CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

HON. RON KIND

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 22, 1998

Mr. KIND. Mr. Speaker, today is a great day for supporters of campaign finance reform. It appears that after long last the leadership of the House of Representatives has agreed to allow an open, honest debate on campaign finance reform. The will of the people has overtaken the reluctance of the leadership in this crucial debate.

I began delivering a daily statement on campaign finance reform after the House failed to pass legislation by July 4th of 1997. That was the date the President challenged Congress to pass comprehensive reform. Since I began my daily statements I have received overwhelming encouragement from the people of western Wisconsin who have told me that Congress must do something about the big money in politics. I am pleased that the leadership has finally given in to the demands of a majority of the members of the House who have advocated for real campaign finance reform.

This struggle is not over yet. We have received false promises before. I will continue to remind the leadership of their promise to allow an open and fair debate until that promise is kept.

I am pleased that the base bill for debate will be H.R. 2183, the Bipartisan Campaign Integrity Act. This is a bipartisan bill, worked out among freshman members the House. The freshman bill is an honest effort to craft a bill that will take the big money out of politics and give our elections back to the people. I hope the House passes this bill.

I thank the leadership for agreeing to end their stalling tactics and allow an open honest debate on campaign finance reform.

HONORING THE BAILEY-RICHMAN VFW POST'S 50TH YEAR

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 22, 1998

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, permit me to take this opportunity to recognize the 50th anniversary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Bailey-Richman Post No. 9588 in Monticello, New York. This VFW Post has been an invaluable asset to Sullivan County, assisting the veterans of our region and our nation as a whole.

The VFW Post No. 9588 was chartered April 4, 1948 in the memory of Erwin Richman and Ralph Bailey, both of whom lost their lives fighting for our nation in World War II. The Post, founded in the spirit of patriotism and honor, has fulfilled its legacy with dedication and hard work. It has served as a spiritual as well as a civic guide for the Sullivan County community. The Post's 28 Charter Life Members, 80 regular members, 44 Life Members and the 25 Past Commanders are all leading examples of bravery and selflessness. Their sacrifice to preserve America's principles and ethics have helped to ensure a new and promising future for all Americans.

Since 1899 the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has fought for and protected veteran's rights. Their importance is undeniable, having assisted the concerns of Veteran's across the nation. Today, the Veterans of the Foreign Wars actively petitioned government to bring about beneficial change. The Bailey-Richman Post No. 9588 has supported the national effort as well as working with the community members to make a better life for our veterans.

In the ongoing effort to improve health care for our Veterans in the Hudson Valley Region, the V.F.W. has been indispensable. The Veterans of Foreign Wars has recognized the desperate need to improve the health care of our Veterans. Through their diligent and tireless efforts, the V.F.W. has exposed and highlighted the need for improved Veteran health care.

Mr. Speaker, I invite my colleagues to join with me in recognizing the fifty remarkable years of service of the Bailey-Richman Post No. 9588 and their contributions to our communities and our nation.

EARTH DAY

HON. DANNY K. DAVIS

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 22, 1998

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, in honor of Earth Day 1998, I challenge Congress to join with me in better protecting our children's health and leaving our children a legacy of protected natural resources.

Over the last 25 years, this country has made enormous progress on environmental protection. The health of American children has improved because (1) We have made significant progress in cleaning up the air our children breathe; (2) We have made significant progress in cleaning up our lakes and rivers in which our children swim, boat and fish; and (3) We have made significant progress on cleaning up the toxic waste sites around which millions of our children live. However, we still have a long way to go in order to protect and preserve our nation's natural resources so that your children and mine can enjoy its beauty and benefits tomorrow. Thus, I believe we need to recognize that it is not a question of whether we can afford to protect the environment, rather it is a question of whether we can afford not to.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure that this year's budget provides funding to Restore clean water to our communities; Accelerate and make polluters pay for toxic waste clean up; and protect our national parks, wildlife refuges, and national forests.

EARTH DAY AND ELSMERE CANYON

HON. HOWARD P. "BUCK" McKEON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, April 22, 1998

Mr. McKEON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to discuss a very significant environmental issue: Elsmere Canyon. I find it particularly appropriate that I am afforded the opportunity to speak today, Earth Day, on a subject that is important not just to me, but also to the community that I represent.

Let me provide a brief history on this matter, Mr. Speaker. Before coming to Congress, I had the honor of serving as the first mayor of the City of Santa Clarita, which was incorporated in 1987. While in that capacity, a situation came to my attention that galvanized our community. A solid waste disposal company had proposed building a landfill using a portion of the Angeles National Forest known as Elsmere Canyon. If approved, the largest landfill in the United States—with a capacity of 190-million tons—would have been constructed in Elsmere Canyon.

In the early 1980's Los Angeles County's population boomed. At the same time, many small landfills were closed without any alternative measure to deal with the increased
