

We want the world to get to know Baltimore as a dynamic city, a city of communities—that's unified around our values, our patriotism, and our Ravens, a city with a great football heritage—and a great football future.

I congratulate the Baltimore fans, loyal and with high energy. They spent 11 years without any team at all after our Colts snuck out of town. We now have the Ravens—and we're the Super Bowl champs. We deserved this win.

I congratulate owner Art Modell, who won his first Super Bowl in 40 years of owning the team; head coach Brian Bilick, who won after only 2 years as a head coach; Ray Lewis, named most valuable player; the Ravens defense, one of the best defensive teams ever, making records and Super Bowl history, allowing just 165 points in the 16-game regular season, and had caught four interceptions during the Super Bowl.

The Ravens' offense and special teams scored big. Quarterback, Trent Dilfer threw the first touchdown pass of the game and had no interceptions; Brandon Stokely caught a 38-yard touchdown pass; Jermaine Lewis, a Maryland native and former Maryland Terrapin, returned an 84-yard kick-off to put the game out of reach.

The resolution we are passing today commends the loyalty, community spirit and enthusiasm of the Baltimore fans, applauds the Baltimore Ravens for their high standards of character, perseverance, professionalism, excellence and teamwork, praises the Ravens for their community service, congratulates the Ravens and the New York Giants for a hard-fought, sportsmanlike Super Bowl, congratulates the Ravens and their fans for the Super Bowl victory, and recognizes the achievements of the players, coaches and support staff who made this win possible.

We have been celebrating since Sunday night.

Today we had a parade through Baltimore.

We gave the Ravens the key to our city; they already have the key to our hearts.

I just watched as our colleagues from New York made good on their bet and recited Edgar Allen Poe's "The Raven."

We want our colleagues to share in our excitement for our Ravens and for our city.

Mr. SESSIONS. I ask unanimous consent that the resolution and preamble be agreed to en bloc, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 15) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.
