

So once a determination is made that we want to get this work completed, then we will go back to it. But until the Senate indicates a willingness to stay focused and we get a little cooperation and don't have a filibuster fight and a cloture vote on every bill, then it will just have to come up later because I do have Members on both sides of the aisle asking me to delay it. And yet I have tried to go forward with it because I thought it was the right thing to do, and I am willing always to try to do the right thing for our country but not if everybody else is going to be playing games.

So we will just go with this schedule and hopefully next week with cooperation we can complete the Coverdell education savings account bill, the supplemental appropriations, NATO enlargement perhaps even, and then turn to the budget resolution next. Hope springs eternal. I hope it will apply to next week.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY,
MARCH 23, 1998

Mr. LOTT. With that, Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 1:40 p.m., adjourned until Monday, March 23, 1998, at 12 noon.
