

HONORING GENES THOMPSON

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I want to recognize the unique community service of Genes Thompson.

Genes, a native of Greenville, North Carolina, has lived in the East New York community for the past 20 years with her husband, Dwight and their son, Anthony. As an East New York resident, she has devoted a great deal of her time to helping the community to be a better place in which to live. For example, Genes has been a member of the 76th Precinct Community Council since 1980 where her efforts and devotion has been instrumental in uplifting her community.

The Metropolitan Jewish Geriatric Center has employed Genes for the last 25 years as its Chief Switchboard Operator. She is also a shop delegate for Local 1199, 144 division for the past 19 years. In addition to these daily responsibilities, she is an active member of Liberty Baptist Church where she serves on the Pastor's Aid Committee as well as working with staff of Thomas Jefferson High school. Genes' civic activism includes membership in the Milford Street Block Association and work as a volunteer with the political campaigns of Senator CHARLES SCHUMER and New York State Comptroller Carl McCall.

I commend the achievements of Genes Thompson, a true community activist, to the attention of my colleagues.

HONORING MR. CHANCY WHEELER
OF WEST UNION, OHHON. ROB PORTMAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to a distinguished resident of West Union, OH, in the Second Congressional District, Mr. Chancy Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler will turn 100 years old on June 5, and he is being honored by the Government of France for his military service in the First World War.

Mr. Wheeler was born in 1899 in Mount Olivet, KY. He volunteered for the Kentucky National Guard, and then transferred into the United States Army in 1917. As a member of the First Infantry Division, 28th Regiment, First Machine Gun Brigade, he served in 1918 in the Aisne-Marne offensive, the St. Michiel offensive, and the Meuse-Argonne offensive. He was wounded twice in battle. For his actions, he received the Silver Star medal on July 21, 1918. He also received a 75th Anniversary Commemorative Medal for World War I veterans from the U.S. Army.

Mr. Wheeler will receive the French Legion of Honor in a ceremony organized by VFW Post 3400 in West Union, OH, on March 12. In his letter conveying the Legion of Honor to Mr. Wheeler, French Ambassador Bujon de l'Estang wrote: "The Legion of Honor is conferred on you by the French government as a sign of the high esteem my country has for you who personally contributed to the decisive support the United States gave to French soldiers in the defense of their country during World War I."

Chancy Wheeler distinguished himself in the struggle to "make the world safe for democracy" and served his country with honor. All of us in the Second Congressional District are grateful for his service and commend him on his recognition by the French Government. I wish him health and happiness in the years to come.

TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM "SONNY" RESSELHON. ANTHONY D. WEINER

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. WEINER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to invite my colleagues to pay tribute to the memory of William (Sonny) Ressel.

Sonny Ressel was neither a politician nor someone who took on the responsibility of helping others because of some ulterior motive. Despite working long hours, Sonny Ressel always found time for his family and the community that he loved.

Before his untimely death on February 8th, Sonny Ressel served as the Co-President of the New Kensington Neighborhood Association where he strove to improve his neighbor's quality of life.

Sonny Ressel was a man of action who dedicated his life to helping others regardless of who they were. Through his efforts, broken streets and traffic lights in Kensington were quickly repaired. In response to a growth in the number of hearing impaired residents in the community, Sonny secured the installation of "Deaf People Crossing" signs alerting motorists that some pedestrians would be unable to hear their horns.

With his loving wife Ricki, Sonny Ressel helped the old and the infirm of our community. They did this by making people laugh and reminding them that they were not forgotten.

Friends and admirers have likened Sonny Ressel to an angel who was put on earth to help others and to spread happiness. I can think of no better tribute for a man who always rose to the challenge of helping meet the needs of others.

Sonny Ressel was an innovator and beacon of good will to all those he came into contact with. On behalf of myself and my constituents, I would like to extend my condolences to the Ressel family on Sonny's untimely passing and to thank them for allowing us to share in the bright light that was his life.

TRIBUTE TO HOPE EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP FUNDHON. LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Mr. Speaker, on March 12, 1999, Hispanas Organized for Political Equality (HOPE) Education and Leadership Fund's Eighth Annual Symposium, entitled "A Proud Past . . . A Powerful Tomorrow," will take place in the 33rd Congressional District. In honor of this important event, I am proclaiming March 12, 1999, as Latina History Day.

The Symposium serves to address a variety of issues important to Latinas of all ages. I am pleased that Latinas benefit from the workshops on health, business opportunities, and cultural identity. This Symposium also includes Teen Track, which focuses on providing young Latinas with workshops on leadership and on establishing a path to success.

