

If it is not but one thing we can remember, and that is that we must all contribute something to make this country a better world, a better life for our children, for all Americans.

Let me thank the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON), the gentleman on the other side of the aisle, my dear friend, and all who played a tremendous part in bringing these outstanding Americans to the floor. To give them a Congressional Medal of Honor would be the highest mark of saying thank you.

To Betty Ford and all the others who will be receiving one, we congratulate them as well.

Mr. THOMPSON. Madam Speaker, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from Houston, Texas (Ms. JACKSON-LEE).

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Madam Speaker, let me thank the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON), one, for his leadership on this issue, and thank my good friends on the other side of the aisle, this has been a collaborative effort; and certainly my colleagues from Arkansas because this is clearly a mark on America's landscape that shares with us the heroics of young people and what they say to America.

This is my tribute to the Little Rock Nine. All of those nine African American students who integrated Central High School in 1957 went on to become college graduates. This is a testimony for America's children. This is certainly a testimony for our African American children of what we can do when we face adversity. And I believe as these young people faced adversity, they opened the eyes of America to excellence, to the value of integration, the value of understanding, the value of commonality, the value of humanity.

All of these members moved away except one, Elizabeth Eckford, who came back, but what is striking is how successful they were.

So I want to pay tribute to them as they have received the Congressional Medal of Honor and to recognize these individuals by name:

Melba Beals, Elizabeth Eckford, Ernest Green, Jefferson Thomas, Gloria Karlmark, Carlotta Walls LaNier, Terrence Roberts, Minnie Jean Brown Trickey, Thelma Mothershed Wair, and certainly to all their family members. We thank them on behalf of America for accepting the challenge that this Nation cannot stand divided.

And might I also congratulate the Jackie Robinson Foundation and family for what this legislation will do for that program as well.

Again, my hat is off to these great heroes of America.

Mr. THOMPSON. Madam Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. LUCAS of Oklahoma. Madam Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. FOX).

Mr. FOX of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise to support H.R. 2560. This is certainly legislation which is bipartisan. We thank the sponsor, the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON), for introducing the bill, certainly congratulate him for his efforts in this regard and to have this kind of legislation move forward.

The Congressional Gold Medals is certainly fitting and proper in all respects, and certainly one that is appropriate, and I rise and ask that it be unanimously adopted, and I hope that my colleagues will agree that this is legislation that is universal, appropriate and certainly about time.

Mr. LUCAS of Oklahoma. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

First of all, I would like to say thank you to the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON) for his efforts to bring this about. It is a very onerous process to work through to have one of these bills become law. It requires many signatures and much effort, and he has shown himself to be truly dedicated to the effort by making this happen.

Second, let me say that this is a wonderful and appropriate reason to strike such a gold medal. When we consider the efforts of these then brave young men and women in 1957 to go places and do things literally in Little Rock that had not been done before, it cannot be understated the danger that they were physically in, the emotional stress that they went through to take that step in the right direction for all of us. They did their part to make this country a better place, to enhance the quality of life and opportunities for everyone in this country, and that is very much deserving of this high honor.

But let me also say for a moment or take a moment to express my appreciation to the chairman of this subcommittee, the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. CASTLE). Most likely this is the last piece of legislation that will come to the floor from the Subcommittee on Domestic and International Monetary Policy of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services of the U.S. House. Mr. CASTLE, that I have had the privilege of serving under as a member of this committee for now almost 4 years, has worked diligently in a variety of areas. There have been many concerns among those coin collectors out there in days gone by over how various commemorative programs were handled and how various expenses were affecting the United States Treasury. Mr. CASTLE has worked diligently to bring some rhyme or reason, some sanity to all of those programs. So he is owed in that right a huge debt of gratitude by all of us.

Of course Mr. Flake, the ranking member at the beginning of this session of Congress, and now the gentlewoman from California (Ms. WATERS), the ranking member on the subcommittee at the conclusion, have worked their part also, but I must say to the gentleman from Delaware (Mr.

CASTLE), the progress that he has begun in this subcommittee of winning back the faith of those coin collectors out there who we all know are the main source of purchasers of the various numismatic items that we offer from the United States Treasury as a result of many of these pieces of legislation, have to have those issues and concerns addressed.

So with that I thank the gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. THOMPSON) for his efforts, thank those brave, maybe not quite as young now as they were 40 years ago, young men and women who took those brave and bold steps to make this country, this world, a better place for all of us and for the generations that will come after them.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

□ 1900

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. EMERSON). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. CASTLE) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2560, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The title of the bill was amended so as to read: "A bill to authorize the President to award gold medals to Jean Brown Trickey, Carlotta Walls LaNier, Melba Patillo Beals, Terrence Roberts, Gloria Ray Karlmark, Thelma Mothershed Wair, Ernest Green, Elizabeth Eckford, and Jefferson Thomas, commonly referred to collectively as the 'Little Rock Nine,' and for other purposes."

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oklahoma?

There was no objection.
