PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 145

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, MAY 12, 1999

No. 68

Senate

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Dear God, You have told us that as a person thinks so is he or she. You have given us minds to think, evaluate, and make decisions. Today, we praise You for the gift of intellect and the ability to learn. We want to love You with our minds. Clear away any debilitating memories that haunt us, preventing us from thinking clearly about present challenges. Give us Your mind about issues. Free us from muddled, fuzzy, or negative thinking. Make us receptive to new insight from You communicated by others, even though they may represent a different point of view. We want to be hopeful thinkers who know that we have barely begun to realize Your truth.

Today, gracious Lord, we are grateful for the life and distinguished career of Adm. James Nance, and we grieve over his death. Thank you for his leadership as staff director of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Be with his family.

And now, Dear God, we commit this day to You. Inspire our minds with Your Spirit. Bless the Senators and those who advise them and those who assist them in carrying out the heavy responsibilities of their office. Here are our minds. We want our thinking to be a vital part of Your plan for our world today. Through our Lord and Savior. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able chairman of the Judiciary Committee is recognized.

SCHEDULE

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, this morning the Senate will resume consideration of the juvenile justice legislation. Pending is the Leahy amendment with a 1-hour debate limitation. Therefore, Senators can expect the first vote of today's session at approximately 10:30 a.m. Following the disposition of the Leahy amendment, Senator BROWNBACK will be recognized to offer a code of conduct amendment with the time for a vote to be determined. It is hoped that significant progress can be made on this bill, and therefore Senators can expect votes throughout today's session of the Senate with the possibility of votes into the evening.

I thank my colleagues for their attention.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I may suggest the absence of a quorum without it being charged to either side.

The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. President, I understand we are now on the Leahy amendment to S. 254.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

Mr. LEAHY. I thank the Chair.

Mr. President, this amendment is intended to address the problem of youth violence with tough law enforcement initiatives at the Federal level, with assistance to State and local law enforcement, proven prevention programs for juvenile delinquency, and measures to keep guns out of the hands of children.

Many of the proposals in this amendment were part of a bill I introduced, along with Senator DASCHLE and other Democratic Members, last year in the Safe Schools, Safe Streets and Secure Borders Act of 1998. That was S. 2484. We have introduced it this year as S. 9.

These are carefully crafted proposals. They were not done as knee-jerk responses to the school shootings, or even the most bloody murders in Littleton. We talked with prosecutors and police officers and teachers and everybody else in putting these proposals together. The series of proposals in the amendment have been ready since last year, but this is our first opportunity to present them to the Senate for discussion and a vote. While these proposals predated the events at Columbine High School, it escapes nobody's notice that the events at the high school give them added urgency.

This amendment is part of the Democratic multipronged agenda for action that embraces tough and more aggressive law enforcement initiatives, plus those initiatives in our other amendments to help teachers, counselors, parents, and children with afterschool
