PUNJAB REPORTER'S MAIL BEING SEIZED

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, once again the truth has leaked out from behind the facade of Indian democracy. The Punjab government of Chief Minister Parkash Singh Badal has issued an order intercepting the mail of Sukhbir Singh Osan, a reporter based in Chandigarh who writes for numerous publications including Aj Di Awaaz.

In addition to Mr. Osan, the superintendent of police, Mr. R.P. Singh, issued a written order to intercept the mail of "five senior ex-Army officers and some politicians residing in Chandigarh," according to Burning Punjab News. Postal authorities verbally confirmed the existence of the order, but refused to put the confirmation in writing.

This is not a new practice. In 1993, the Movement Against State Repression—and why does a democratic country need a "Movement Against State Repression" anyway?—went to court to get an injunction against the Home Secretary of the Union Territory, who was intercepting the mail of politicians and journalists. The High Court ruled the interceptions illegal, yet a mere five years later the Punjab government is doing the same thing. This is the reality of Indian "democracy."

Mr. Osan has been one of the few journalists with the courage to expose the repression, corruption, and police-state tactics of the Punjab government. For this, his civil rights are being violated, yet India and its friends here insist more loudly than ever that India is a "democracy." Clearly, it is not a democracy for Sukhbir Singh Osan and other political opponents of the Punjab government or for the minorities living under the repression of the state and central government. Couple this with the political detentions of several followers of Jasbir Singh Rode last August and the ongoing complaints against Sikh youth under the supposedly-expired "Terrorist and Disruptive Activities Act" (TADA), and you discover the real face of Indian democracy. Underneath that democratic veneer is a brutal police state unworthy of American aid or trade.

I ask the American ambassador to India to raise this matter with the Government of India and to report back to the Congress on when this ban is going to be lifted. Journalists and all citizens must be free to receive information freely. Until India learns to respect freedom of the press, it has no right to call itself a democracy.

I am inserting the article from Burning Punjab on the interception of Mr. Osan's mail into the RECORD. I hope my colleagues will take the time to read it.

CITY SCRIBE'S MAIL INTERCEPTED

CHANDIGARH, January 22—The Punjab Government headed by Parkash Singh Badal has ordered to intercept the mail of a city scribe working for Aj Di Awaaz, five other ex-army officers and a few politicians.

According to the information, Punjab Intelligence SSP Mr. R.P. Singh has directed his men in writing to collect the mail of Sukhbir Singh Osan, five senior ex-army officers and some politicians residing in Chandigarh.

When contacted the postal authorities confirmed the interception of mail by Punjab

CID men. However, Postal authorities refused to give anything in writing.

It may be recalled that during 1993 President of Movement Against State Repression, Mr. Inderjit Singh Jaijee, had challenged in the Punjab & Haryana High Court the orders issued by the U.T. Home Secretary to intercept the mail of certain politicians and ten journalists. The High Court described the said order not only unconstitutional but illegal also. Sukhbir Singh Osan has invited the wrath of Parkash Singh Badal and his police for daring to expose corrupt practices of the Government in his dispatches from time to time.

A TRIBUTE TO LEON H. FIELDS

HON. WILLIAM O. LIPINSKI

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mr. Leon H. Fields, an outstanding public servant. Mr. Fields has spent nearly 28 years helping Chicagoans get here to there and back again.

Mr. Leon Fields of Glenwood, Illinois is retiring from the Chicago Transit Authority, which operates the bus and rail system in the city.

The service Mr. Fields has offered to the CTA is a real "up-by-the-bootstraps" story. He began his career with the authority in 1969 as a rail car service and repairman. He steadily rose through the ranks at the CTA. Mr. Fields worked as a Maintenance Instructor, a Repair Shop Foreman, a Liaison to the Executive Director, Manager of Field Operations, Director of Rail Vehicle Light Maintenance and finally, General Manager of the CTA's orange line, which runs through the heart of my congressional district.

I have had the pleasure of working with Mr. Fields for more than five years, and I can tell you that his family's gain will be a loss for the people of Chicago who rely on the CTA. His knowledge, experience and dedication are second to none.

I would like to extend to Mr. Fields and his wife Denosia, and their children, Leon Jr., Angela, Tarsha and Latryce my best wishes on his retirement and my hope that they have many, many years together to enjoy the important things in life.

COLORECTAL CANCER LEGISLATION

HON. LOUISE McINTOSH SLAUGHTER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 11, 1998

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to announce that I am introducing a resolution to bring new public attention and federal resources to the issue of colorectal cancer.

Every year I lose an average of 172 of my constituents in Monroe County, New York to colorectal cancer. This is a tragic failure of our health care system because colorectal cancer is preventable, detectable, treatable, and often curable. Nevertheless, 55,000 Americans died in 1997 from this terrible disease.

Today I am introducing legislation that I hope will begin to dispel this deadly lack of knowledge. Along with 20 of my colleagues, I