Since its founding in 1989, the HOPE Education and Leadership Fund has remained dedicated to improving the educational, political and economic status of Latinas. HOPE has anchored itself by the principle that knowledge of the political process coupled with active participation will guarantee a more representative, democratic government.

The proclamation of Latina History Day during "Women's History Month" memorializes the important role Latinas play in American society. Latinas are breaking glass ceilings and pioneering into areas our mothers never imagined. Latinas own businesses, are executives in our country's largest corporations, are being elected to public office and appointed to powerful positions. We recognize the work and sacrifices of our mothers and grandmothers, celebrate contemporary Latinas, and are building the foundation for future generations.

I commend the HOPE Education and Leadership Fund for their commitment to Latinas, and in their honor, proclaim March 12, 1999, as Latina History Day.

TRIBUTE TO KARNEY HODGE

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Karney Hodge for his many years of service to the community. Mr. Hodge has been a dedicated public servant and successful businessman.

Karney is an investment banker and vice president of Salomon Smith Barney and has spent his life in service to the community, initially as a volunteer. Hodge most recently worked as a financier of projects aimed at improving the facilities that Fresno is able to offer to its residents.

Hodge was an avid baseball player in his college days at California State University, Fresno. He seriously considered playing professionally, but he eventually left college to become a partner in the family clothing store, Hodge and Sons. He still played baseball and got his first taste of public service from an avid fan. In the 1960's Mayor Selland of Fresno, appointed Hodge to the planning commission, sparking Karney's interest in public service.

In 1982 Governor George Deukmejian was looking to involve members of the private sector in agencies like Retail Development and Planning. State Senator Ken Maddy surmised that Hodge's background in retail and long history of community service made him a perfect candidate for such a position. In 1983 Hodge and his wife Marilyn relocated to Sacramento and he embarked on his second career, Executive Director of the California Housing Finance Agency. Karney built a structure for the young agency by bringing in the best people.

Under his leadership the agency became a major provider of housing to residents of California and is considered one of the highlights of Governor Deukmejian's term. Today Hodge is a vice president at Salomon Smith Barney.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Karney Hodge on his remarkable service to the community. Mr. Hodge has served well in both the public and private sector. I urge my colleagues to join me in thanking Karney Hodge for a job well done and wishing him many years of continued success.

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the work of Emilia Conolly, a committed health professional in the borough of Brooklyn.

Emilia is a native of Honduras who immigrated to the United States over 20 years ago. She was educated in the New York City public schools, including Ft. Presently, she specializes in nursing care of critically ill newborns (the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit). In addition, Emilia serves as a nurse preceptor for new graduate nurses. She strives to maintain and to develop her clinical expertise by teaching neonatal resuscitation classes to both doctors and nurses.

Emilia is an active member of Interfaith's Nurses Alumnae Association. As a member of the Mid-Brooklyn Civic Association, she helps to organize and to participate in voter registration, fundraising and the selection of candidates for outstanding community service. She has also been recognized for her strong negotiating abilities on behalf of nursing contracts within the bargaining unit of Local 1199. Emilia is married to James Conolly and they are the proud parents of two daughters, Taryn and Thalia.

As stated on one of her awards, Emilia has demonstrated "compassion, empathy and personal interests" in striving to make a difference in the lives of others. Mr. Speaker, please join me in presenting the achievements of Emilia Conolly to my colleagues.

TRIBUTE TO BILL BENTON

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 11, 1999

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, among the most thoughtful constituents in the Colorado district I represent in Congress is Mr. Bill Benton of Fort Collins.

He recently composed a letter to me regarding the agenda of the House of Representatives. I'm grateful, Mr. Speaker, the Republican budget proposal moves the country dramatically in the direction proposed by Mr. Benton.

Moreover, Mr. Benton's sentiments are representative of a great many Americans concerned about the country's future. As such, I hereby commend the remarks of Mr. Benton to the House and urge my colleagues to consider these observations as we proceed in accomplishing the nation's business in Congress.

WILLIAM (BILL) M. BENTON,
Fort Collins, CO, February 24, 1999.

Hon. BOB SCHAFFER,

Fourth Congressional District of Colorado,

DEAR BOB: This problem of Republican leadership in both the house and the senate has been weighing heavily on my mind since we lost so much ground in the last national election.

After a lot of thought, and praying about it too, reading Cal Thomas, Thomas Sowell, Tony Snow and listening to Rush Limbaugh (as well as other "conservative" talking heads), studying what conservative leading magazines and newspapers (damn few, but available) have to say on this subject, I think I've boiled this very complicated knot down to—we've lost our soul in the party and we are running scared because of it.

