

votes that are now scheduled at 2:45 tomorrow afternoon. We expect to meet later on today, and as we get an agreement of how we can proceed, certainly we will notify our Members to that effect.

I do want to say also, I firmly believe that Senators should have every opportunity to question the nominees to the President's Cabinet, and to make statements on the floor if they choose so there can be a full reading of the record and a discussion of their record. But I also think it is important that we do come to a conclusion and reach a vote.

There has been good cooperation on both sides of the aisle, and from committees, over the past month when they were chaired by Democrats and last week as it continued under Republican leadership. We will have completed all the nominations but one by tomorrow afternoon. I hope we can move to that nomination expeditiously also.

Again, I am sure we will have a full debate, but I think after a reasonable period of time we should come to a vote so the Justice Department can have an Attorney General in place and can begin to do the very important job that he will have to carry forward.

I thank my colleagues for their attention and look forward to the debate this week and working with the leadership on the schedule.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, if the distinguished Senator will yield for a comment?

Mr. LOTT. I will be glad to yield.

Mr. LEAHY. On the nomination of Senator Ashcroft to be Attorney General, I understand the White House actually sent the nomination up this morning. But even though they had not sent it until today, to try to accommodate the new President, we held hearings prior to the inauguration of the new President. I think we had an equal number of witnesses on both sides. There may have been one more for Senator Ashcroft than against, but anyway, it was completed during that time. Answers that were submitted came in this weekend.

I know the distinguished chairman of the committee, Senator HATCH, is out of the country, but I am perfectly willing, certainly on this side, to go forward with the committee vote on him as soon as he comes in, especially now that the papers have come up from the White House today. I notified the President's office this morning—speaking about Senator Ashcroft—I will not take part in any filibuster, nor do I expect there to be any filibuster on this nomination. I assure the distinguished majority leader we moved as rapidly as we could. We now actually have the nomination and the schedule is now in the hands of my friend from Mississippi.

Mr. LOTT. I thank the Senator from Vermont for that information. I think it is appropriate we actually receive the nomination before we vote—a little small detail but that has been taken care of.

Mr. LEAHY. It always helps.

Mr. LOTT. I will be talking further to your leadership about how we schedule it this week, and I look forward to getting it completed as soon as possible.

I yield the floor, Mr. President.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

MORNING BUSINESS

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Under the previous order, there will now be a period for the transaction of morning business not to extend beyond the hour of 2 p.m. Under the previous order, the time until 1 p.m. shall be under the control of the Democratic leader, or his designee.

The Senator from Nevada, Mr. REID.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the time for morning business on the Democratic side be extended until the hour of 1:10 and then the Republicans would, of course, have the next hour.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered. The Senator from Nevada.

NOMINATION

Mr. REID. Mr. President, as the majority leader indicated, we have done really a good job of approving the nominations of the new President. By tomorrow afternoon, 12 of the 13—I think that is the right number—will have been approved. Anyway, all but one will have been approved.

While the Senator from Vermont is on the floor, I extend to him the appreciation of the entire Democratic caucus for the way the hearings have been conducted.

First, as Senator LEAHY was chairman of the committee, and then following that, working as the ranking member, this is a lot of heavy lifting.

I talked to someone today, and they asked me: Why is it taking so long? I indicated that it is taking a long time because—let's assume Vice President Gore had been elected President, and I just pick a name. Let's assume Senator KENNEDY had been selected to be the Attorney General for the United States rather than John Ashcroft, two people who have served this Senate on different sides of the political spectrum. I think the Republicans would have taken a lot of time to go over all the things Senator KENNEDY had said in speeches and things he had said on the Senate floor.

That is what we are doing. We are looking at the record of the designate for Attorney General, what he said when he was attorney general, what he did when he was attorney general, what he did when he was Governor, and what he did in the Senate.

I extend my appreciation to the Senator from Vermont for the job that has been done. Senator LEAHY, prior to coming here, was a prosecutor. He had to prepare his cases to make sure all the evidence was brought before the jury and/or the court. That is in effect what he is doing, but in this instance the jury is the 100 Members of the Senate. Without a good record, we cannot make a good decision.

I have not had the benefit of sitting through all of these hearings as has the Senator from Vermont. Therefore, he must provide us, through the committee procedures, all he believes is important to be brought to the floor of the Senate. To this point he has, as usual, done an outstanding job. For the third time this morning, I extend the appreciation of the entire Democratic Conference for giving us information upon which we can make a decision regarding the Attorney General-designate that has been sent to us by the President.

I personally have not made up my mind as to what I am going to do. Therefore, I am depending on the Senator from Vermont to give me his direction, his leadership. I think it is so important that we all take what has gone on in that committee to heart.

I have said publicly on other occasions that this is not a decision only Democrats will have to make. I hope the Republicans will also keep an open mind before rushing to a decision. I have been very disappointed in some of my friends on the other side of the aisle who, prior to a single witness testifying, said they were going to vote for Senator Ashcroft. I think they should also keep an open mind and base their decision on what has transpired before the Judiciary Committee.

I also take what the Senator from Vermont has said to heart. People have things to say. I do not know who wants to speak. We will certainly know before this debate takes place, but this is not a time to restrict—and I know the majority leader has not suggested that—restrict how much time people can take. We want to make sure there is full opportunity for people to say what they want to say.

I have been contacted by a number of my colleagues who are voting for and voting against Senator Ashcroft and who want to spend some time on the Senate floor explaining that position. The floor activities will be, of course, under the direction of the Senator from Vermont who is the ranking member on the Judiciary Committee. I look forward to a good debate. It should be a high point for the Senate.

The ACTING PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Vermont, Mr. LEAHY.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I thank my dear friend, the senior Senator
