AMENDMENTS

Under clause 8 of rule XVIII, proposed amendments were submitted as follows:

H.R. 1658

OFFERED BY: MR. HUTCHINSON

AMENDMENT NO. 21: Page 5, strike line 22 and all that follows through line 5 on page 9 and insert the following:

“(6)(A) An innocent owner's interest in property shall not be forfeited in any judicial action under any civil forfeiture provision of this title, the Controlled Substances Act, or the Immigration and Naturalization Act of 1952.

“(B)(i) With respect to a property interest in existence at the time the illegal act giving rise to forfeiture took place, a person is an innocent owner if the person establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence—

“(I) that the person did not know that the property was being used or was likely to be used in the commission of such illegal act, or

“(II) that upon learning that the property was being used or was likely to be used in the commission of such illegal act, the person promptly did all that reasonably could be expected to terminate or to prevent such use of the property.

“(ii) With respect to a property interest acquired after the act giving rise to the forfeiture took place, a person is an innocent owner if the person establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the person acquired the property as a bona fide purchaser for value who at the time of the purchase did not know and was reasonably without cause to believe that the property was subject to forfeiture. A purchaser is ‘reasonably without cause to believe that the property was subject to forfeiture’ if, in light of the circumstances, the purchaser did all that reasonably could be expected to ensure that he or she was not acquiring property that was subject to forfeiture.

“(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, no person may assert an ownership interest under this paragraph in contraband or other property that is illegal to possess. In addition, except as set forth in clause (ii), no person may assert an ownership interest under this paragraph in the illegal proceeds of a criminal act, irrespective of State property law.

“(C) For the purposes of this paragraph:

“(i) An ‘owner’ is a person with an ownership interest in the specific property sought to be forfeited, including but not limited to a lien, mortgage, recorded security device or valid assignment of an ownership interest. An owner does not include—

“(I) a person with only a general unsecured interest in, or claim against, the property or estate of another person;

“(II) a bailee, unless the bailor is identified, and the bailor has authorized the bailee to claim in the forfeiture proceeding, pursuant to the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims;

“(III) a nominee who exercises no dominion or control over the property; or “(IV) a beneficiary of a constructive trust.

“(ii) A person shall be considered to have known that such person's property was being used or was likely to be used in the commission of an illegal act if the Government establishes the existence of facts and circumstances that should have created a reasonable suspicion that the property was being or would be used for an illegal purpose.

“(D) If the court determines, in accordance with this paragraph, that an innocent owner has a partial interest in property otherwise subject to forfeiture, or a joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety in such property, the court shall enter an appropriate order—
