

for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Imagine this, Mr. Speaker. The IRS kicks down your door without a warrant and takes everything. Then the IRS, without a warrant, raids your partner's home. They arrest him at gunpoint in front of his small children and take everything. Then the IRS goes to your business, they question your customers, they threaten your employees, they take everything that is not nailed down.

Sound incredible? Not for the IRS. It was later ruled that the IRS was guilty, guilty, guilty. Guilty of assault, guilty of illegal search and seizure and guilty of false imprisonment.

Beam me up, Congress. When the IRS starts acting like Nazis, that is right, listen to the word, Nazis, Congress must step in and Congress must solve this dilemma for the American people.

I am asking you to cosponsor H.R. 3277, my bill that will stop illegal searches and illegal seizures.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF MONROE REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

(Mr. STEARNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, I had the privilege of serving on the board of trustees for the Monroe Regional Medical Center in my hometown of Ocala, Florida. It is an honor for me this morning to take the floor to recognize the 100th anniversary of this wonderful hospital.

In 1898, the Marion Surgical Hospital was organized into two rooms on the third floor of an office building in Ocala, Florida. Since then, the hospital has been in different locations under different names but its mission has remained constant, serving the medical needs of those within the community.

We are proud that our hospital provides care for patients without regard to race, religion, national origin or financial status. The Monroe Regional Medical Center has changed dramatically from its modest beginnings. It is now a modern 323-bed, acute-care facility. This is a not-for-profit hospital. It is owned and supported by our community.

I appreciate this opportunity to pay tribute to the fourth oldest hospital in the State of Florida for 100 years of service. Congratulations.

CONGRESS MUST ENSURE THAT MANAGED CARE IS QUALITY CARE

(Mr. ALLEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ALLEN. Mr. Speaker, health care is in transition. Private and public purchasers of health care are turning to managed care. Today, more than 160 million Americans are in managed care plans.

The shift to managed care has implications for health care quality. Managed care must be more than managed cost.

On the cover of today's Washington Post is a story about a woman who fell from a cliff while hiking. She had fractures to her skull, arm and pelvis. Her HMO refused to pay her hospital bills, saying she had failed to obtain preauthorization. Only after several court battles did the HMO pay anything for this woman's care.

This is unacceptable. Individuals must have access to and payment for emergency care in any situation that a prudent layperson would regard as an emergency. Every American deserves quality care. Managed care reforms are necessary to ensure that managed care is quality care.

AMERICANS DEMAND COMPLETE OVERHAUL OF IRS AND REFORM OF TAX CODE

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Mr. Speaker, yesterday the Associated Press released its results on the latest survey conducted on how much Americans trust their government. Well, not surprisingly, it found that out of every 10 Americans only three or four believe their government will do the right thing most or all the time. Mr. Speaker, more than 60 percent of Americans do not trust their government.

This survey also asked people what they felt about various government agencies in Washington that increasingly intrude into their daily lives. Well, not surprisingly, the numbers showed that the IRS has dropped significantly. Of all the government agencies, the IRS has the lowest approval rating of all. Truly shocking? Not really.

Now, even though there is a strong message here, I have absolute total confidence that my liberal colleagues and defenders of big government will ignore it. However, the message is clear: The people demand a complete overhaul of the IRS and real reform of our Tax Code and now is the time to act.

REPUBLICAN INACTION ON TOBACCO

(Mr. PALLONE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, this year Congress has been the do-nothing Congress. The Republican leadership sits idle while each day 3,000 children get hooked on tobacco products. Of those, 1,000 who start today will die early because of tobacco-related diseases. This is an epidemic that deserves congressional action now.

While the Republican leadership continues to cash in on big tobacco campaign contributions, Democrats today will roll out legislation that stops tobacco companies dead in their tracks from peddling their poison to children.

So far in this Congress we have managed to rename airports, post offices and public buildings. Congress needs to step up to the plate and pass tobacco legislation for America's children. The evidence is clear: Big tobacco has pushed their product onto children.

Democrats are fighting to prevent tobacco companies from this nasty habit. The Republican leadership would rather protect their special interest friends than protect the Nation's children from joining the tobacco ranks. The American people will not stand for this inaction.

CONGRESS MUST TAKE ACTION NOW TO STOP IRS ABUSE

(Mrs. CHENOWETH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. CHENOWETH. Mr. Speaker, I learned as a child from reading the Bible that tax collectors have never been popular, and that, I suspect, will never change. But I do not think that that can explain the growing hostility of more and more taxpayers towards the IRS.

Now, I know that our liberal friends will dismiss that out of hand, saying how easy it is to bash the IRS. But they demonstrate in doing this that once again they simply do not care how good decent American taxpayers are treated by the IRS. We were elected to care and to do something about this runaway agency.

The fact is people are unhappy with the IRS for a very good reason. There is clearly an abuse of power. I am talking about honest, average Americans facing an audit, who make an honest mistake and then are treated as criminals by the IRS, while the courts turn their back on the fact that these people deserve due process. Mr. Speaker, we must, in the Congress, do something about this abuse.

LOIS CAPPS WINS 22ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT ELECTION IN CALIFORNIA

(Mr. LEWIS of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LEWIS of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate my soon-to-be colleague, Lois Capps. Lois won an impressive victory in yesterday's special election in California's 22nd Congressional District. She won the election 53 percent to 45 percent with a margin of more than 12,000 votes.

The message from this special election is clear: The Democratic agenda, providing education opportunities, putting 100,000 new teachers in our classrooms, providing affordable and safe child care, access to health care and livable wages, is striking a responsive note with American voters.

