

particularly the preemption with regard to the cosmetics, and the protection of the consumers on those issues, which I think is a travesty in protecting the American families, and primarily the American women, I am going to object to the elimination and vitiation of the cloture motion.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. LOTT. In view of what I just heard the Senator say—he is right, that is the regular order. Of course, it is common practice, if you work things out you vitiate the necessity for a cloture vote. But, yes, I knew exactly what I was doing. And what I was doing was trying to carry out the will of the Senate, and not allow one Senator to any further delay the discussion of the merits of FDA reform.

In view of what the Senator said, I revise my unanimous-consent request to comply with what I thought I heard the Senator saying, the same unanimous-consent request all the way down the line, except that we would have the cloture vote in the morning at 9:45.

Would there be objection to that?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. KENNEDY. I personally do not believe I would object to it, I say to the Senator. I do not know whether the amendments that have been included—I have not seen the list. I have had some amendments.

Mr. LOTT. It has been cleared—

Mr. KENNEDY. I have been given assurance by the staff—Mr. President, I object temporarily until I have a chance to talk to the minority leader.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. KENNEDY. I object until I have a chance to talk to him.

Mr. LOTT. In an effort to try to get a reasonable agreement worked out here—I believe our list has been cleared on both sides. I think the Senator from Iowa has had a chance to review it. In the interest of trying to get something worked out here, I would be prepared to take a 5-minute quorum call so we can look over the list and discuss it. If we cannot get that worked out, then I would begin the process of taking up the two judges and voting here in a few minutes.

So in view of the Senator's comments, and the idea that maybe we could get an agreement, I would at this point—

Mr. LEAHY. Will the Senator yield for a question?

Mr. LOTT. Yes. By the way, this unanimous-consent request was worked out over a period of hours. I think it has been cleared on both sides by all Senators with the exception of one. Senator DASCHLE was intimately involved in it. And some of the things in the UC were at his request, including that we only have one vote at 5 o'clock on Monday. So, I mean, everybody cleared it except Senator KENNEDY.

Mr. FORD. Would the majority leader yield?

Mr. LOTT. I would be glad to.

Mr. FORD. Is there any doubt that we will have two votes as it relates to judges following whatever occurs on your unanimous consent request? I think that we need to alert your side and ours.

Mr. LOTT. That was not in the UC.

Mr. FORD. You mentioned you were going to have one.

Mr. LOTT. That is my intent. If we do not have any cooperation on other matters, we would vote.

Mr. LEAHY. If the leader would yield for a question.

Mr. LOTT. Yes.

Mr. LEAHY. Might, while you are trying to work this out, have one of those votes on the judges? We have to do them at some point anyway. Go ahead and do it.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, so that everybody will know we are on the verge of having a vote, I think it is in the interest of all of us to take 5 minutes, look at the list, and everybody could be called to notify them we are fixing to begin voting. And if the Senator was not here, we plan to vote on two judges tonight, and hope to get two more perhaps Monday or so.

Mr. FORD. There will be a rollcall vote on this?

Mr. LOTT. I have been requested to get rollcall votes.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. While both sides continue to check the amendment list and see if we can get an agreement on the UC, let's start our first recorded vote, that will be out of the way, and perhaps we can get a final agreement.

Mr. FORD. If the majority leader will yield, it is my hope that everyone has been notified that we are going to vote. I hope we would not start until such time as we feel like both sides have been notified.

This side is all right.

Mr. LOTT. I further ask unanimous consent it now be in order to ask for the yeas and nays on each of these nominations with one show of hands.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. I now ask for the yeas and nays, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there sufficient second? There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

NOMINATION OF HENRY HAROLD KENNEDY, JR., OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, TO BE U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is, Will the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of Henry Harold Kennedy, Jr., to be a U.S. District Judge for the District of Columbia? On this question the yeas and nays have been ordered, and the clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. NICKLES. I announce that the Senator from Alaska [Mr. MURKOWSKI], the Senator from North Carolina [Mr. HELMS], and the Senator from Rhode Island [Mr. CHAFEE] are necessarily absent.
