

Americans support a continued U.S. presence in the region as well.

Unfortunately, time is growing very short and urgent action is needed to negotiate an agreement with Panama before the United States withdrawal is complete. I ask my colleagues to join me as cosponsors of the critical resolution that I am introducing today and to support swift action on this issue.

TRIBUTE TO TAIWAN AND DR.
JASON HU

HON. GEORGE W. GEKAS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 9, 1997

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Republic of China on Taiwan on the 86th anniversary of the founding of their nation. Congratulations are in order for President Lee Teng-hui and Vice President Lien Chan, who have strived diligently to maintain strong economic growth and advance democracy for their country. Aided by the tireless efforts of people like Dr. Jason Hu, they have also expanded Taiwan's official and unofficial ties abroad. As Taiwan's representative to the United States, Dr. Hu has been in our Nation's Capital since June 1996. But a farewell and congratulations is in order as he is leaving our country soon to become Taiwan's foreign minister, a post for which he has proven to be well-suited.

During his tenure in our country, Dr. Hu has helped us to understand the complex issues affecting our two nations. His knowledge and tact have served his country well. His hard work and positive attitude have helped to bridge the gaps between our two peoples, helping us avoid the pitfalls that misunderstandings can bring.

As a dedicated and intelligent diplomat, Dr. Hu promises to be an excellent foreign minister. I wish him luck in his new position.

Ms. FURSE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend Mary L. Tobias, of Washington County, OR, who has contributed immensely to the democratic process and, through her leadership of the Tualatin Valley Economic Development Corp., epitomizes the spirit of public-private partnership.

Embarking on a new path, I wish Mary the best, congratulate her on all that she has accomplished, and thank her for her making my community a better place to live.

STOP HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IN KOSOVA

HON. JAMES A. TRAFICANT, JR.

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 9, 1997

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, Since the spring of 1989, when the regime of Slobodan Milosevic brutally occupied Kosova, the Serbian authorities have violated the human rights of the Albanian population. I would point out that ethnic Albanians comprise more than 92 percent of the total population of Kosova. Shortly after the Serbian occupation, all Albanian-language educational institutions were closed, and Albanian students were forced to attend makeshift classrooms in private homes throughout the province.

Thirteen months ago, an agreement was signed by President Ibrahim Rugova of Kosova and Serbian President Milosevic to enable Albanian students and teachers to return to their schools and to reopen the Albanian-language University of Prishtina. The international community hailed this agreement as the first step towards the settlement of the crisis in Kosova. However, no progress has been made towards implementing the agreement because of the Serbian regime's intransigence. Last week, the lack of Serbian willingness to comply with the agreement prompted students in Kosova to peacefully protest to bring world attention to their plight.

More than 50,000 students gathered in Velanija on October 1, the beginning of the new academic year in Kosova, to begin their protest. There they were met by Serbian police, who informed them that their protest was illegal because it had not been cleared by the occupation authorities. When the students refused to disband, the police encircled the crowd and brutally attacked the nonviolent protesters with truncheons and tear gas.

Throughout Kosova, Serbian police have attacked students and teachers, barricaded Albanian primary and secondary school buildings, and sealed off entire towns and cities. Yet the Albanian people of Kosova refuse to abandon their struggle for self-determination. The Albanian-American community has called on the international community to take measures to prevent the conflict from escalating further. Inaction and silence by the world will only encourage the Serbian occupiers of Kosova to pursue a more aggressive and repressive policy, as they did in Bosnia. Such a result could happen without timely action and a firm resolve on the part of the United States and the world's democracies.

The gross violation of the human rights of Albanian students, teachers, and defenseless citizens of Kosova must be stopped. The daily reality of Albanians in Kosova was illustrated for me today when a member of the Albanian American Civic League called me in desperation over the plight of his brother Hazyr

Dervishi. Mr. Dervishi, who suffers from a heart problem, was brutally beaten by the Serbian police for teaching Albanian students the Albanian language out of his home in Gjakova, Kosova. He was then taken by force to the Albanian border, and warned not to return to his home and family. Under the Serbian police system, Hazyr Dervishi is a marked man in Kosova. Yet, he plans to risk his life in order to rejoin his family.

On behalf of Hazyr Dervishi and so many other innocent Albanian victims, the United States State Department must make a public and unambiguous statement condemning the ongoing human rights violations in Kosova. Our Government should make it clear to the Serbian Government that we will not tolerate the continued abuse of ethnic Albanians in Kosova and the denial of their basic human and civil rights.

When will we learn how to deal with the barbaric Communist regime of Slobodan Milosevic, who rose to power on the dead bodies of so many innocent Albanian citizens of Kosova? When will we learn that only timely action and resolve will have an impact on dictators like Milosevic? I implore you, Mr. Speaker, and I implore our Government, not to let Kosova, which many have described as the modern-day equivalent of the Warsaw Ghetto under the Nazis, become the next Bosnia. We need to change a failed foreign policy that has allowed the victimization of Albanians in Kosova and Macedonia to continue unabated. Our policy must change now before it is too late.

SERBIAN SISTERS

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 9, 1997

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is my great honor to commend the Circle of Serbian Sisters of Northwest Indiana. This distinguished organization is holding its fifth annual benefit at St. Elijah's Serbian Orthodox Church Hall in Merrillville, IN, this Sunday, October 12, 1997.

The Circle of Serbian Sisters of Northwest Indiana is the combined effort to four Circle of Serbian Sisters organizations, each of which has about 200 members. The presidents of the Circle of Serbian Sisters organizations are: Ms. Helen Tezich, from St. George Serbian Orthodox Church in East Chicago; Ms. Natalie Tica, from St. George Serbian Orthodox Church in Schererville; Ms. Ann Rudman, from St. Sava Serbian Orthodox Church in Merrillville; and Ms. Milica Bodrozic, from St. Elijah Serbian Orthodox Church in Merrillville.

Some 5 years ago, these organizations unified to assemble this humanitarian fundraiser in order to provide aid to orphaned and refugee children in the former Yugoslavia. This year alone, three women—Milica Bodrozic, Mira Radakovich, and Violet Sekulich—who are from various kolos—circles—personally distributed monies to various orphanages and families in financial need. And 2 years ago, the Circle of Serbian Sisters sent over 7,000 packages and vaccines to displaced children, who are forced to live in refugee camps and shelters. These individually wrapped packages consisted of underwear, sweat suits, and