Lois, we look forward to having you here in Congress working on the issues that people in your district and across the Nation really care about. Congratulations, Lois. We will see you soon.

PRESIDENT'S BUDGET DOES NOT AGREE WITH DECLARATION THAT ERA OF BIG GOVERNMENT IS OVER

(Mr. TIAHRT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Speaker, I often go home to my district and I ask my constituents: Is there any message for Washington? I would like to pass on some of the responses that I have been getting.

They say: Do not spend the surplus; do not bust the budget deal that you agreed to last summer; do not start any new government programs; do not create new entitlement programs; and do not add more people to Medicare until we first figure out how we are going to save Medicare from going bankrupt. Oh, yes, the big one is, do not raise taxes.

In fact, Mr. Speaker, I hear over and over again that the President's budget is going in the wrong direction because it does all those things that most people are opposed to: Taxes are raised by billions and billions of dollars, spending is increased by hundreds of billions of dollars, entitlements are expanded, and new spending programs are created. It simply does not agree with the President's declaration to the American people 2 years ago that the era of big government is over.

Mr. Speaker, the American people tell me that words mean something and that it is time that here in Washington we start honoring the pledges we make.

CONGRESS FACES HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY TO ACT ON TOBACCO-RELATED DISEASES AND CHILD CARE ISSUES

(Ms. DELAURO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, yesterday the President came to Connecticut and talked about the many challenges facing American parents as they try to raise happy and healthy children. On one hand there is an epidemic of teen smoking. Three thousand kids start smoking every day, a thousand of whom will die from tobacco-related illnesses.

On the other hand, there is an appalling lack of affordable and quality child care for working parents in this country. Multi-State studies have proven that nearly half of the care in this country for very young children is of such poor quality that it threatens their health and their safety.

Luckily, as the President said yesterday, we have a historic opportunity to act on both of these issues. By supporting tobacco legislation that stops this billion dollar special interest from killing our kids, we can make a difference.

We can save our children. We can save their lives and provide them with quality, affordable, accessible child care. I urge my colleagues to support our children and stop supporting the special interests.

PHONY SURPLUS WILL NOT END RAID ON GOVERNMENT TRUST FUNDS

(Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BARTLETT of Maryland. Mr. Speaker, just an aside. I understand that when the President was in Connecticut, that he was at a fundraiser at a tobacco lawyer's house.

Mr. Speaker, this is a riddle: If you are in debt but you balance your budget and have surpluses for 5 years in a row, at the end of that time will you owe more or less money? If you are an individual, you will owe less money. But if you are the Federal Government, you will owe more money, almost $1 trillion more between now and 2002.

How can this be? Here is the ugly truth. There is no budget surplus. The so-called budget surplus is a figment of clever Federal Government accounting. In 1988, the Congressional Budget Office, CBO, projects there will be a surplus of $8 billion and the national debt will be $5.5 trillion this year. In 2002, after 5 years of balanced budgets and surpluses, the national debt will be $6.4 trillion, almost $1 trillion more.

The national debt will grow because the Federal Government does not count the billions spent each year from government trust funds like Social Security. Clearly, there is no surplus and the budget, obviously, is not balanced.

ABUSES BY IRS REVEALED TO BE EVEN WORSE THAN FIRST THOUGHT

(Mr. HEFLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HEFLEY. Mr. Speaker, it is amazing what a little sunshine will do.

Political corruption, fraud, criminal activity and wrongdoing cannot operate in the light of day. When corrupt practices are opened up to public scrutiny, wrongdoers are held accountable for their actions.

The White House Travel Office abuse of power; the 900 FBI files of Republicans that were discovered; the entertaining of drug dealers and arms smugglers in the White House; the use of the Lincoln bedroom for fund-raising; dialing for dollars from the White House; the selling of trade missions to raise money; the laundering of money at a Buddhist temple; putting $25,000 price tags on White House coffees; returning over $2 million in campaign contributions because they came from illegal sources. All these were activities that were not conducted in the light of day and had to be exposed by journalists and congressional investigators.

And now we have the IRS. The abusive practices of the IRS, known to millions of individual Americans, began to be open to public scrutiny last year as a result of the Senate hearings. The first rays of sunshine are starting to come through, and the IRS looks even worse than we thought.

Free people cannot tolerate any of these abuses, at the White House or at the IRS.

THREE STRIKES AND YOU ARE OUT

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, we need a three-strikes-and-you-are-out law in Washington, and we can change this administration real quickly. And here is what I mean: Strike number one: 1990, the Congressional Bipartisan Budget deal broken by President Clinton; 1993, the President sets his own budget deal, broken in 1994 and 1995; now 1997, there was yet another deal, and Clinton is out to break it by $56 billion. Three strikes; you are out. That should be what we can do to turn the budget around and turn around our fiscal picture.

Our spending right now is $268 billion higher than during the Carter administration after you adjust it for inflation. Reagan cut the budget by 15 percent, and I am talking about domestic discretionary spending, but now it is up 23 percent over that. We are very proud that the budget is about to be balanced, but that is no excuse for continuing to spend. And that is what is going on.

Three strikes and you are out. Stick with your word, Mr. President. Let us surprise everybody.

DEVELOPMENT OF CRITICAL TELEVISION VIEWING SKILLS IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to bring another example of wasted Federal education tax dollars to your attention. Through the Department of Education, we funded an education study entitled, "The Development of Critical Television Viewing Skills in Elementary School Students."

Our kids do not need Federal assistance to watch television to develop,
