

Tiger Woods might get richer that they would deny the poor an economy that produces more jobs for everyone. No wonder the voters are cynical.

BALANCED BUDGET AGREEMENT VICTORY FOR AMERICA

(Mr. THUNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. THUNE. Mr. Speaker, why do I consider this balanced budget agreement to be a major victory for America? Because it balances the Federal budget by the year 2002, because the Federal budget deficit will decline each year beginning in 1998, because it saves Medicare from bankruptcy until the year 2007, because it allows families to keep more of their own money, because it contains permanent tax relief for American families, and because it sets a new standard in Washington: Deficit spending is no longer acceptable.

This bipartisan balanced budget agreement is a first step toward fiscal sanity in this town. It is a first step toward smaller government, lower taxes and greater accountability in Washington.

Balancing the budget will mean that many more American families will prosper and more young Americans can realize their dreams of getting ahead and building for a better future. That is a victory no matter how we score it.

SAVINGS ARE VITAL TO EVERY- ONE'S RETIREMENT ACT OF 1997

Mr. FAWELL. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1377) to amend title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 to encourage retirement income savings, as amended.

The Clerk read as follows:

H.R. 1377

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Savings Are Vital to Everyone's Retirement Act of 1997".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds as follows:

(1) The impending retirement of the baby boom generation will severely strain our already overburdened entitlement system, necessitating increased reliance on pension and other personal savings.

(2) Studies have found that less than a third of Americans have even tried to calculate how much they will need to have saved by retirement, and that less than 20 percent are very confident they will have enough money to live comfortably throughout their retirement.

(3) A leading obstacle to expanding retirement savings is the simple fact that far too many Americans—particularly the young—are either unaware of, or without the knowledge and resources necessary to take advantage of, the extensive benefits offered by our retirement savings system.

(b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act—

(1) to advance the public's knowledge and understanding of retirement savings and its critical importance to the future well-being of American workers and their families;

(2) to provide for a periodic, bipartisan national retirement savings summit in conjunction with the White House to elevate the issue of savings to national prominence; and

(3) to initiate the development of a broad-based, public education program to encourage and enhance individual commitment to a personal retirement savings strategy.

SEC. 3. OUTREACH BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Part 5 of subtitle B of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. 1131 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

"(D) savings principles,

"(F) the importance of the timing of investments, and

"(G) the impact on retirement savings of life's uncertainties, such as living beyond one's life expectancy.

"(d) ESTABLISHMENT OF SITE ON THE INTERNET.—The Secretary shall establish a permanent site on the Internet concerning retirement income savings. The site shall contain at least the following information:

"(1) a means for individuals to calculate their estimated retirement savings needs, based on their retirement income goal as a percentage of their preretirement income;

"(2) a description in simple terms of the common types of retirement income savings arrangements available to both individuals and employers (specifically including small employers), including information on the amount of money that can be placed into a given vehicle, the tax treatment of the money, the amount of accumulation possible through different typical investment options and interest rate projections, and a directory of resources of more descriptive information;

"(3) materials explaining to employers in simple terms how to establish and maintain different retirement savings arrangements for their workers and what the basic legal requirements are under this Act and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

"(4) copies of all educational materials developed by the Department of Labor, and by other Federal agencies in consultation with such Department, to promote retirement income savings by workers and employers; and

"(5) links to other sites maintained on the Internet by governmental agencies and non-profit organizations that provide additional detail on retirement income savings arrangements and related topics on savings or investing.

"(e) COORDINATION.—The Secretary shall coordinate the outreach program under this section with similar efforts undertaken by other public and private entities."

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of contents in section 1 of such Act is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 514 the following new items:

"Sec. 515. Delinquent contributions.

"Sec. 516. Outreach to promote retirement income savings."

SEC. 4. NATIONAL SUMMIT ON RETIREMENT SAVINGS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Part 5 of subtitle B of title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (as amended by section 3 of this Act) is amended further by adding at the end the following new section:
