

Thursday of a heart attack at his Santa Fe home. He was 73.

A memorial service will be held at St. Francis Auditorium on March 27 at 6 p.m.

Graybeal, who had more than 40 years of experience in arms control, intelligence, and national security, in 1994 was appointed to the Defense Policy Board by Secretary of Defense William Perry.

At the time of his death, he was a chief scientist for Science Applications International Corp.

Born in Butler, Tenn., Graybeal was a B-29 pilot during World War II and flew 32 missions over Japan. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross and other decorations for his military service.

After the war, he joined the CIA and was responsible for analysis of all foreign missile and space programs. During the 1962 missile crisis, Graybeal was the first person to inform President John F. Kennedy of the presence of Soviet missiles in Cuba.

Graybeal was recently filmed by the BBC for a documentary on the Cold War.

He also served in the State Department in the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency and was a member of the negotiating team for the Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT)-I agreements.

He helped negotiate the Anti-Ballistic Missile (ABM) Treaty and was appointed as the first U.S. commissioner of the Standing Consultative Commission, the body that administered the ABM treaty.

In 1980, Graybeal received the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service from President Carter.

In Santa Fe, Graybeal was on the board of the Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia McFate; his son Douglas of Aspen, Colo.; his daughter, Joan Graybeal Menard of Annandale, Va.; and two grandchildren, Katrina and Steven Menard.●

NASHUA LIONS CLUB 75 YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE

● Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate the Nashua Lions Club for devoting over 75 years to humanitarian acts of public service. I commend their fervent passion and aggressive dedication to improving the quality of life for fellow Americans. They have touched the lives of many through gifts of hope and continued support through countless charitable endeavors.

I am proud to know many of the members in the Nashua Lions Club. I recently had the opportunity to address the club, and enjoyed the time I spent with them. They are great men who live by their motto of "We Serve," and give others the chance to better their lives.

The Nashua Lions Club was started in 1923 by a small group of businessmen led by William Hillman, Jr., and former Mayor Alvin Lucier. It became the first club in District 44-H and remains the second oldest Lions Club in New Hampshire. As a result of their foresight, these businessmen started a tradition of service and benevolence still exemplified today.

The Nashua Lions Club has kept this 75-year old legacy alive by raising money and funding organizations like the Lions Sight and Hearing Foundation, Lions Eye Clinic and Lions Diabetes Awareness Programs. Also, major building projects have been realized like the "Friendship Club," for the handicapped and "Melanie's Room," for multiple handicapped young girls.

Over the years, the Lions Club has raised over $750,000. Its members continue to develop new and innovative ways to invest that money back into the community. The above mentioned groups are just a few of the wonderful organizations for which the Nashua Lions Club have spent countless hours and dedicated service. This impressive list goes on and they should be very proud of these contributions. Mr. President, I want to congratulate the Nashua Lions Club for their outstanding work over the past three-quarters of a century. I am proud to represent them in the U.S. Senate.●

NORTHERN STATE UNIVERSITY MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM MAKES IT TO THE NCAA DIVISION II ELITE EIGHT TOURNAMENT

● Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. President, I want to take this opportunity today to recognize an extraordinary group of young athletes from Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota. The Northern State University Men's Basketball Team won the 1998 NCAA Division II North Central Regional Basketball Championship held on Sunday, March 8, 1998 in Brookings, South Dakota. In a battle of South Dakota basketball powers, NSU took charge in the final minute to win a hard-fought victory over South Dakota State University. The NSU Wolves, with a 27-5 record, ended the season in a close 67-63 loss to Virginia Union University in the 1998 NCAA Division II Elite Eight Tournament.

The athletes that made this great season happen include Scott Hanson, Jared Miller, Todd Schlekeway, Ryan Miller, Kyle Johnson, Dan Fischer, Jim Sumption, Jake Phillips, Ross Pankratz, Dustin Undlin, Mark Rich, Ben Dahl, Jeff Rich, Andy Foster and Brad Hansen. Their coaches include: Bob Olson, Mike Hultz, Brad Christenson, Craig Smith and Kent Leiss. Team Managers are Joe Flynn and Justin Forde. The NSU strength coach is Doug Bull, and the training staff is directed by Lisa McIntyre. The NSU Wolves cheerleaders are Jennifer Eye, Tonya Bird, Jackie Hortes, Jaine Fauth, Erica Paulson, Gary Olson along with advisor Susan Rozell.

I want to commend Coach Olson for providing outstanding leadership to the NSU team, and I also want to compliment Ryan Miller on his contribution of 45 points in the regional championship game.

The State of South Dakota has much to be proud of in this accomplishment. I again want to congratulate all of these fine young athletes from Northern State University, and to all the many others who contributed to this outstanding accomplishment.●

TRIBUTE TO FRANK A. GERMACK, JR.

● Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise to pay homage to Frank A. Germack, of Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan. Mr. Germack, who ran his family's business in Detroit's historic Eastern Market passed away recently. Although Frank is gone, his legacy will live on throughout the Detroit community.

The family business, the Germack Pistachio Co., was founded in 1924 by Mr. Germack's father. Considered to be the oldest pistachio importing company in the country, Germack Pistachio Co. eventually expanded to include a full line of nut products. After graduating from Fordham University and the Detroit College of Law, Frank began working at the family business in 1961. Frank contributed greatly to the success of his family's company. For example, through his leadership in the Executive International Advisory Board, Frank helped expand the cashew crop to countries such as Guatemala and Indonesia.

According to Frank's son, "The business was his life." Up until the time he passed away, he was actively involved in making the company run as efficiently as possible. In addition to working at the company, Frank enjoyed boating on Lake St. Clair, listening to classical music and jazz, and contributing to his community. He was active within many organizations such as the Detroit Rotary, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and United Way. He was also an active member of St. Paul's Catholic Church in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan. Despite his tireless dedication to his company and the causes that were important to him, he remained deeply committed to his family. He was a wonderful husband to his wife, Stephanie, father to his son Frank III and daughter Suzanne Gregory Frederickson, and grandfather to Olivia Frederickson.

During this difficult time, my thoughts and prayers go out to Frank Germack's family and friends.●

POSITION ON VOTE NO. 39

● Mr. KERREY. Mr. President, due to an unavoidable delay in my travel, I missed yesterday's rollcall vote number 39. Had I been present, I would have voted against tabling that amendment.●

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25, 1998

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until the hour of 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, March 25, and immediately following the prayer the routine requests through the morning hour be granted and the Senate resume consideration of S. 1768, the emergency supplemental appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, on behalf of the leader, it is his intention tomorrow that the Senate will resume consideration of the emergency supplemental appropriations bill with the hope of concluding action on that bill early Wednesday.

As a reminder to all Members, the second cloture vote on H.R. 2646, the Coverdell A+ education bill, was postponed this evening and will occur at a time to be determined by the majority leader. As always, all Members will be notified as to when that vote will occur. It is still hoped that an agreement can be worked out for an orderly handling of that bill. Therefore, tomorrow Members can anticipate a busy day of floor activity on the emergency supplemental appropriations bill as well as the Coverdell education bill. In addition, the Senate may consider any executive or legislative items cleared for action.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I seek to inquire whether there is any Member seeking time in morning business. I don't see anyone. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:48 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, March 25, 1998, at 9:30 a.m.
