TREASURY AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1999—CONFERENCE REPORT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the conference report. The legislative clerk read as follows:

The committee on conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 4104), have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses this report, signed by a majority of the conferees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of the conference report.

(The conference report is printed in the House proceedings of the RECORD of October 7, 1998.)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The distinguished majority leader.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, I know there is a lot of interest in trying to determine what the schedule will be for the balance of the day and perhaps even the weekend.

It is obvious because of the feelings of the Senator from Nevada, Senator REID, with regard to the Treasury and Postal Service appropriations conference report, that he does not intend to allow the Senate to have a vote on the conference report itself anytime soon.

Therefore, as we approach the end of this session, we will probably have a vote, if we can get some accommodation here—I think we may—within a couple of hours, on or in relation to the bankruptcy bill. So we should expect another recorded vote in about 2 hours. We will need, hopefully, to get that locked in here in the next few minutes. The main point is we will have one more vote.

Then, other than unanimous consent requests or voice votes, the only votes we would expect for the balance of this year would be on a continuing resolution, if necessary, and the omnibus appropriations bill.

Now, I will need to confer further with Senator DASCHLE. We will certainly keep Members informed as to what the schedule may be. Negotiations are continuing with regard to all of the different issues that are pending on the omnibus appropriations bill. We expect to work this weekend. We hope we will have this completed to possibly vote on Monday. If that is not possible, we will let Members know as soon as some determination is made. For now, we will expect a vote in a couple of hours, and then we would go to the vote on the bankruptcy bill. That would be it as far as recorded votes for tonight.

Mr. DASCHLE. Will the majority leader will yield?

Mr. LOTT. Yes.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I have been getting questions about what our intentions are with regard to a new CR. My understanding is that we would be contemplating a CR that would take us at least through Monday.

Mr. LOTT. That's correct. We have discussed that with administration officials this morning. They indicated that they understood it was just a physical problem in terms of getting final agreements and getting paperwork ready, and a short-term CR would be no problem from their viewpoint. I discussed that with you. We anticipate a CR that would take us until Monday at midnight. So there would be no question that we are still working, and there is no threat of a Government shutdown, while we continue to count on our appropriators to do their work, and we hope to get it completed this weekend.

Mr. LEAHY. Will the leader yield for a question?

Mr. LOTT. Yes.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I tell my friend from Mississippi, we have on the calendar 22 Federal judges pending, plus another 5 or 6 court of claims. Can the distinguished leader give us any advice on what might happen?

Mr. LOTT. I have been working diligently to get some of the more controversial judges done. We did have a couple votes. I was trying to get Paez done today. The time is going to be consumed by reading the Treasury/Postal Service conference report and now the appearance of having to read the Bankruptcy Reform conference report. So that has been pushed aside. I tried to move three nominations last night. It was objected to. We are in the usual last days of the session where everybody is holding this one on the basis of that one. I think where we are is, over the next few days as we make progress, if we can get agreements on some things, then we will probably get agreements on all things. They are all interrelated. We will have to see how that plays out.

Mr. LEAHY. I am prepared to pray and consult with the distinguished leader.

Mr. LOTT. I appreciate that attitude of the Senator from Vermont. He has been very helpful, and he continues to remind me of the need for these judges.

Mr. CRAIG. Will the leader yield for a moment?

Mr. LOTT. Yes.

BIRTHDAY WISHES FOR SENATOR LOTT

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, on behalf of all of us here on the floor and all colleagues here in the Senate, we know this is a stressful day. It should actually be a joyful day for Senator LOTT. It is his birthday and we wish him a happy birthday.

[Applause.]

Mr. LOTT. Thank you all very much. It is a joyful day. I resented when Senator DASCHLE came over and told me he was only about 50, reminding me of his youth. Then Senator STROM THURMOND welcomed me into his range of age. I don't know quite what that meant. Actually, in spite of all the things we have working, it has been a great day. Actually, I enjoy every day here and I appreciate the friendship of all of you on both sides of the aisle.

Mr. BUMPERS. Mr. President, not to be the skunk at the lawn party, but that reminds me of a story I feel like I have to share with you. Recently, in the caucus, Senator DASCHLE announced the birthdays of three Senators that would occur in the ensuing week. He named them, and JOHN GLENN was one of them, and I forget the other two. BARBARA MIKULSKI was one. Everybody applauded, and I turned to Senator TORRICELLI and said, "Isn't it strange that we applaud birthdays in this country?" He said, "It is an American anachronism that we applaud the march toward death."

Mr. LOTT. Was that supposed to be humorous?

Mr. DODD. Will the leader yield?

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I yield to Senator DODD for a question.

Mr. DODD. Mr. Leader, I don't want to disrupt your birthday, but I have a unanimous-consent request I want to make at an appropriate time, which I suspect the majority will object to. I want to be able to do it before we move on to the next order of business. I don't know the plan here.

Mr. LOTT. If we could complete comments on this, and then you will have an opportunity to do that. You have put me on notice, but let us try to do this.

Mr. BYRD. Will the leader yield to me?

Mr. LOTT. I am delighted to yield to Senator BYRD.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I was listening to the debate going on on the
