, I am sure it will be used with great vigor on both sides of the aisle. That is not the way I think business should be done.

PROGRAM

Mr. LOTT. For the information of all Senators, there will be a cloture vote on the supplemental appropriations bill tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. In addition, Senators are reminded that all second degree amendments must be filed prior to the 10 a.m. cloture vote. If cloture is invoked, it is my intention to continue consideration of the supplemental appropriations bill and complete action, if not tomorrow—hopefully tomorrow—or as early Thursday, if possible, if it goes to the next day.

Senators who intend to offer amendments to this legislation should be prepared to offer their amendments during Wednesday's session. I urge them to come to the floor during the daylight and offer their amendments, because we have a job to do here, and if we cannot make good progress tomorrow, then we will be here tomorrow night on this bill. Senators should be aware there are a number of amendments filed to the supplemental, so Senators should expect a busy voting day tomorrow. We could have several votes during the day, and we will notify Senators as soon as possible with respect to the exact times of the rollcall votes occurring during the session.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:41 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, May 7, 1997, at 9:30 a.m.
