

is a consensus measure that also incorporates many of the excellent ideas put forth by House Administration Committee Chairman BILL THOMAS in his bill that was unanimously voted out of the House Administration Committee last summer.

In a letter I sent to the Speaker last September, I urged him to take up and pass the similarly bipartisan measure then before the Congress. I urge him again to quickly take up this matter. This bill is an opportunity for us to work together to achieve a type of reform we all agree is both necessary and important, by providing the FEC with the tools and funding to do its job.

TRIBUTE TO DYANNE LADINE

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 21, 2000

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a distinguished American and proud Californian, Dyanne Ladine, on the occasion of her induction into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame.

For more than three decades, Dyanne Ladine has focused her energy and expertise on helping those in our community who have the fewest resources and face the greatest challenges. Her degrees in law, business and religion have made her an effective and resourceful individual. She practiced law for ten years and today is an Assistant Professor of Business at the College of Notre Dame and serves as a part-time staff member for Supervisor Rose Jacobs Gibson.

In 1986, Dyanne Ladine secured a State grant and created "Project Success", which focused on the economic and educational needs of the African-American, Latino and Pacific Islander communities. In 1988, when all but five of the participants had found employment, Dyanne Ladine sold her home in Palo Alto and invested the profit in her principles. She moved to East Palo Alto where she created "Lettuce Work", a culturally diverse community cooperative which has employed fifteen women over a six-year period. In 1990, Dyanne Ladine co-convened "EPA CAN DO", which continues today as a viable and important community organization. She recently organized a two-day event for 100 East Palo Alto Junior High School girls to tour the College of Notre Dame and participate with the student body in sports and discussion.

Dyanne Ladine has frequently been recognized for her extraordinary work. She is proudest about being chosen "Teacher of the Year—1998" by her students and peers. She continues to work on numerous projects aimed at improving the lives of those around her and she is always a voice of wisdom and reason as well as an untiring, passionate crusader for justice.

Dyanne Ladine's life of leadership and community involvement is instructive to us all. Her dedication to the ideals of democracy and public service stands tall and it is fitting that she has been chosen to be inducted into the San Mateo County Women's Hall of Fame. I ask my colleagues, Mr. Speaker, to join me in honoring this great and good woman whom I'm privileged to know and call friend. We are indeed a better county, a better country and a better people because of her.

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay special tribute to an outstanding institution of higher education located in Ohio's Fifth Congressional District. Today, we mark the One Hundred Fiftieth Anniversary of the founding of Defiance College in Defiance, Ohio.

Defiance College, for one hundred fifty years, has prepared its students to be the leaders of tomorrow. For that, we owe Defiance College our gratitude and congratulations. I would urge my colleagues in the 106th Congress to stand and join me in paying special tribute to Defiance College. May its next one hundred fifty years of service be as successful as its first.

THE SURFACE TRANSPORTATION BOARD

HON. TILLIE K. FOWLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 21, 2000

Mrs. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, the Surface Transportation Board (STB) announced Friday, March 17, 2000, a rulemaking to determine how future rail mergers will be judged. While a longer period of time might have been beneficial, I applaud the Board for taking this appropriate and thoughtful step in response to the concerns voiced by customers, rail employees, Wall Street and communities during its four day hearing on rail industry consolidation.

The Board, recognizing the need for updated merger standards, has moved expeditiously to provide for a much-needed pause in the industry's restructuring to permit these new standards to be developed and applied to all future mergers. The railroads are an important engine in our nation's economy—especially in the 4th District of Florida, which is a center for rail employment and activity. The STB is to be commended in for their action to ensure the industry's continued ability to fulfill that role.

LEGISLATION BENEFITS NEBRASKA AIRPORTS

HON. DOUG BEREUTER

OF NEBRASKA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 21, 2000

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, this Member highly commends the following March 17, 2000, Omaha World-Herald editorial to his colleagues regarding the recently approved, important aviation improvement conference report, also known as AIR21, the Aviation Investment and Reform Act for the 21st century. The editorial acknowledges that it is time for the Aviation Trust Fund to be used solely for airport improvements and maintenance, rather than being considered part of the general budget. This important change will greatly benefit Nebraska airports.

[From the Omaha World-Herald, March 17, 2000]

AIR JUSTICE

The U.S. House of Representatives' overwhelming passage of a bill to spend $40 billion over three years for air-travel improvement is good for airports in general and good for airports in Nebraska and Iowa in particular. It also addresses a point of fundamental fairness.

For years Congress has bottled up money from the Aviation Trust Fund, which takes in about $10 billion a year in user fees. The central purpose of the fund has been to finance airport improvements and maintenance, and in theory it was earmarked for that. But the money was left unspent as a piece of fiscal sleight-of-hand meant to make federal deficits appear smaller.

For Rep. Bud Shuster, R-Pa., chairman of the House Transportation Committee, it became almost a moral crusade to get the fund separated from the general budget, with its revenues to be used solely for airport projects. After years of impasse, the Senate agreed that, without actually separating the funds, spending on airports each year will equal or exceed the fund's revenues and interest.

That looks like a distinction without a difference, but so be it. That's politics. The cork is out of the bottle. At bottom, this was made possible by two factors: (1) The federal government, at least by some accounting methods, is now running surpluses, not deficits. (2) It's an election year—the House passed the measure by better than 3-to-1.

The legislation also raised the cap on airport-imposed passenger fees, from $3 to $4.50. This is mostly to the good, since local airports commonly use them for improvements to benefit those same passengers. For the record, that $1.50 increase is going to look like $6 on a lot of airline tickets.

That's because on a round-trip ticket, the fee gets you literally coming and going, and it can be imposed for a maximum of two segments on each flight. Thus, a passenger flying, say from Omaha to Orlando with a stop
