

Minnesota and the Dakotas. It was during her tenure at the Jewish Community Relations Council that I had the good fortune to work with Marcia. At that time, the Soviet government was actively oppressing people of Jewish faith. Marcia and I worked together to secure the emigration of Soviet Jews and the reunification of families in the Twin Cities. Her spirit and dedication to the cause was truly remarkable.

Shortly after Yugend's passing, the Nobel Peace Prize Laureate Archbishop Desmond Tutu made his first trip to the Twin Cities to inaugurate the first Immortal Chaplains Prize for Humanity. The Humanity prize is given as a living memorial to the Immortal Four Chaplains—a Jewish Rabbi, a Catholic Priest and two Protestant Ministers—who courageously rescued an estimated 230 men from drowning in the sinking of the U.S. Army Transport Dorchester during World War II. The Archbishop's historic visit to Twin Cities in celebration of those who have fought to protect others of a different race or religion underlined exactly the type of service and dedication Yugend put forth and could be a fitting tribute to her life and her tireless commitment to promoting interfaith understanding. Although her boundless energy cannot be replaced, her spirit will live on through those she inspired.

Yugend is survived by her husband, Jerome Yugend, daughters Dana Yugend-Pepper of Minneapolis and Julie Yugend-Green of Oak Park, Illinois and five grandchildren.

CELEBRATING THE 81ST ANNIVERSARY OF LITHUANIAN INDEPENDENCE

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 81st anniversary of the declaration of Lithuanian independence.

For nearly 55 years, Lithuania was occupied by Soviet military forces. But in the past six years, the people of Lithuania have been able to finally enjoy and celebrate the freedoms and privileges of an independent nation.

The United States and Lithuania have now formed a significant partnership between our leaders, our governments, and our people. We have close trade relations with Lithuania. We are mutually committed to the security of the Baltic region.

I believe we can say with great confidence that Lithuania has become a full partner in the effort to build democracy and promote freedom around the world. I am proud to say that Lithuania has "graduated" from the U.S. program to build democracy in Eastern Europe.

I commend the Lithuanian-American community for their perseverance and hope through the many challenging decades. The 81st anniversary of Lithuanian independence was celebrated by the Lithuanian-American community in Southeast Michigan on Sunday, February 7th, at the Lithuanian Cultural Center in Southfield.

I urge my colleagues to join me in honoring Lithuania's independence.

TRIBUTE TO GABRIELLA QUIRINO

HON. CARRIE P. MEEK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to pay tribute to an outstanding citizen of Florida's 17th Congressional District, Gabriella Quirino, who has helped hundreds of breast cancer victims in Dade County.

Gabriella Quirino was born in Tunisia, North Africa, in 1941. Miami, Florida, became her home during the mid-1950's. In 1960, she graduated from North Miami High School and furthered her education at Miami Dade Community College.

In 1981, Gabriella was diagnosed with breast cancer and underwent successful surgery. A year later, she became a "reach to recover" volunteer for the American Cancer Society. From that time on, she has devoted her life to helping women cope with the trauma of mastectomies or other breast cancer surgeries. She is a true humanitarian.

Through hard work and dedication, Gabriella Quirino became the coordinator of the county service group, "Volunteers". In this position she helped women in the Miami-North Dade area deal with their mastectomies and other breast surgeries. She has also been the coordinator of another community service group called "Getting Mothers To Volunteer," which is based at St. Rose Lima School, and now serves as president of the parent's council at Archbishop Curley High School.

Gabriella has demonstrated a strong character and has devoted countless hours to the American Cancer Society. She has provided comfort to countless women faced with one of the most traumatic experiences of their lives—breast cancer.

I ask that my colleagues please join with me in acknowledging this outstanding individual.

IN HONOR OF BRENDA SESSIONS COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, PROBATE COURT DIVISION

HON. STEPHANIE TUBBS JONES

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mrs. JONES of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, for over 28 years, couples seeking a license to marry in Cuyahoga County have likely encountered Brenda Sessions, Judge John Donnelly's nominee. Starting as a deputy clerk, Brenda now supervises this important office which, in addition, to issuing marriage licenses, corrects birth records and assists genealogists seeking family documents.

A Cleveland Heights resident and the mother of Myah, she prides herself in following her mother's advice to work hard, be self-sufficient and to help others. She only regrets that her mother failed to teach her how to cook.

Brenda is a life-long member of Morning Star Baptist Church and has been active in many of that church's programs. During her daughter's attendance at Christ the King School, she served on the Parent Executive Board. She enjoys her collection of porcelain elephants (a symbol of good luck), reads, listens to gospel and jazz music, attends movies and theatrical events, plays racquetball and rides.

Among the many, many marriage license applications Brenda has prepared, with both bride and groom present, she remembers, with amusement, two particular instances. In one, a woman admitted to four prior marriages and denied the Court's apparent record of an additional three marriages. Her groom left, and that couple was never seen again. In another, a rather aged groom, accompanied by a young intended bride, denied the existence of a much earlier marriage which the Court's records revealed, but mysteriously knew the last name of the bride in the earlier marriage, when Brenda had only mentioned the first name.

TO PERMANENTLY EXTEND THE EXCEPTION FROM SUBPART F FOR ACTIVE FINANCING INCOME

HON. RICHARD E. NEAL

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 9, 1999

Mr. NEAL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to associate myself with the remarks of my colleague, Mr. MCCRERY. Today, Mr. MCCRERY and I are introducing legislation to permanently extend the exception from subpart F for active financing income earned from overseas business. The growing interdependence of world financial markets has highlighted the need to rationalize U.S. tax rules that undermine the ability of our financial services industry—such as banks, insurance companies, insurance brokers, and securities firms—to compete in the international arena.

The provision permits financial services to act like other U.S. industries doing business abroad and defer tax on the earnings from the active operation of their foreign subsidiaries until such earnings are returned to the United States. The permanent extension of this provision takes an important step towards making the U.S. financial services industry more competitive in international markets.

I urge my colleagues to support this legislation and to address this issue prior to the expiration of the temporary provision.
