

Thursday, March 26, 1998, and that immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted, and the Senate resume consideration of S. 1768, the emergency supplemental appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, I further ask unanimous consent that the vote occur on or in relation to the Enzi amendment at 10:50 a.m.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, tomorrow the Senate will resume consideration of the emergency supplemental appropriations bill with the 50 minutes remaining on the Enzi amendment to begin at 10 a.m. Following the vote on that amendment, the leader anticipates final action on the IMF amendment No. 2100, which would therefore leave the Nickles HCFA amendment and the others on the leader's list as the only outstanding issues remaining before the concluding action on the emergency supplemental appropriations bill.

As a reminder to all Members, the second cloture vote on H.R. 2646, the Coverdell A+ education bill, was postponed and could occur at a time to be determined by the majority leader if an agreement cannot be reached. As always, all Members will be notified as to when that vote will occur. It is still hoped that an agreement can be worked out.

Also, the Senate can be expected to consider the Mexico decertification bill, which under the statute has a limitation of 10 hours. Therefore, votes will occur throughout Thursday's session of the Senate, with the first vote occurring at 10:50 a.m. on Thursday.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:33 p.m., adjourned until Thursday, March 26, 1998, at 9:30 a.m.