Despite almost sixty years of a mass media trying to convince the general populace that we ought to be "a kinder, gentler" nation as a whole and feeding them huge amounts of liberal philosophy, we still, by and large, are a culture deeply rooted in conservative principles. I.E, less government, minimum governmental intrusion in our private affairs, minimum government "hand-outs" (let the churches handle the welfare needs), low taxing policies, States rights rather than Federal control, etc. etc. In other words, the backbone of what made The United States of America a unique entity among all the governments of the world past and present.

In eight short years, Ronald Reagan's administration started to get the Republican party, with its "rock ribbed" conservative tack, back on the path that the majority of our peoples felt "worked" and were comfortable with. My feeling is the voters didn't give him a Republican majority to work with is because the Republican leadership in both houses simply failed to lead! Robert Dole and his cohorts were on that appeasement road even then.

But he had a Judas Goat within the folds of the administration by the name of George "read my lips" Bush. Most of us didn't recognize this at the time and probably a lot of the leadership of our party will, even now, deny this fact. But former president Bush's capitulation to appeasement with the Democratic Majority was the beginning of the end of the conservative movement in the country as it should be practiced! (Gospel according to Benton?)

The rhetoric that came out of the February 23rd meeting between the senate leadership and President Clinton turned my stomach! These guys are from the Neville Chamberlain school! We know well that "sleeping with the enemy" only gets you beat up and bloodied.

After forty plus years of ever-increasing Democratic liberalism, Republicans don't know how to win! The House is better than the Senate and because of the House's "Contract With America," that the Senate promptly botched, it showed Republicans can win if the conservative message is packaged correctly. The loss we suffered in November can be laid directly at the Republican Senator's doorstep. Unfortunately, because we blew it, the Coach got fired (or plain tired) and our fire left the field of fight. Put that House loss in the Senate's column too.

If we are to salvage the Republican majority in both legislative bodies, we need a group of firebrands to step up and be counted—and we need it now! Our history and our soul is conservative principles. Being "nice guys" is stupid and dangerous. I don't mean we shouldn't have compassion for any who need a helping hand. But there are a multitude of ways to help people than through government intervention and the sooner the "moderates" realize this fact, the better off all of our citizens will be.

Both parties have been corrupted by foregoing their ideals. The Democrats have been taken over by the liberal faction of their party. My parents were rock ribbed anti-Roosevelt (both Franklin and Eleanor). They were Democrats who recognized the dangerous path that was starting to be followed by the New Deal Democrats. Government run pension a.k.a. Social Security that only made our oldsters dependent on the Federal octopus and our young workers drawn into one of the biggest Ponzi schemes of all time. And I remember my father saying that was only the tip of the governmental interference iceberg. In the twenties, my Dad was elected by the Trainmen's Union to be one of the board members of the Railroad Retirement Fund. I remember full well how he mustered the members of that board to resist the take over of their pension plan by the Social Security board. His faction won and that fund is one of the strongest pension plans in the world today. It is independently run on a solid actuarial basis and it hasn't loaned one damn dime to the Federal Government to hide deficit spending!

Springboarding from that background, I switched from being a Democrat to a Republican at about age twenty-five because I was very uncomfortable with the direction of the Democratic Party. Just about as uncomfortable as I am today, at age sixty-seven, with the Republican Party's inclination to forego conservatism in favor of "getting along."

Now that I'm getting close to the end of my life, I guess I shouldn't be so passionate about these things. However, I have children and grandchildren who deserve better from the Republican leadership than simply rolling over and playing footsie with the Liberals.

Now, Bob, I'm not about to go down shouting at the wind without offering a plan of action. This is something I proposed in 1965, on the editorial pages of the now-defunct Colorado Springs Free Press newspaper, and I think it is viable today as a conservative cause. Permanently "fix" the Old Age Retirement System by taking it out of the hands of the Feds per se. Much like the Railroad Retirement plan, I fashioned and envision a system that sets up a government sponsored board to make annual recommendations as to what financial institutions would be approved for investments. Coupled with this would be the requirement by each wage earner that they choose one of these financial houses and their payroll deductions go to one of the approved money warehouses. In addition, they would be required to furnish a certificate of deposit to be reported annually with their IRS filing. This way they controlled, to a certain extent, their own retirement fund but monitored by this governing board's staff. There would have to be provisions for disablement problems, but this could be tied down very stringently through the proper legislation. This way such a fund would be actuarially sound, private enterprise would be fostered, and the sorry savings rate of our citizens would be greatly improved. Plus, there would be all manners of funds available to help businesses grow, mortgages funded, etc. If done right, the Federal Government couldn't lay their grimy mitts on a single dime—not even in the form of taxation!
