HONORING THE GILLMINGS ON THEIR 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. ASHCROFT. Madam President, families are the cornerstone of America. The data are undeniable: Individuals from strong families contribute to the society. In an era when nearly half of all couples married today will see their union dissolve into divorce, I believe it is both instructive and important to honor those who have taken the commitment of "till death us do part" seriously, demonstrating successfully the timeless principles of love, honor, and fidelity. These characteristics make our country strong.

Pastor and Mrs. Gillming's dedication to one another has spilled over into the lives of many. For forty years, they have served together at the Cherry Street Baptist Church in Springfield, Missouri. Norma and Ken have led their congregation by example through their commitment to one another, as well as their commitment to the community.

For these important reasons, I rise today to honor Norma and Ken Gillming of Springfield, Missouri, who on May 21, 1998, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. My wife, Janet, and I look forward to the day we can celebrate a similar milestone. The Gillming's commitment to the principles and values of their marriage deserves to be saluted and recognized.
