ORDERS FOR FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1998
Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today it stand in adjournment until 10 a.m. on Friday, July 31, 1998, that when the Senate reconvenes on Friday, immediately following the prayer, the routine requests through the morning hour be granted and the Senate then begin a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak up to 5 minutes each.

Mr. JEFFORDS. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM
Mr. JEFFORDS. For the information of all Senators, when the Senate reconvenes on Friday, there will be a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 5 minutes each. The Senate may also consider any executive or legislative items that may be cleared for action. The majority leader has announced there will be no rollcall votes during Friday’s session and would like to thank all Members for their cooperation this week and wishes them a restful and productive August break.

If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask that
